

It was almost one o'clock when like Peter. I think he would prefer got home but Gram had a girl of your type."
"I do believe," the grandbeen much too excited to sleep. She met her at the top of the the drawer, "you planned this whole thing deliberately!" "Well, tell me about it, Kitten."

She followed her granddaughter into her room. "Did you have a "Lo-vely," Judy yawned, sitting down and kicking off her slippers. "Much better than I expected. Mare and I played for the rest to dance, and we played bingo after-Gram sat down and folded her hands.

"Yes, go on! Did everybody like your new dress?" 'Yum, I guess so," Judy yawned again, "Peter did. Anyway, he old me I looked like a little daf-

"Maybe he meant daffy." Gram looked pleased. "And what did you think of Marlie's big moment?'

"Tucky's very beautiful. But a little silly, I think. She flirted with Peter behind Marlie's back. In fact, I thought she made a disgusting play for him. Well, Lisa did too, that matter. I don't think Mike liked it very well. But Marlie was too dumb to notice he was being two-timed right under his nose." "So Peter was quite a hit." Gram beamed. "I thought he would be. How do you like him?" "He's a perfect gentleman," Judy said without enthusiasm. "And very handsome too, if you ask me. If I were a young girl, I'd go for him in a big way." "Too bad you're not young, Gram." Judy got up to slip her new gown over her head. "You'd be the belle of the town, I'll bet."

'I never lacked for beaus in my day," the old woman chuckled remniscently. "Your grandfather ought I was a pretty bad flirt. But he soon tamed me. That's what happens when a girl falls in love. Did Peter ask to see you

"You ask too many questions." Judy sat down to take off her stockings. "No, he didn't. Did you expect him to?" "He will." Gram yawned and got up. "You looked very lovely, and Peter isn't blind." Plenty Of Other Girls

'Gram!" Judy sounded pro of "Inst because you asked Peter

RIO DE

JANEIRO

IS NEARER TO

BOSTON

NEW YORK.

THAN TO

"Um." Judy put the dust-cloth away. "Are you going to take Tucky Marlie shrugged and made an effort to look indifferent.
"Nope. Guess not. Lisa says she

TO THE POST OF THE PERSON OF THE PARTY OF TH

heard Tucky ask your doctor to tome over tonight, and she thinks 'I don't care, of course." Judy lelt a little sorry for her crestfallen neighbor. "I saw her making a play for him." "You did?" Marlie followed her out to the porch. "What did she 'Oh, just silly things. Rolled her big blue eyes and called him "Doc-tah" in her best Southern dialect." "Maybe you imagined it," Marlie ucked a morning-glory from a ine and held it to his nose. "Tucky s nice to everybody."

"Oh, sure," Judy scoffed. "Well, it's a good thing you have Lisa to console you, if Tucky really does leave you flat for the handsome doctor. That seems to be her intention. So long. Don't jump into the lake now." A Different Girl

FEATURE - WAY - MAY 4th She ran down the steps before Marlie had a chance to answer. It was a busy morning in the drug store, and Judy had very little time to think. It was shortly before noon that she looked up and saw Peter time. Get to sleep now. You're not He was in white tennis pants and sport shirt with short sleeves and turned-down collar. And he was handsomer than the evening before, flushed, and with his hair urling wildly over his head. He showed flashing white teeth in a friendly grin as he sat down at the counter.

"Do you suppose a drink of something cool will spoil my lunch?" he "Well," Judy smiled back at him shyly, "I suppose I couldn't prescribe it as being very good fo your digestion." "A poor business woman, but a good nurse." Peter's eyes crinkled at the corners with gayety. He gave his order While Judy mixed his drink, he watched her. She was a vastly different girl from the buttercup-Trim and immaculate in a big white apron, which completely swathed her little figure. He hands were small and white and moved with quick efficiency. There was a lull in business and all the mess cleaned up. But we Judy and Peter were the only two can't do much about the damage.' in the store when she sat the drink before him. "I came to ask you to lunch," the loctor said as he took a sip and nodded approvingly. "Oh!" Judy looked surprised.

'That's very kind of you, doctor, out I can't get away, Sam Calhoun Peter looked disappointed evening, do you?"

using quick vigorous movements.

After at least ten minutes of this, take the ankle between both ands, and wring it mercilessly. twisting one hand to the right and the other leg. Whilst undergoing these leg atments, take a dash of Kkovah health salts in a glass of water every morning, to tone up your ing 3c stamp for each.

