A ROVING REPORTER - LOOKS AT LIFE. -

"IT'S IN YOUR FACE" The other day I happened to pick up a magazine section of a week and newspaper. I read it because it had some excellent book reviews.

I am surprised by the great number of poems written by men and women who are constantly striving to see their names in print. The people in the world more than the average reader would believe; men and women who are not constantly striving to see their names in print.

"You don't have to tell how you live each day. You don't have to say if you love or you hate. A lived, you live, it will show in your face. However you live, it will show in your face."

If your life is unselfish, if for others you live, you are not what you get, but how you give. Sickiness and poor health makes us selfish. You don't have to tell it, it shows in your face.

Think it over and you will see how true it is. Think of the people you know, those you meet day in and day out. Think of those with open and cheerful faces. Their faces are the outward manifestation of their innermost feelings.
