off before it grows into a significant movement, but some courageous and drastic steps will be necessary.

What Are the Facts?

First, what are the facts? There is an element in Quebec, unquestion ably, which is not enthusiastic about participation in the war, which fears eventual conscription if the war is prolonged and the task grows more sidans who see in an "outonomist" we could be playing at he cour mind of thinking this appropriate the province of Quebec and the remainder of the Dominion.

Every lover of Canada will deplore least those hundreds of thousands of thoughtful far-sighted French-Canada will deplore see in an "outonomist" the court mind of thinking this appropriate the province of Quebec and the remainder of the Dominion.

national law and decency against Hitlerism and gangsterism. They realize that the defeat of Britain and France would leave North America exposed to the domination of a ruthless European power. They realize, also, that as a part of the Canadian federation the French-Canadian has enjoyed privileges and rights in regard to race, custom, law and language which would disappear overnight if Canada fell victim to foreign aggression.