Please write direct to: Miss Barbara Lynn, 73 West Adelaide St.,

Room 421, Toronto, Ont.

"Well," Judy hesitated. "I usual-too much activity. I prescribe a lit-tle relaxation. There's a new show pening in Albany and I'd like nothing better than to enjoy it with you. If you say nay I'll call your grandmother. She said you were o look after me this summer." "Well," Judy turned and wiped glass, "I guess I can manage it." Peter finished his drink and then jumped up. "I'll phone for the tickets. Be ady at seven, sharp, so we can have a nice drive in the June twiight. I think you've been spending too much time cooped up in his drug store." When he had gone Judy smiled herself. So Tucky hadn't sucseeded in making her date with Peter, after all. That was funny. It was sort of nice, knowing that eter could have taken Tucky, but preferred her. She could hardly wait to get home to tell Gram. (To Be Continued)

Auburn Tresses Pay Dividends It's Best To Be A Red-head

When It's A Question Of Cold Cash, Hollywood Makeup Expert Claims. From a fiction standpoint, the hoice may lie between blondes and brunettes, but when it comes o cold cash, it's better to be a Perc Westmore, a make-un au thority, disclosed today that he paid $1,920 for 24 ounces of na-tural red hair to fashion a wig r Bette Davis-which is $80 an red hair are not anxious to part with it at any price—or their husands will not permit them to cut off," he said.

He said tests of dyed red hair or different shades showed a crim-son reflection on Miss Davis' feat ing. Only natural red failed to

Shirtfrock Aids Slimness

By ANNE ADAMS

er. Do without the scallops if you prefer a plainer dress.

Pattern 4087 is available in misses' and women's sizes 16, 18, 20, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 takes 4% yards 35 inch coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this Anne Adams pattern Write plainly Size, Name, Address and Style Number. Send your order to Anne Adame, Room 425, 73 West Adelaide

A FLASHING

Household

By SADIE B. CHAMBERS

DELICIOUS CANADIAN DISHES

than a loyalty to Maple syrup on your bill of fare? Nothing will bring more loyalty to the cook and adherence to the slogan "Just like Motrer Made." Three recipes follow one for pancakes; one for waffles for those who are for-unate enough to have an electric waffle iron, and thirdly a simple

PANCAKE RECIPE

3 teaspoons baking powder

4 cup melted butter
Measure flour and sift with baking powder and salt. If whole wheat flour is used, toss in after sifting the white flour and baking powder. Add beaten egg, milk and melted butter. Add slowly the liquids to dry ingredients. Some eggs vary as does the flour; if batter should be thin, add more milk if necessary. Pour or drop rounds of batter on hot frying pan. When bubbles appear turn and brown on the other side. Serve

MAPLE SYRUP CREAM

1 1/3 cups (1 can condensed milk)

2 tablespoons granulated su-

1 pint envelope plain gelatine

Boil milk and syrup in double ciler. Remove from heat and stir in gelatine, which has been soak with sugar added sprinkled with

WAFFLES

try flour 3 teaspoons baking powder ½ teaspoon salt

3 egg yolks 3 egg whites beaten stiff

½ cup milk 4 tablespoons melted butter

Sift flour, baking powder and salt. If using whole wheat too, toss in after sifting other dry ingredients. Then add well beaten egg yolks, milk and cream, and and cook on electric waffle iron in the usual way. Serve with plain maple syrup or a thinly whipped added. Waffles are not synonynous with breakfast any more for they can be dressed up with a vabehaved addition for luncheon or

Your Household

Problems

oviding a varied and interest ing menu? Do your cakes fall? Then write, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Miss Sadie B. Chambers, care of this paper, and she will endea your to solve your problems.

For Sightseeing

Coat Can Be Removed, Should

Have Long Sleeves

NEW YORK .- Two-piece jacket dresses are the most practical choice on a normal day of fair sight-seeing. It's a little better f the jacket has long sleeves, too.

For you know how undessed you feel in bare arms when a wind

Choose Washable Fabrics

These jacket dresses are formal nough enroute and for dining,

yet they are practical since the jacket can be removed. If it's cool, or you're staying out for din-ner, remember how unpredictable

our weather is and take a wrap

Jacket Dresses

vening as well as breakfast.

piping hot with maple syrup.

