Mrs. Dewan urged Canadian Women to hand on to Posterity something in return for the great heritage of luxury and advantages which they today enjoy.

Miss Ethel Chapman urged the nec essity of some readjustment of the economic system whereby prices cou-ld be kept at a level within the reach of the poor family and at the same time give farmers some return for their work of production. their work of production.

In concluding her report, Mrs.

speaker had said that in Germany the United Country Women are permitted to carry on the work of their organization with the encouragement of the Nazi Regime, which is remark able in view of the restrictions they have placed on other organizations and fraternal societies in that Country.
