The ROYAL VISIT

By S. J. Dorman, C.W.N.A. Representative on the Press Pilot Train.

Third Release Covering the Visit of Their Majesties to Quebec and Montreal

Vancouver, May 30, 1939 - Leaving Winnipeg, where the reception was really colossal, the train ran into Toronto exactly on time and was greeted by a huge crowd. There was only a short stop but there was ample evidence of the western hospitality which we first saw at Winnipeg. After dusk set in we entered the Brandon and here was the most astounding display of the entire trip; banked on a natural hill which sloped back to Railway Avenue, were eleven thousand school children from Brandon schools and one hundred rural students in that portion of Manitoba; added to the children were 20,000 adults from the city and district. The reception platform was bathed in floodlights which made it as bright as day. The royal reception given on the press train was ample evidence that Their Majesties were in for a royal acclaim.

Both trains were stopped at Kenora for sleeping but left early next morning on the way to Regina; passing through Wapella, Monemont, Whitedwood, Wolesey, Broadview and Indian Head, all of these points were gaily decorated and each had its quota of cheering citizens who gave a splendid account of themselves by cheering; at many of these points the A.A. saw the number of aged persons who were ready to greet their King and Queen by means of waving a flag.

Arrival in Regina saw the sun shinning in all its splendour; the writer received a welcome on the platform from Premier W. J. Patterson and Mr. D. B. MacIsaac. The latter requested that we go on the train for several minutes with a greeting to the people of our home province; to do this we were rushed in an elevator and there answered several questions of the capital city of Saskatchewan. The famous Bow River casting station of Saskatchewan was missed out of our "press car" and prepared to wait until after Their Majesties had arrived and left the station; a consequence we stood at the main entrance to the station and witnessed one of the greatest demonstrations of loyalty of the entire tour; thousands lined all approaches to the station and every building had its full quota of cheering populace; this reception was so demonstrative that several men whom we know personally to be not easily effected, had tears streaming down their faces. As one man said to me, "Isn't she wonderful young woman and he is so youthful!" It was indeed very dramatic to see the reaction of this immense crowd to the smiling countenance of Her Majesty and the respectful salute of the King. The reception and acclaim of the capital city of Regina, extended to Their Majesties left nothing to be wished for; the keystone province of the Dominion took this lovely Scottish lady and this noble English gentleman, our beloved King and Queen, to their hearts and shouted, cried and even screamed their welcome. When it came time to say farewell Regina men and women were the guests of the city business men to an informal reception in the ballroom of the Hotel Saskatchewan and this "gettogether" was one of the highlights of the press trip so far. The fact that saying "lot for we have been royally received at every point. This writer enjoyed almost a complete rest day in Regina for we here that I saw my wife and family and met scores of friends; this could be best appreciated when I tell you I have been longer away from my home and office on this trip than I have in the past twenty-five years. Shortly after leaving Regina we received another tumultuous greeting when we reached Moose Jaw; here another radio broadcast took place from the roof of the station with Charles Jennings, chief announcer of CBC, P. F. Dimbebe, of B.B.C. as guest speakers and Assistant Postmaster on Royal Train; Major Pascoe, as Master of Ceremonies. This city was a wonderful sight with a profusion of illuminations and no end of decorations and the usual cheering thousands.

Had every intention of getting up the following morning at 5:30 at Swift Current, to greet His Excellency, C.W.N.A., but fatigue was telling and I overtook my regret. At Swift Current a parcel of the Swift Current Sun was on the train for me and I had them distributed through the cars; in this connection I might mention that the following papers, members of their press train and each was placed throughout the press train; "Conservator," "Brampden," "Swan River Star," "Swift Current Sun" and "Alameda Dispatch." More are yet to come, so I am advised.

Calgary extended a wonderful reception to their King and Queen; the city was in gala attire and at this point there was an extensive Indian Encampment; when Their Majesties reached the Indian camp, the staff awaited the arrival of Their Majesties and escorted them (continued on page eight)