2 cup whipping cream

2/3 cup maple syrup

1/2 cup pecan nuts

the nuts. Serves six

1/2 cup cream

2 teaspoon salt

1% cups milk

½ cup whole wheat flour

What could be more patriotic

Science

. . . teeth kept be and attractive the help of WRIGH WRIGIEYS SPEARMIN CHEWING GO AFTER EVERY GET SOME

Accessories A Very Impor

They Form The Lux Of A Woman's This Season-Choo Carefully.

ed in ¼ cup cold water. Beat with egg beater a few rounds to Accessories are the re rious parts of the femi-tume this season. Caref wet moulds. Chill. Unmold and serve with the whipped cream, sen, they can give a wom elegant appearance, ere she is wearing a simple suit or a dress devoid 1/2 cups sifted flour, 1/4 cup whole wheat flour or 2 cups pas-

The accessories include an umbrella, a portable proof rain cap, a scarf will ed handkerchief, glove, tonniere and fanciful jes even the decorative shoe vogue fall into the categ cessories.

Blending Colo One important rule is a lowed in choosing such an There must always be on Thus the bag blends a gloves and sometimes shoes, or there is color or mony between the gloves, and the handkerchief or earrings, brooches and d

... and it's open! Click ::. and it's closed!

At Big S

BeettiveSy Goodbye, on Ironing by

$1.00 FOR YOUR OLD

Latest Portrait of His Majesty King Coorge VI

nday hool SSOU

LESSON VIII Aspect of the Liquor

"Drink no wine nor Lesson In Its Setting

The prophecy of Jerelocated with great exact g the years when he prout may be put, with a of certainty, about the B.C. Paul wrote the epis Ephesians in A.D. 61. chabites were a nomad bron. 2:55, and connected Amalekties, Num. 24: 21. nd I set before the sons of use of the Rechabites bowls wine, and cups; and I said hem, Drink ye wine. 6. But said, We will drink no wine; madab the son of Rechab, our commanded us, saying, Ye rink no wine, neither ye, nor ns, forever: 7. neither shall house, nor sow seed, nor rineyard, nor have any; but days ye shall dwell in that ye may live many days the land wherein ye sojourn. 8.

we have obeyed the voice of the son of Rechab, our in all that he charged us rink no wine all our days, we, dwell in; neither have we vine-d, nor field, nor seed: 10. but have dwelt in tents, and have and done according to all t Jonadab our father command-us. Acting under the command God, Jeremiah called the repres-ative men of the Rechabites to the house of Jehovah, and red them wine. It was done to er to give them the opportunity refuse, and thus prepare the for the message that men are loyal to the commandments n than they are to the con

Through Evil Days bound to dispel the darkness careful they should be not dark themselves, but to walk as men. Carefully how ye walk. as unwise, but as wise. Wise are those who not only know truth. Paul is writing to Chris who have the truth, spiritual th, moral truth, all centered in rist, and because of which they what is right and what is ng, as we do. 16. Redeeming the time, because he days are evil. When days are vil, Christians themselves are in reat danger of being allured into and will be delivered from ich temptations only as they keep the Lord Jesus Christ, ever lert to witness for him, and transting, with consuming earnestness he business of the King whom

17. Wherefore be ye not foolish, understand what the will of the 18. And be not drunken with the

ine, wherein is riot, but be filled with the Spirit.

We are accustomed to oppose ex We are accustomed to oppose arcessive drinking by the claims of abstinence; but here the alternative counsel is the recption of the Holy Ghost. The fundamental need of life is not a sensation, but an inspiration. It is folly to seek to spur the essential powers of life by a stimulus of the flesh.

by a stimulus of the flesh.

Filled With Holy Spirit

19. Speaking one to another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody with your heart to the Lord.

20. Giving thanks for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God, even the Father. The apostles preached in the name of the Lord Jesus; they wrought miracles in his name; believers are commanded to pray in his name; commanded to pray in his name; and here we are told to give thanks in his name.

21. Subjecting yourselves one to another in the fear of Christ. "The another in the fear of christ, athere is the second of the primary point in the spiritual eth-ics of the gospel is humility. Self ics of the gospel is humility. Self is dethroned as against God, and consequently as against men.

An ideal Christian home, Eph. 8:1-4. 1. Children, obey your parents in the Lord; for this is right. 2. Honour thy father and mother, (which is the first commandment) with promise), 3. that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

of Massachusetts, can't make up his mind. A woman in Santiago, Chile, wrote him: "I saw your picture in a newspaper. You look like my father who died years ago. As I have no picture of him, will you place to the same of the same of him, will you place to the same of him, will you place to the same of t you please send me one of yours."

