A WEEKLY REVIEW OF NATIONAL AFFAIRS

The session will stir the interest of the members and the country. The King and Queen will arrive in May and make a three weeks tour of the Dominion.

The session will either be protracted before their majesties arrive or it will be a short session. There is no doubt that the session will be a large success.

Since last session there has occurred the Czechoslovakian crisis, and as shown in the Lima conference the Western Hemisphere has been rudely shaken from its feeling of relative security by the threat of totalitarianism.

Geographically in the Western Hemisphere will be fully discussed. De-measures will be discussed, loom large in debate. There will be the unemployment relief measures. It has been suggested that there will be a large works program. There will be the ever present railway problem.

With interest the steps which President Roosevelt is likely to take towards a solution of the American railway problem following the report to have just received from a transport investigating commission.

So much in common in the railway situation in the two countries, that the action to be taken by the United States government may offer a valuable lead. Dr. Manion, the speaker of the house of commons, has said that the action to be taken by the United States government may offer a valuable lead.
