Charges Laid After Crash

Harry Reynolds, of Jarvis, appeared before Magistrate A. Winter, K.C. in Simcoe Police Court on Saturday last on a charge of driving without due care and attention or without reasonable consideration for others using the Highway, contrary to Section 27 of the Highway Traffic Act. He was represented by David E. Kelley, of Simcoe and pleaded not guilty.

The charge was laid following a collision which occurred on October 14th on No. 3 Highway, two miles east of Simcoe. The Reynolds car collided with a half-ton truck being driven by George Mimer, of Townsend. Following the collision both cars landed in the ditch and were damaged considerably.

Mimer testified that Reynolds was about three hundred yards behind him when he first looked into his mirror as he planned to make a left turn. He looked again just before he made the left turn and said Reynolds was then about two hundred yards behind him. Mimer said he did not give any signal that he was going to make a left turn except that he pulled to the centre of the road. He also said that he did not hear Reynolds blow his horn and did not know how fast Reynolds was driving. The accident was investigated by Highway Traffic Officer Thomas Logan, of Simcoe.

At the conclusion of the evidence the charge against Reynolds was dismissed upon the application of defence counsel, David E. Kelley.

MAN WANTED IN SIMCOE ARRESTED

C. MacNicol, no address, was arrested by Constable Banks on Thursday after he had been informed by Simcoe Police that MacNicol was wanted there on a charge of breaking in.

His arrest came after Gordon Hazlett informed Constable Banks that an individual had spent the night in his barn and was carrying with him a knife in his possession. However, Tony Stallwood, found a butcher knife near the Wabash Bridge, that was over the C.N.R. line to Port Dover a day or two later, which is believed to be the weapon carried by MacNicol.

At the time of his arrest he did not have a knife in his possession, but said that he had thrown it away in a field. Existing the aid of Constable Jarvis Boy Scout later that afternoon, the field specified by MacNicol was combed throughout, but the knife could not be found.

IN CANADA It's Apple-Time RIGHT NOW

JUICY, perfectly-ripened Canadian apples are in orchards! Plenty of them, too—those that normally would be exported overseas, as well as our own supply. And—thanks to the higher minimum grade requirements—there are greater-than-average quantities of the finer, fancier, higher-grade eating apples. So, all through this year's apple season, order to eat apples in the best way possible. For eating, cooking, entertaining... and for jellifying and preserving. You'll enjoy them all the more for the extra care and attention given to their selection and packing.

And remember, Canadian apples are Government-graded. You can't get a better apple from the container when you buy!

WEDDINGS

SHELLARD—IRONSDIES

A quiet wedding took place at the Anglican Church rectory in Burford on Tuesday afternoon, when Miss Irene Shellard was united in marriage to Mr. Andrew Shellard of Burford.

The bride was attended by her mother, Mrs. Andrew Shellard, and her sister, Mrs. Irene Shellard. The groom was attended by his father, Mr. Andrew Shellard, and his brother, Mr. John Shellard.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. H. Rodgers, of Burford. The wedding party consisted of the bride, groom, bridesmaids, and groomsmen.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The menu consisted of a variety of delicious dishes.

The wedding was a most successful one, and all guests enjoyed the celebration.

The bride and groom are now residing in Burford.

Summarizing -BY- B.P.

The Hagersville Villagers are the 1938 Intermediate B Champions. The baseball season is curtailed, and we might say it's about time. The Hagersville squad defeated the Galt Pickards in Brantford on Saturday night for the first time. The Villagers have clinched the title. They were close a few years ago when they met Lefty Goldsmith and his Southampton Fishermen in the semifinals. But the western team stopped them in their quest. The Villagers had a strong club, too. Ken Langman and Archie Donnelly proved a winning combination on the mound, but their team as a whole was more of the experienced veteran type than their present club.

The game in Brantford was a real pitcher's battle with Charlton of the Pickards and Peters of the Villagers. Charlton allowed but one hit until the final inning and he struck out one more than he allowed. The Villagers' team scored a run in the eighth and the game went into overtime. In the tenth inning, Charlton was out but was safe when the catcher dropped the third strike. He was out after being bottled between the sacks. He came home with another error committed by the Villagers. The Villagers scored a very lucky win or the Pickards were very unfortunate to lose in such a manner.
