ANGLICAN CHURCH NEWS

SPECIAL PREACHERS

On Sunday last, August 11th, the congregations of Christ Church, Nanticoke and St. Paul's, Jarvis, had as guest preacher, the Rev. W. Gibson, Rector of Harriston, and former Rector of Christ Church. He took as his text Rev. 3:20. "Behold I Stand at the Door and Knock; if Any Man Hear My Voice, and Open the Door, I Will Come in to Him, and Will Sup With Him, and He With Me." His address was very timely in view of the great crisis through which our Empire is passing.

The Rector, the Rev. L. Douglas Brown officiated at both services.

On Sunday morning, August 25th, the last Sunday of the month, the sermon will be delivered in Christ Church, Nanticoke by Dr. C. E. Snowden, Rector of the Memorial Church of St. Paul, Overbrooke, Pa. It is hoped that the many friends of Dr. Snowden will avail themselves of this opportunity to hear him once again.

BOMBERS COME STREAMING IN

Bombing Practice Scheduled to Start August 19th

Many light bombing craft have been streaming into the Jarvis Bombing and Gunnery School during the past few days, giving residents an inkling of what may be anticipated in the days to come. *

According to a recent announcement Bombing practice is scheduled to start next Monday. The W. F. Kolbe Co. of Port Dover have been awarded a contract to lay the targets and anchors in the resricted area of Lake Erie designated for this work.

Already hundreds of mechanics and ground men of the R.C.A.F. are located in Jarvis and nearby municipalities. These men are here getting things in shape for the air crews which are expected shortly.

SOCIAL EVENING

A social evening was held in the Memorial Hall at Christ Church, Nanticoke, on Tuesday, August 13th, in order that the members of the congregation might say farewell to Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Austin and son, who are leaving Nanticoke to take up work in Dunnville.

After playing cards for awhile, the Rector made a few remarks before the presentations were made. Mr. and Mrs. Austin were the recipients of a beautiful rug and lace tables cloth. The Rector mentioned the wonderful work that had been done by Mr. Austin, not only in connection with the Nanticoke School, where he had been the principal for nearly four years, but also in the church and community at large. Mr. and Mrs. Austin have been connected with the Sunday School since their coming to Nanticoke and have always shown a ready willingness to co-operate.

Mr. Austin will also be missed in connection with the sports of the community, as he was most interested in helping organize baseball and hockey.

The best wishes of the congregation go with them as they commence their new field of service in Dunnville.

Former Jarvis Boys Critically Injured in Hotel Explosion

One Killed - Several Hurt When Blast Shakes Big Hotel

FRANK BRENNAN CRITICALLY INJURED

An explosion said to have been caused from fumes leaking from electrical transformers, caused damage estimated at $50,000.00; killed one man and critically injured several others, at the Norton-Palmer Hotel in Windsor on Saturday night.

The catastrophe was given interest locally when it was learned that Frank Brennan, and his brother Edward were among those critically injured. The blast occurred in the basement of the building, which contains the kitchens, the bar, grill room and coffee shop, and is under the management of Frank Brennen.

According to reports his condition is critical and involves first degree burns, severe cuts and lacerations to the head and body and shock. According to Deputy Fire Chief Guenot of Windsor, Frank was not located for five or six minutes after the fire men arrived. They could hear his groans but could not immediately locate him because of debris and insufficient light.

Edward Brennen who is also employed at the hotel was badly burned about the face and arms and received cuts and bruises.

The victim of the tragedy was Twenty-two year old Kenneth Shrum food checker.

A telegram from Windsor to Mrs. Brennen here, indicated that the boys who are in a Windsor Hospital, are doing as well as can be expected. Mrs. Brennen left last night for Windsor.

W. F. Jaques Dies Suddenly

News of the passing of William Fossitt Jaques at his home two miles south of here on Thursday morning August 15th came as a shock to a wide circle of friends. His passing was very sudden, and he had perform ed his usual duties earlier in the day. A heart attack was attributed as the cause of his demise. He was in his Sixty-ninth year.

The late Mr. Jaques was a familiar figure in Jarvis. Every day he made his delivery of milk to the local factory, and always took time to dis cuss with friends whom he met, the affairs of the day. His keen interest in life, made him particularly conversant with developments both at home and abroad.

