

AGNES MACPHAIL

former Member of Parliament for Grey-Bruce - and one of Canada's best informed authorities on agricultural problems - is now writing exclusive articles based on her wide experience of the past and her observations of

The Globe and Mail

Traditional friend, and spokesman for the farmer in its news columns and on its editorial page, The Globe and Mail now takes this further step in extending "all-out" editorial assistance to the farming industry.

Agnes Macphail gladly consented to lend her wholehearted co-operation, since the widely-read and influential columns of The Globe and Mail afford her an unusual opportunity to carry on the campaign she has been waging in the farmers' interests for You'll read her reports and sincerely sympathetic articles with interest. Don't miss a single one — published three times weekly. Order your Globe and Mail from your dealer — Postmaster — or Rural Mail Courier To-day!

VOICE OF THE PRESS

UNDECLARED SPRING It looks as if it will be an undeclared spring.

—Brandon Sur

TOO MUCH TO EXPECT Great as may be the St. Lawrence Deep Waterway project, it is really too much to anticipate that the S. S. Queen Elizabeth will some day dock at the St. Catharines port on the Ship Canal. -St. Catharines Standard.

WRONG PEOPLE TO GROUSE People who are dissatisfied with their home town and spend much of their time complaining usually are the persons who are responsfor the town being what they think it shouldn't be. -Kitchener Record

CANADIAN INCOMES There are fewer than 12,000 incomes of more than $10,000 per year in Canada. The House of Commons has been informe turns were filed in 19.0 by 9,901 individuals receiving $10,000-$25,000; 1,433 receiving $25,000 to $60,000, and 483 receiving over 50,-000. The corresponding figures for the fiscal year 1939 were 7,278,

1,395 and 457. -Toronto Sta

Grounds Given

In Brooklyn, a woman Italian descent sought separation from her British-born husband. Grounds: gloating.

Yugoslavia's New Premier

General Richard Dusan Simo-wich, above, friend of Great Britain and chief of the Yugo-slav air force, became premier of Yugoslavia in a coup which over-threw the government which had signed agreement with the Axis.

Easter Customs And Traditions

Origin of Hot Cross Buns Lost In Obscurity; Gally-Colored Eggs Were Enjoyed In Scotland for Gener ations; Some Beautiful Cus-

One-a-penny, two-a-penny, Hot them to your sons." So sang the baker's boy as h they called "bouns," or buns. These too, were marked with a cross, in the Good Friday buns and bread work a cure for any ailment.

As plentiful as the Hot Cross joined in the dancing and throw-ing of a ball in the church, the and lighted pine torches adding to the effect, these musicians present most picturesque appearance

Easter

We wait for Easter and a world made free.
The stinging sword
Of strain and suffering then shall broken be,
And blinded spirits shall more clearly see The risen Lord.

-Eileen McQuiggan.

April's Costume

Vever a girl more quaintly dressed Than levely April is—
Poke bonnet lined, crab apple pink; Catkin-furred pelisse.

The silken fabric of her gown braped over crinoline, Misty violet shot through With birch leaves' tender green. Her feet are shod in primly laced, Softest, loam-tan kid, And ah, the ruffles now disclosed Now demurely hid, Of cherry-petaled pantalettes; The white starched petticoats Make music where she walks, a

As wind in fields of oats. And all the air is spiced with scent, When lovely April passes, Of satchets of orris root Budding in marsh grasses.

-Ethel Romig Fuller Marriage Attracts

Stewardesses are employed for an average of about a year, according to Miss Patricia Eccleston, supervisory stewardess of the Trans-Canada Air Lines. The company tries to keep them longer but competition with Cupid is too keen. They don't marry pilots or passengers but the boy friends they left at home. Miss Eccleston has 17 girls on her division. One of the things that keeps her busy: hiring new stewardesses.

Raccoon Reveals

Jack Miner, Kingsville (Ont.) naturalist, is beginning to think pigeons aren't the only creatures with homing instinct. He banded a raccoon caught at his bird sanctuary a short time ago and took it 20 miles away. days later the animal was back in the same trap.

Canada

The number of sheep on Canadian farms at December 1, 1940, was 2,688,800, a gain of 1.3 per cent over the 2,653,000 at December 1, 1939. Declines in numbers occurred in the Maritime Provinces and Ontario, while Saskatchewan showed an increase of 12.5 per cent. It is expected that a further increase in numbers will be shown in the count at June 1,

Bicycle Loads Now Regulated

Amendment to Municipal A

the hill, pushing a protest

MAPLE LEAF

0)

● (1) You will wish to choose a Ham that is sure to be tender, of sweet flavour, and easy to cook (no parboiling). A—Aitch bone
B—Ham bone
C—Shank bone
D-Cushion side
E—Thin (Flank) side

ADAR EWAY

ANSWER - Just ask your Butcher or Grocer for a Maple Leaf' TendersweeT Ham. • (2) You may wish to learn how to carve it easily and economically. ANSWER — A proven new method of carving is illustrated ith directions in the panel below. Show it to the person in your home who does the carving. It may be the answer to the carver's Cut rounded portion from the Thin (Flank) Side to provide a flat surface parallel to the Ham bone on which to stand Ham for

● But first, be sure to choose a 'Maple Leaf' TENDERSWEET Ham. You will find it considerably more than just a Ham. You will find it plump and tender. You will find its delicate flavour distinctive. Its sweetness will make your mouth water. The new and scientific process by which TENDERSWEET Hams are cured and smoked assures all this and more—no soaking and no parboiling for a 'Maple Leaf' TENDERSWEET Ham.
Perfect cooking is easy and Perfect cooking is easy and simple. Directions are wrapped with every Ham.