Books And You PAUL HAMILTON

sold in Canada.

A book for thoughtful people, it is not one to be read hastily and set aside. Nor is the reader likely to forget it. It has faults, but the most critical reader will agree, from the first page on, that Miss. Graham is a born story teller with exceptional ability for making real the trivia which afflict the mind of youth, and for sustaining suspense in schoolgirl and schoolmistress conflicts. Rich in material (a more seasoned novelist would have writ-ten three novels, two or more short stories and perhaps a play with the same material) its greatest merit s the conversation. Rich, brillian bright, underlying quality of gaiety you could wish to know, and that wish is a tribute to the success of the author's efforts. The breadth of Vicky's humanity, as portrayed here, shows that Miss Graham has what Arnold Bennett described as the essential qualifications of the great novelist, "A Christlike and all-embracing compass

NTARIO UTDOORS By VIC BAKER

popular sports enjoyed by Ontario sportsmen, both young and old. Almost every village, town and city in the province boasts its group of marksmen who are continually participating in one contest or another. But it's when national competitions are held that Route—East on Danforth to Woodbinc, south to east entrance gates on Woodbine Ave. Drive around track in state landau accompanied by an escort of R.C.D.'s.

3.35 p.m.—Arrive enclosure.

2.55 p.m.—Leave stand in state landau; proceed each to Woodbine Ave., and then leave for Parliament buildings in motor car.

Route—West on Queen to King St., west on King to University Ave., north to Queen's Park.

5.20 p.m.—Leave for Christie Street hospital.

to St. Clair; west to Christie St.; south to Christie Street hospital.

Guns Fire Salute

5.35 p.m.—Arrive Christie St.

hospital. 5.40 p.m.—Leave Christie St.

PRIZ'S CANADIAN NOVEL Graham has been awarded the Gov Swiss Sonata (Published by ished last year, it won immediate Graham recognition and second printing is now selling in England where three times more copies have been sold than were

and in Canada.

A first novel begun when the author was 21 and finished when allow was 23, Swiss Sonata is a book of exceptional maturity and depth. In England critics hailed it in most laudatory terms. The story is slight and not overburdened with plot. What gives it impact and inslight and not overburdened with plot. What gives it impact and interest is sharp insight into character and broad understanding of humanity. Placed in a girls' school overlooking Lake Geneva, it tells what happens during three eventful days in this tiny, remote community where the conflicts which mar Europe and the outer world are reflected among girls at school.

ly entertaining, the conversation of some of the characters has a hard, which perhaps not everyone fully vicky Morrison is a cha

ONTARIO SCORES AGAIN! Competitive rifle shooting is without doubt one of the most proof presents itself of how this sport is enjoyed and practiced by the average Ontario citizen. The most recent national shoot-The most recent national shooting tournament to furnish such proof is the recently completed first round of the 1939 Dominion Marksmen Junior Small Bore Rifle League annual competition. Of the 169 five-man teams, representing 845 shooters from all over Canada, competing in the competition, 81 teams or 405 shooters were Ontario marksmen representing all sections of the province. Think of it, almost half the entries in this nation-wide shooting tournament were Ontario shooters!

Brockville Best Shooters

And there are many expert

Brockville Best Shooters

And there are many expert marksmen among these, as shown in the final scores posted. Sharpshooters of the No. 1 rifle team of Brockville Collegiate Institute and Vocational School posted second high score among the 169 entries to fall slightly behind the high scorers, the crack No. 1 Team of the Saint John, N.B., Vocational School. The Ontario team scored School. The Ontario team scored 1485 out of 1500 points while the Maritimers posted a score of 1491 out of 1500.

The Brockville shooters also be-

The Brockville shooters also became the new holders of the Ontario provincial shooting championship when last year's finalists, the Peterboro Collegiate and Vocational School, failed to compete. The Brockville boys had to tion, met by guard of honor of Queen's Own Riffes.

Place 100,000 Trout In Saugeen River

of the famous Scottish liners "ATHENIA" and "LETITIA" to England, Ireland and Scotland

Following the policy of keeping "abreast of the times", the Donaldson Atlantic Line have thoroughly reconditioned and improved the accommodation in all three classes of these vessels.