He was a devout member of Wesley United Church and his zeal for goodfellowship prompted him to join the I.O.O.F. order at an early age. His keen devotion to the principles of the Order led to his being honored as District Deputy Grand Master of Long Point District in 1926. Only last year he became a member of King Solomon's Lodge No. 329, A.F. & A.M. Jarvis, and here, too, he diligently applied the principals of the craft to his daily life.

He served on the Jarvis Board of Education for thirteen continuous years, the last two years acting as

German Prisoner Escapes

The report on Monday that an interned German Naval Officer had escaped from one of Canada's internment camps through a tunnel that was more than 100 feet long and timbered up, has caused the public to wonder just what type of guardianship these Nazi devils have.

Information indicates that more than two months must have been taken to dig the tunnel. When such a thing can be accomplished right under the (watchful) eyes of the guards, it seems odd that the interneees are not all enjoying their freedom the same as the once interned Naval Officer.

Trustees Say Jarvis School to Open on Statutory Date

SEEK THIS MAN HE'S AN ENEMY!

Watch for this man: He is an escaped German prisoner, but he speaks English well. He may be armed. He is sullen, neurotic, may do anything. He doubleorossed the other German prisoners in a Northern Ontario camp and escaped him self through a tunnel they had all helped to build.

Description broadcast by police: 28 years old, five feet, eleven inches tall, weighing 154 pounds; square head and square shoulders, upright build, dark steel grey hair, normal ears, medium forehead, brown eyes, straight nose, heavy brows, clean shaven, thin lips, dark, sallow complexion; speaks very good English.

Board Cannot See Special Need of Delaying School Opening

At a special meeting of the Jarvis Public School Board held in the office of the Secretary on Tuesday evening, it was unanimously decided to open the local school on Tuesday, September 3rd, despite the fact that a communication was received from the Deputy Minister of Education urging school boards to postpone the opening to conform with the request of Premier Hepburn.

Whereas the various members of the local Board expressed sympathy with the policy of giving the farmers all required aid, they could not see the feasibility of postponing the school opening date here. It was therefore resolved that "in view of the requested delay in school opening this Board goes on record as supporting the principle and encouraging the students to assist in farm work during the war: but the probable demand does not warrant the delayed opening of our school and therefore we authorize the school to be opened on the statutory date in September."

All students who will be engaged in farm work on and after the school opening are urged to attend on the morning of opening, for registration and to receive a list of the necessary books they will require during the school term. These books can eb secured during the students absence from school and thus avoid delay. This applies particularly to the Continuation school students. The Continuation School Teachers will adjust their teaching to subject matter which will be least difficult to be picked up by those delayed in returning to school.

WILLIAM ELLIOTT BURNED

William E. Elliott was badly burned about the face on Wednesday morning when hot tar splashed as he was pouring it into a pail. The accident occurred at The Marshall Dairy, where he and his father were applying a coating of tar to the roof of the main building.

BURNED ABOUT FACE WHEN OVEN EXPLODES

Mrs. Rachell Sharpe was quite badly burned about the face when the oven on the gas range exploded on Friday afternoon, at the American Hotel.

A burner was lit on top of the stove and apparently the gas had been turned on in the oven. When Mrs. Sharpe opened the oven door the gas ignited in her face. Besides severe burns on her face and forehead, her hair was singed and one hand was also burned.

Happy Birthday To You

Monday, August 19th, was a big day in town. Uncle "Bob" McCarter celebrated his Seventy-ninth birthday in a manner befitting the occasion. No one knows for sure whether uncle "Bob" was born in Ireland or not but everyone knows he bears the stamp of the hereditary Irishman at least. His customary morning greeting carries the usual Irish salute and seems to tone you up for the day. Every youngster, from the cradle up, salutes him as uncle "Bob" and he graciously rewards them with nickels and ice cream cones for which they swear true allegiance.

R. A. is still going strong as the head of the implement business he established here nearly a quarter century past and from all appearances he is likely to round out the century mark as strong as ever.

They completed the Monday celebration with a theatre party surrounded by the whole family. We wish for "Uncle Bob" many more happy birthdays in the Village in which he has spent so many years.

