Enjoys Getting "Record"

In renewing her subscription to the "Record" this week, Mrs. Annettie McCarter, who is now residing at 2908 Buckingham Street, Norfolk, Virginia, says in part: "I do enjoy reading the home news and would hate to be without the Jarvis Record. I might say I think the Jarvis people are doing a hig job in the war work and wish you all kinds of good luck."

BUTTERMAKERS BANQUET
HELD IN TOWN HALL

Nearly Sixty buttermaliers, and managers of creameries in the South ern Ontario District held their annual banquet in the Jarvis Town Hall last night. Awards for butter and cream grading throughout the year were made, and a program was enjoyed following the banquet.

WEADING $4700 MARK

The report of the Treasurer of the Jarvis District War Fund shows the total receipts are now nearing the "Giff Auction" on Saturday gave the Fund a real boost, as well as the splendid donation from the Jarvis Athletic Asociation. Since the objective of the War Fund was $2000. by October 1941, there seems to be no reason to expect this will not be achieved.

It is not the intention of the War Fund executive however, to conduct the purpose of adding to their total, but rather to leave this field open to the Red Cross. It is felt however, that opportunities will present themselves whereby the objective will be achieved without interference to the achieved without interfer