The new features include:-Hot and cold running water in all Cabin and Tourist staterooms, and in most Third Class cabins.

Beds instead of berths.

Controlled ventilation throughout:
 Enlarged and rebuilt cabin staterooms in "Athenia".

New rooms with private bath on the "Athenia" following similar improvements made in the "Letitia".

NOTE THESE LOW RATES Cabin from $132.00; Tourist $118.00; Third $91.00 Weekly sailings from Montreal to Belfast, Liverpool and Glasgow in conjunction with the Cunard White Star liners "Andania" and "Antonia".

Radio Conductor

Answer to Previous Puzzle 20 He was born HORIZONTAL DORHELEN

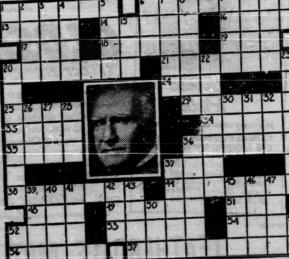

E NA
M M 27 To obtain.

28 To piece out
28 To piece out
30 To be sick.
31 Varnish ingredient. 49 Venomous 39 To pry.

53 To revoke.
54 Democrats.
56 He won fame as a conductor of — s.
57 He has long been a leader 11 Coagulated of — orchestras.

12 Male pronoun. 46 Kiln. 47 Half.

lina.

The MOST BEAUTIFUL BIRDS OF THE WORLD HAVE HARSH, THE LARGER WHALES.

EVERY DAY. ALTHOUGH there are some exceptions to the rule, beautiful birds seldom have beautiful songs. This, of course, is only reasonable, since gayly colored birds would be made more conspicuous by song. Most of the world's most brilliantly colored birds content themselves with a few raucous notes.

THE DRIME OF LIFE INCREASE

MORE THAN 100 POUNDS IN WEIGHT

NEXT: How Far Does the Moon Travel in a Trip Around the Earth.

6

used to being up so late. The next morning Marlie and Judy surveyed the Jones house "You'll have to get some one in to clean this place up thoroughly." Judy ran her fingers over a spot where a cigarette had burned the dining-room table. It would take me a week to get it looking right." Marlie was horrified. 'I'll send for Mrs. Tutte. She does mother's "And you'd better tell her not to do any talking about it," warned with sinking spirits.

daughter yanked her nightie out of

"Don't be absurd." Gram prepared to make a quick exit before Judy could make any more accusations. "Well, I'm glad you had a nice

Judy. "If your mother finds out, we'll both get the blame. Mike broke one of her best cups." "Maybe she won't count 'em,' Marlie hoped dispiritedly. Judy bent down and picked up a cigarette stub from the livingroom carpet.

"Here's a noie. Ch, lordie! You better check up all over the house and learn the worst right away." In A Bad Hole "Mom is sure to see that," Mar-lie said dolefully. "Well, I'll call Mrs. Tuttle and at least we'll get "You better just find a hole and crawl in and stay there till next smiling at Marlie's wobegone expression. "Or go west, young man, The phone rang. Judy picked up dustcloth because she wanted an excuse to find out who it was: Marlie answered in the hall. "Oh, hello, Lisa." He made no effort to sound cheerful. "Yeah, I had a swell time." There was a pause, then Marl latingly, "Well, I don't know. Yeah, I guess so. Too

you. About six-thirty." He hung up, looking a little pale, Judy thought. "Bad news?" she asked curious-think he has to bother taking me put again. There were plenty of wants me to drive her to her house

"No-well, not very, It was Lisa, Her aunt in Albany is sick and she other girls there tonight, and they this evening to see how she is," bad your aunt's sick. Okay, I'll take THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson calves and ankles. FOR THIN LEGS. Lighter shades of stockings often create a plumper effect.

Massage will help. Use gentle stroking movements, working from the instep to the ankle, and from ankle to the knee. A good fattening mixture is made with 3 parts f olive oil to one of lanolin. Put the lanolin in a jar and stand in very hot water until it melts, then slowly add the olive oil, beating all the time. Apply it generously to the legs, massaging as described above. Keep the jar handy for future use and heat before using. FOR FAT LEGS. To reduce fat legs, massage as follows: Cover legs and ankles with a good lather of palmolive soap. Massage well in, then rinse dry, cross the legs and dust talcum heavily on the upper leg. Next pinch firmly between fingers and thumb.