John Thomson Called Beyond

Death claimed one of our highly esteemed citizens on Sunday, when John Thomson passed away in his 79th year. Suffering a stroke about ten days previous, he never rallied.

The late Mr. Thomson came to Canada in 1871, from Old Meldrum, in the County of Aberdineshire, Scotland, at the age of ten years. With his family he settled in the City of Brantford and later they took up farming in the Township of Townsend. In 1921 upon retiring from farm in Townsend he moved with his wife, the former Elizabeth Allen, who predeceased him in 1929, to the Village of Jarvis. During his years of residence here, his kindly and gentle nature, won for him a wide circle of devoted friends.

Before Church union he was a member and Elder of Knox Presbyterian Church and since has served in the same capacity of Wesley United Church, with which he was affiliated at the time of his passing. He was a devoted member of King Solomon's Lodge No. 329, A.F.&A.M. Jarvis, and had been a member of the craft for a period of Forty-nine years. For many years he served in the capacity of Chaplin of the Local Lodge. Nearly every new member of the Order was guided by his kindly influence upon being newly initiated.

In 1930 he married Miss Zelma Rodgers and she is left to mourn his passing. Only one brother, James of Brantford, survive him from a family of seven.

The funeral, held under Masonic auspices, was held from his late home on Main Street at 3. P.M. on Tuesday. The service was conducted by Rev. S. B. East and interment was made in Knox Church Cemetery. Rev. F. C. Walling, of Hamilton and a former Rector at St. Paul's Anglican Church, here, assisted with the service.

The pall bearers were: A. S. Blight, C. S. McCarter, D. C. Allen Roy Misner, Emerson Miller and D. J. Deller.

Jarvis Take First Game Against Last Years Champions

Local's Score 7 Runs in First Innings to Defeat O.B.A. Champs 13 to 1

SECOND GAME TO DAY

Three hits, four walks and an error in the first innings paved the way for 13 to 1 win for Jarvis over last year's Ontario "B" Champions, the Hagersville Villans, in the first game of the Haldimand County League playdowns here on Saturday.

The winners were quick to take advantage of any miscues by the Hagersville nine and were never headed after the Initial run crossed the plate. Big Leo Lefler was in rare form striking out eleven batters and allowing but three scattered singles. The Lampman brothers were less fortunate fanning but five between them and giving up ten hits. Elmer Lampman started the game but was shelled from the mound in the sixth when younger brother Harley took over. However, the change was made too late to mend the damage.

These two clubs meet in the second game of the play-offs in Hagersville today, and the winner of the two-out-of-three game series will meet the winner of the current series between Dunnville and Delhi.

Yours and don't forget it!

The Minister for War Service spoke in the Canadan House of Commons in the last days of the parliamentary session lately adjourned:

"Those of us who were born and raised in this country," he said, "do not appreciate it when those who have come here and taken up their homes here and have had the advantages which this country provides, today come and tell us that the blame is all ours."

Having thus slapped down a Canadian Member of Parliament born in England, Hon. James G. Gardiner went out from the House of Commons to prepare Canadian citizens for service in freedom's war. Consider the quote. It is the clue to the character of the man, and Hon. Jimmy Gardiner is your Minister for National War Service. Yours, and don't forget it.

If, while considering, you think you detect a faint smell of Dr. Goebbels, note it well, for that marks the utterance as Jimmy Gardiner's own. If, considering further you find in it an appeal to nearly all that is mean and unlovely in Canadian character, note that too as an evidence of authorship.

The smell and the appeal alike are typical. They have served Hon James G. Gardiner well in a long and successful career as a party politician. Whether they will serve Canada as well in Mr. Gardiner's new role remains to be seen. But there they are.

The date was August 2, 1940. In England, men, women and children, joint-heirs with us in Canada of a thousand struggles against tyranny, were soberly preparing themselves to meet the full strength of a new blow aimed at freedom — theirs and Jimmy Gardiner's. In England the great and unseen company of the English who have died that liberty might live, watched with the men and women in whose brave spirits live liberty's last hope and strength. To England and the common people of England the thoughts of all whose hearts remember why Canada is both safe and free turned in humble gratitude. And in the Canadian House of Commons the Canadian Minister for War Service grabbed the moment for a cheap attempt to rouse petty national prejudice against a fellow-Canadian of English birth.