SOLD BY ALL LEADING RETAILERS

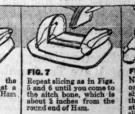

MAPLE LEAF TENDERSWEET HAMS ARE

• Without Ham for Easter Sunday, it would hardly seem like Easter. For in Canada, Ham is the traditional meat for the Easter Season. So, here's what we suggest:

ER RESULTS OWDER

Pledge for War Savings

BY TOM HORNER COPYRIGHT. 1940. him decide to get rid of you him self, and she wanted him to keep emembering Hugh-" "That's why I had to tell him

you were Hugh's brother," Monnie bzroke in. 'That's why I pretended

"Miss Miles called us as soon as on his wriss. "What .

" he mumbled. Ha lost this time, Bentley, Yo not until Bentley and his went on. "Bentley got away

m to his feet.

The bullet grazed Larry's she got away from Bentley's" the highway patrol chief continued. "We knew we'd never get you alive if we rushed the house. So after Miss Miles explained more about shoot Collins Everything the other accident, we decided Bentley would try the same thing over again. When he called the sheriff, were were sure of it. We arling! Are you all right?

ot?" Tears were streaming "Luckily, I sent went of the boys ap on the hill to watch for Bentey. He took care of Joe. We heard everything Bentley said.

"It was getting you out safely weren't tied, but we were afraid shot was for me." Harris left that Bentley would shoot you the to pull Bentley, from the seat minute he suspected anything. rounded the curve slowly When he started talking about headlights illuminating the Miss Miles, I told her to shout, and e. Bill and Shultz were standlet you take your own chance beside the highway, hands in air. Two highway patrolmen ded them. A third officer car.e She was game enough to do it. worked out swell." "Monnie's voice did it," Larr said. "It was unexpected and threw Bentley off guard. That gave me time to clip him, and to push He can't get far," Colthat gun away."

"And the others had their hands roused as handcuffs in the air as soon as the boys pointed a gun at them. We kept here, just in case—But we didn't want to start a battle." "I was scared, Larry," scared to o keep Mike from killing you." Harris walked with them to the heriff's car. "You go back to the on up to Bentley's. There ma half a dozen men up the canyon road to take Bentley's place. think we'll have enough on Bentley and all his men to hang him after I go over his records.'

cotics arrive by plane next week. to get a tip." "We'll camp there until the plane comes in. That will clinch the case a truly delicious cereal that can a truly delicious cereal that can help to keep you regular by supplying the "bulk" you need.

CONSTIPATION WITHOUT DOSING!

Eat ALL-BRAN every morning at the cause. If your constitute in is the common type due to of the right kind of "bulk," ELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN...

NEW CURING PROCESS MAKES EASTER HAM MORE TENDER

(Cuts Cooking Time, Too)

MARY CLAIRE THOMPSON

Thousands of cords of oak and hard maple have sent their pungent smoke seeping into the Easter hams that now wait to join with Easter eggs on your feast day table.

Ham, baked, broiled or boiled has always been a Canadian favorite because of its flavor and juiciness. Today, however, a new process of curing and smoking makes hams extra tender, juicy and sweet. What's more, the flavor is the same right through the ham from the outside layer of fat to the bone. This new curing and smoking process, called tenderizing, not only gives them a richer flavor, but makes the meat more tender as well.

Whole Ham, Baked

whole Ham, Baked

Do not be afraid to buy a whole ham for Easter, but be sure to select one that has had the new tenderizing process. Ask for a Tendersweet ham. You will appreciate the difference from the old style hams just as soon as you start to cook it. No soaking, no parboiling is necessary before putting this ham in the oven. Just give it a long, slow baking, then about 15 minutes before serving, remove the rind and spread the fat with a brown sugar glaze. Serve the whole ham baked, for the special Easter Sunday dinner. Then during the week following, slice some of the left-over piece for quick broiling. For another meal, use chopped cooked ham in croquettes, a meat loaf or as a sandwich filling and finally draw out every last bit of goodness from the ham by simmering the bone for soup. What's pea soup without a ham bone? You will find one of these Tendersweet hams a thrifty meat buy because every scrap can be used.

will find one of these Tendersweet hams a thrifty meat buy because every scrap can be used.

Fruits Are Affinities

It is not surprising that juicy hams and fruits are the latest in food affinities. They are lovely to look at and delicious to eat. Broiled pears, sauteed pineapple, spiced peaches, pickled cherries and raisin sauce are ham accompaniments of epicurean scelaim.

