Lawrence Albert Dougherty, eleven, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Dougherty, of Woodhouse, was the victim of a most unfortunate accident on his father's farm last Thursday when he was run over by a roller, after the team bolted. He was dragged for several feet and his head was badly crushed in the impact. It was believed he died almost instantly.

Juveniles Win First Game of Sudden Demand

Williamson Limits Quarry-towners to Six Hits

With Hagersville accounting for two of the local three losses in the regular schedule of the Hagersville County Junior League, the odds were naturally against them going into the finals with the Quarrytowners.

Declares Allegiance To This Country

As a result of rumors being spread about him being sympathetic to the German cause in the present war, Edward Stitt, employee of the C.N.R., appeared before the Council on Tuesday evening to openly declare his allegiance to the British Crown and to Canada.
