

High State Dignitaries Await Lord Tweedsmuir's Funeral Cortege

RADIO NOTES AND NEWS

FOR THE CHILDREN
CBC's "Children's Scrapbook" designed for young listeners and heard every Saturday from 12:30 to 1:00 p.m. in this latest Canadian program to be invited to become an international exchange feature on the Mutual Broadcasting System. Canadian boys and girls will now be joined by their American cousins in opening the pages of the big book to which a new chapter is added every week by authors Mary Grannan. Then begins a half hour of adventure, music, nature study and one-to-one broadcasts with commentator Austin Willis speaking direct from the point at which the actuality is to be presented.

NOTES AND NEWS
Brian Aherne will be the guest star on the Kate Smith Hour on March 1, over CFRB at 8 o'clock. There will be three famous crooners on the NBC network in a row on Thursday night, Dick Powell on the Fred W. Zetter show at 9:50 o'clock; Rudy Vallee in his new series beginning at 9:30; and Bing Crosby at 10. Only Bing Crosby will be heard on the Canadian network. Sunday and Tuesday nights, according to the latest official surveys, are currently radio's best listening nights, Thursday and Friday's take third and fourth place.

SUGAR AND DECAY
It's the sugar you eat that causes teeth to decay, Dr. Leonard Fiedler of the Northwestern University (Chicago) dental school is convinced.

FARM NOTES

WEED CONTROL
One of the chief causes of weedy pastures is the killing out of the desirable species of pasture plants leaving bare ground in which weeds can easily take root and flourish without competition.
