LESSON VII PUTTING GOD'S KINGDOM FIRST Matthew 6:19-34. den Text.-Seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness Matt. 6:33.

THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING _Spring, A.D. 27. Place.—On some mountain in Palestine, the location of which we do not know.

19. Lay not up for yourselves tresures upon the earth, where moth and rust consume, and where theves break through and steal: 10. but lay up for yourselves trea-sures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth consume, and here thieves do not break through nor steal. The King does not say that it is wrong to lay up; it is the purpose at the back of things which matters. Christ says we are to remember that we are not the child of today, nor of the earth; we are of the eternities.

Where Your Treasure Is
21. For where thy treasure is there will thy heart be also. Christ warns us against the accumulation of wealth for wealth's sake, be-cause of the influence of that which a man lives for on the man himself. The heart, he says, seals e fate of the treasure. Life it self may become a victim of mold and rust and thief. We lay up easures in Heaven when ou lives are bearing fruit, spiritually, when we employ in service for the King the spiritual gifts and talents he has intrusted to us.

22. The lamp of the body is the eye if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. 23. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is the darkness! The single eye sees everything in proper proportion, related to a whole. Here the body represents the man himself in the completeness of his personality, and the eye is the outlook on the world and achieve his end." his fellow men. A good eye is the condition of spiritual illumination.

Freedom From Anxiety 24. No man can serve two mas-ters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and Mammon. One cannot obey God when one is enslaved to richs, material possessions. To be wholly yielded to God is to be the master of all material things. 25.
Therefore I say unto you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment? Christ is here warning us against having an anxious temper of mind. If we spend all our energy and thought in worry-ing about what things we are gong to eat and wear, we have little Swept Out Of Office r the inner, precious things at make life really wor 26. Behold the birds of the beaven, that they sow not, neither to they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they? 27. and which of you by being anxi-And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto the measure of his life? Worrying about death does not prolong life.

28. And why are ye anxious conterning raiment? Consider the liles of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin; 29. yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not urayed like one of these. The plant referred to here may be the memone, which grows in the wring of the year on the hillsides of Gaillee. 30. But if God doth clothe the grass of the field, hich today is, and tomorrow is at into the oven, shall he no much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? If God has spent all this labor on what passes so soon, how easy it should be to trust him care for us with that same wisom and omnipotence, when we Live For Today 31. Be not therefore anxious aying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Where-withal shall we be clothed? 32. For after all these things the Gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have no need of all these things. By Gentiles here, is meant pagan peoples of the world, then and now. 33.

But seek we first his him and see the seek of the seek we first his him and seek the first him and seek the seek; for your heavenly have not have the seek; for your heavenly have not have not have the seek; for your heavenly have no seek; for your heavenly heavenly heavenly have no seek; for your heavenly heavenly have no seek; f eek ye first his kingdom, and a righteousness; and all these inga shall be added unto you. The first lesson taught by these targes is that anxious thought is ontary to all the lessons of na-, which show it to be unneces secondly, it is contrary to all lessons of revelation or reliwhich show it to be heathenthirdly we must have a goal life, a spiritual objective.

AND NEIGHBORLY CO-OPERATION An example in international re-lations — that might well be a lesson to some nations in Europe was a discovery I made the other day while doing some investigating on programs heard across the bor-der. For in Buffalo I came to a program that might well be called "Hands Across the Border" rather than its present title "International House Party." I found that while the hour variety show employed the best of American talent, the Canadian touch is supplied with scripts that are written in Mont-real, one of the highlights of the program "The Story Within the Song" is the product of a Toronthe dramatic feature - a five minute sketch lar contribution of Walter O'Hearn a Montreal newspaperman, and John Sturgiss, the baritone solo-ist, is also Toronto's gift. The program can be heard from Buffalo over WGR any Tuesday evening from 9:00 to 10:00 o'clock. REMEMBRANCE DAY The Annual Remembrance Day eremony on Parliament Hill in Ottawa, which will take place in the presence of the Governor Ger eral, Lord Tweedsmuir, Prime Minister MacKenzie King, Canadian dignitaries of Church and State, the Diplomatic Corps and consular representatives from many countries, will be broadcast to the people of the Dominion by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation through their coast to coast net-work of stations, on Saturday, November 11, from 10:45 to 11:30 a.m. A choir conducted by Cyril Rick-

The Last Post and the Reveille sounded by Post and the Reveille sounded by trumpeters far above in the gallery of the Peace Tower will end the ceremony. Where Many Canadians Spend A Pleasant Winter Scenes like this are common on Brentwood Bay, near Victoria, B.C., all winter long, with particular emphasis this fall and winter when Canadians are keeping Canadian dollars in Canada. Grilse, like the 12 poundor just brought to gaff, and salmon in the tidal waters, compled with keen fly fishing in "up island" streams combine to make the west coast a winter fisherman's paradise. Reports flowing into Canadian Pacific offices, and reservations at the Empress Hotel, indicate a heavy vacation travel to Victoria this winter.
