Members of the Caledonia Foal Club held their Achievement Day the last day of Caledonia Fair. There was a small attendance but those who did take part were very enthusiastic.

During the morning a judging competition was held in the show ring with Mr. A. M. Barr in charge. Following this the boys took part in an examination of ten questions based on Club work and the care and management of horses.

The foals were shown during the afternoon and in addition to scoring the foal itself, the boys were also given a score for showmanship. Mr. J. M. MacCallum of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa was the official judge. Mr. MacCallum complimented the boys on the high quality of the foals they brought out.

In showmanship the standing was as follows: 1st, Ralph Harrow, No. 5, Hagersville; 2nd, Roy Hedley, R.R. 2, Caledonia; 3rd, Harold Bradford, No. 1, Dunnville; 4th, Harold Tweedie, Caledonia; 5th, Kenneth Smith, No. 3, Caledonia.
