PLACE 405 YOUTH ON ONTARIO FARMS

Dominion-Provincial Youth Training Plan Success in Ontario

Number of Good Leads Just Waiting for Farm Jobs, Says Alexander MacLaren, Director of Farm Training.

The placing of youths sixteen to twenty-two years old on Ontario farms through the Dominion-Provincial Youth Training Plan, has been a great success.

According to figures made available by Alex. MacLaren, director of farm training for Ontario.

More than 32 boys in January and fifteen in February have been placed with good farmers in the past year, according to figures made available by Alex. MacLaren, director of farm training for Ontario.

Letters from both boys wanting farm work and farmers wanting boys should be addressed to me care of the Department Buildings, Toronto.

Mr. MacLaren said 52 boys who have worked on farms for a year will be given a two week's short course in Agriculture at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, commencing February 19th.

All expenses will be shared equally between the Federal and Provincial governments. The boys will receive instruction from members of the O.A.C. staff in every branch of farming.

ANGLICAN CHURCH NEWS

W.A. The Broadway Branch of the Women's Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. W. McNeilly on Wednesday afternoon, February 21st.

A number were present at the meeting, and the hostess served delicious refreshments.

SPECIAL APPEAL The Church of England in Canada launches an appeal for $50,000 for work in Pioneer Settlements in 15 Dioceses on Sunday, March 3rd.

The first charge on the fund raised by appeal will be the urgent needs of the three dioceses in the Province of Saskatchewan, and the money remaining will be used to augment the grants to Missionary work in the pioneer settlements of thirteen dioceses extending from Quebec to the Yukon.

STATEMENT BY THE PRIMATE The condition which faces us in our pioneer settlements this year is due to three things: FIRST - The drought and crop failure have produced a special need. While these conditions are improving and we have the spell of misfortune broken yet for this year the brave people of these areas need this help.

SECOND - The failure of many of our Dioceses to meet their Missionary Allocations is a contributing cause. Payments in full to those Allocations would make such appeals unnecessary.

THIRD - The War will prevent the generous Church in the Motherland from helping to the same extent in the way she has done for many years past.

I commend this appeal to our Canadian Church people.

DERWYN TORONTO, Primate

LENTEN OPPORTUNITY Centuries of Christian experience have justified the wise custom of Church in setting aside the six weeks preceding Easter as a period of special intensive spiritual help.

To those who will undertake its discipline, Lent affords a real opportunity for spiritual exercise and growth.

Two extremes are easily possible in our thinking about Lent. There is the attitude of the legalist who is content if he abstains from meat on the days of Lent (excluding Sundays, which are days of special festivity) and abstaining from certain foods and amusements, so that, when Lent is over he can quickly resume his old life.

At the other extreme is the attitude of those who insist that right is right and wrong is wrong the year round, and who are content to observe no special Lenten observances.

John Buchan Baron Tweedsmuir of Elsfield

A TRIBUTE FROM ONE WHO DREW HOPE, COURAGE AND FAITH FROM HIS LIFE AND WRITINGS.

When death came, as it must to all men, to John Buchan, Lord Tweedsmuir, Governor General of Canada, it took from this world a fine gentleman, a great writer, a soldier, lawyer and administrator of a high type and with a humble, gracious soul.

"Mr. Buchanan" a London newspaper man asked him, "how would you describe yourself?" "I am a typical Scot of the border breed" replied the man who was later to become the first Baron Tweedsmuir.

His life's story reads like one of those romances he so fond of writing. A son of the Marne, not blessed with too much of this world's goods, he put himself through Glasgow and Oxford Universities with the help of scholarships and by writing. Graduating he was admitted to the bar, and because of his ability was made secretary to Lord Milner, High Commissioner for South Africa.

When the Boer War broke out he forsook the office for the first time, serving as a trooper in the Rand Mounted Rifles, and incidentally gaining a knowledge of the South Africans which was later to draw upon for his books "Green Mantle" and "The Standfast."

Back in England, he became a publisher and wrote prodigiously. Quite a number of his books, and for his creation he wrote prodigiously. Quite a number of his books, and for his creation he wrote prodigiously.
