5. Isn't it unwise to write a letter while angry?
6. Whose duty is it to see that corsages are sent to the mothers of the bride and the bridegroom? Answers

1. No. "To be angry is to revenge the fault of others upon ourselves." No matter how much we are provoked, remember that self-control is a virtue worth cultivating. 2. "Thank you, but I have already had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Jones." 3. Yes; the handle should always be presented. 4. No. The fork should be placed on the plate while talking. Of course this does not mean if a person is going to say "Yes" or "I think so" that he should quickly lay down his fork, answer, and then pick it up again. 5. Yes, it is very unwise. No letter should ever be written while in an angry mood If it should be done, lay the letter aside until next morning, and it will seldom be mailed. 6. The bridegroom should do this.

And there came a scribe, and said unto him, Teacher I will follow thee whithersoeve thou goest. 20. And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. Jesus does not question the sincerity of the scribe, but his understanding and his call. He points out the nature of an apostolic life, and leaves him to decide for himself in the face of the reality. 21. And another of the disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. 22. But Jesus saith unto him, Follow me; and leave the dead to bury their own dead. The great Teacher came down to Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother lying sick of a fever. 15. And he touched her hand, and the fever left her; and she arose, and ministered unto him. This, the third miracle in the series, took place in the home of Simon Peter at Capernaum, where his wife's mother was sick of a fever. As Christ's coming into Simon Peter's household made it impossible for sickness to remain there, so al-ways will evil fiee before him, and the fever of sin be cooled at his touch. 6. And when even was come, they brought unto him many possessed with demons: and he cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all that were sick: 17. that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bars our diseases. The passage that Matthew quotes here is from the Hebrew text of Isa. 53.4. Did it mean that
