Mr. E. T. Carter returned from the General Hospital in Hamilton on Monday where he had been undergoing treatment. We regret to report that he continues quite poorly. Miss Mary Banks, nurse in training, returned to her duties in the General Hospital, Hamilton, after spending a two weeks vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Banks.

How to that veets feetal recurring every four or five years, sometimes oftener, by which the people of Canada select their representatives to the federal parliament. It will unques tionably not be very long before the election is held but, as announced, a little while ago by the prime ministry events in Europe will be carefully watched before a decision of the date is made.

Ontario harness horsemen will pay homage to the illustrious Dean of their profession, Victor Fleming, at The Grand Circuit Meeting of Ontario a Stratford on July 22nd. This first of the regular two-day race meeting to be held here has been designated as Vic. Fleming Day and Vic. will be on hand personally to mingle among his oid friends and acquaintances and to give the general race-going public an opportunity to see the man who has brought fame and many honors both to him self and to Canadian racing and breeding interests.

For the first time in the history of the trotting turf in Canada a World's Champion Harness Horse will make his appeacance in a race against time. Billy Direct 1.55. the fastest harness horse that ever lived, will be driven by Fleming and will also be paraded both harnessed and on the halter before the grandstand crowds.

When Vic. drove Billy to an all-time record of 1.55 at Lexington, Ky on September 28th last, he smashed the record of Dan Patch 1.5514, by one-quarter of a second, that had stood the onslaughts of numerous great horses for 33 years.

Vic. Fleming, well and popularly known wherever harness horse men congregate, has been a scintilizating figure on the Grand Circuit tracks pany, a large Czechoslovakia firm will erect at Frankford, Ontario. A