the other to the left. Repeat with

Complete leg treatments (slim-ming and fattening) may be ob-tained, as well as leaflets on Face, Eyes, Hands, Bust, Feet, Slim-ming, Underweight, Superfluous Hair, Reducing in Spots, by sendPATTERN 4089

Into the world of spring fashion comes this "look slimmer" design the newest, easiest-to-make and most gracious of button-front dresses! Scalloping on collar, sleeves and pockets snaps up its martness to a new peak of charm . . . and rounding off these pretty petal-like curves is simple as A, B, C (as you'll find out from the Sewing Instructor of Pattern 4089). In a geometric silk or rayon, this neat yoke-style creation is right for every casual day-time event. In a light-color cotton, it changes its character to be the ideal kitchen-and-porch frock . . . cool and nifty too for cottage wear in blistering weath-

Send Twenty Cents (20c) in

Fiery, Itching Toes and Feet

In fabrics, consider pure silk frocks, for they can be washed. Consider cotton for the same reason, and spun rayon and linen

Coleman HEATING

4. And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath. A parent Governor Leverett Saltonstall, ouildings. 11.50 a.m.—Enter legislative chamber. 12.25 p.m.—Leave legislative chamber, proceed to lieutenant-governor's suite.

The Royal Visit

To Toronto

Detailed it nerary to be followed by Their Majesties On Their officer commanding.

by his own ill conduct nurture evil by his own ill conduct nurture evil in the heart of his child. But nurture them. In the chastening. The word here translated "chastening" refers to the whole training and education of children. And admonition of the Lord. This last word means generally training by word, and in actual use, mostly, by word of reproof, remonstrance, or blame. Here is a brief but priceless word

Drive To Riverdale 12.40 p.m.—Her majesty will proceed to west campus to present colors to Toronto Scottish regi terrace door and drive to Winchester Drive with a motorcycle es-Routes—East to east side of

Visit to Ontario's Capital, Mry 22.

A detailed outline of he royal visit to Toronto is as follows:

10.30 a.m.—Their majestics and entourage detrain at the North Toronto station and are met on the platform by the lieutenant-governor, the premier, the mayor and their wives and the district officer commanding. officer commanding.

To Have Escort

10.45 a.m.—The procession moves off to the city hall. Their majesties' car will be accompanied by the capacit of B C D's. Drive; met by cavalry escort of Governor-General's Horse Guards. Drive down to Riverdale Park and through lines of children in the by the escort of R.C.D.'s.

Route—South on Yonge to Queen, west on Queen to city hall.

11 a.m.—Arrive at the city

11.15 a.m.—Leave city hall to proceed to Parliament buildings.
Route—South on Bay St. to Front, west on Front to University, north on University to Queen's Park.
11.40 a.m.—Arrive Parliament from which he expects to derive food for himself and family, than

Here is a brief but priceless word for the parent's heart. It lays a fresh stress upon his responsibilities in the guidance and the forewarning of his child; but that the spirit of self must be banished from the work, if it is to be done indeed.

This latest portrait of His Majesty the King shows him wearing the uniform of colonel-in-chief of the Cameron Highlanders.

1.05 p.m.—His majesty will proceed to Hart House.

2.20 p.m. — Their majesties leave Hart House by southeast

Queen's Park Crescent; north on east side of Queen's Park Crescent; north on east side of Queen's Park Cres. to Bloor; east on Bloor to Winchester Drive.

2.30 p.m.—Arrive Winchester

Ave.

Out To Woodbine

3 p.m.—Leave Winchester Dr., proceed to Woodbine with motorcycle escort.

Route—East on Danforth to Woodbine south to east entrance

Street hospital.
Route—North on Avenue Rd.,

5.40 p.m.—Leave Christie St.
hospital for Exhibition grounds, Route—South on Christie to Eloor; west to Parkside Drive; south to Lake Shore Blvd., east to Exhibition grounds.
6.10 p.m.—Met by an escort of Governor-General's Horse Guards
at west entrance to Exhibition Freunds. Drive along Lake Shore
Rd. through ranks of school children, boy scouts, girl guides, etc., shaped. 48 Age.

and down Avenue of Remembrance where trees will be planted as their majesties pass.

Route—East on Lake Shore Blvd. to Avenue of Remembrance, Fleet St. to York, north to Front; east on Front to Union Station.

6.45 p.m.—Arrive at Union Station.

noun. 15 Insect's egg. VERTICAL 1 Grief.