Here is a suggested menu for an Easter dinner made festive because it features Tendersweet ham.—The simple directions for cooking the ham are given as well as the recipe for Raisin Sauce, an ideal accompaniment.

EASTER DINNER MENU

Beverage

ter oven (375 to 400 degrees F.) whole Maple Leaf Tendersweet cup warm water cup brown sugar, packed down 2 teaspoons dry mustard 3 tablespoons cider vinegar Whole Cloves

Ham should be at room temperature before baking.

heavy brown wrapping paper or leave in original glassine wrapping. Place in open roasting pan with 1 cup water. Bake in a mo-derately slow oven of 325 degrees minutes to the pound for 12 to 14 pound ham and for ham of 6 pounds-1/2 ham,-allow 22 min-time, remove wrapping and rind. Mix brown sugar, mustard and vinegar into a smooth paste; spread on top side of ham and decorate with whole cloves and slices of cherry. Return to hot-smiled at the prospect. "You two go along now." He watched them back the she iff's car around, then head down "Your job is finished now, Hugh,

Colonel Miles and Pete Barne had to hear all the details as soo as Monnie and Larry returned is soon as they came back from ficult to keep the Colonel from riding off to "blow Bentley off the stealing calves, Collins," the Col onel apologized gruffly. "I kept telling you Larry would n't steal," Barnes added. "Forget it." Larry said. "Monnirfgrugglyphp oEtDahuhfrnrmcai and I intend to." He turned her. "Want to take a ride, Monnie? I've got some unfinished bus-iness to attend to, out on a hill.

Larry hung up the receiver. He remembered he had promised to cover Harris' newspaper friends and he phoned the office. Monnie was waiting when he finished.
"Pete saddled the horses," she said, taking Larry's hand.

They stood on the hill, close "Dad will probably buy Bentley's ranch now, and move Pete Barnes up there," Monnie said.

"He talked about buying the Circle foreman." "But I've got a job, with Stev Clark."

"You'll have to." York with me."

Baked Ham — Raisin Sauce
Glazed Sweet Potatoes — Harvard Beets
Spinach with Hard Cooked Egg Garnish
Salad of: Endive, Cress, Cabbage and Tomato Salad Dressing Ice Cream — Daffodil Cake

to brown and glaze. This requires about 15 minutes.
Note: If placed in oven just after removing from the refriger-ator, allow at least 30 minutes longer for baking.

RAISIN SAUCE

ling, we're quarreling. Let's settle that to-morrow. Maybe we'll start a paper on the Hayhook . . ." Sh

"I love you," she answered adding: "And I won't drive fast again

(The End)

Choice of Materials Avail-touches for costumes. Never has there been a better or more var-ied array of neckwear. You can take your choice of hand-drawn linens, organdies, nets, perma soles, serts or edgings, and solid, eyel or appenzell flower embroidery.

lems. Practically all the jabots cli or tie over your coat or suit, bubbling and fluttering delightfully to

51 Seventh Sons

At Moneda Chapel, Santiago, 51 baby boys, all seventh sons of 51 families, have been simultane-

Chantecler

Slow Burning

CIGARETTE PAPERS

NONE FINER MADE

ously baptised.

your neckline and your waist.

almost any desired point between

Snowy White

Spring Touch

able

Maraschino cherries (if desired) 34 cup raisins

4 or 5 cloves 4 cup brown sugar 1 teaspoon cornstarch Few grains pepper 1 tablespoon butter 1 tablespoon lemon juice Cover raisins with wa add cloves and simmer for 10 minutes. Remove cloves. Add sugar and cornstarch, salt utes to the pound).

When baked for the required and pepper mixed together. Stir until slightly thickened and add remaining ingredients. Serve as an accompaniment to baked ham.

the hill. After they had gone, he crossed the road, stared down into

Monnie Is Waiting They had learned of Monnie's plan Lost Canyon, and it had been dif-

Sorry I wanted to hang you fe

When spring comes we all revolt against the dark severities of winter's fashions. Suddenly, we want to be feminine. We want to froth, frou-frou, and fancy finishings. Our spring suits, coats and dresses must spill a bit of snowy white or showa flash of dainty pink or blue. It is as inevitable a sign of spring as the chirping of robins and the But I've got to get a call through to Steve Clark first." blooming of daffodils. Dainty Lingerie Touches
This spring there will be no difficulty in finding dainty lingerie

He gave Steve the story while she changed clothes. "Swell varn boy," came Steve's voice. "We'll beat everyone here by two editions . . . Take a vaca-tion for two weeks now, and then get back. They're talking about opening up on the rackets again. City Hall story is hot and elec-gether, looking out over the darkened Hayhook.

Cross for Pete before Bentley "And if he does?" Larry asked "The Hayhook will need a new

"You belong here, Larry." "I'm not going to work for m "I wont' You can come to New

Revolutionized

For men. Very Light, Mesh Woven Tropical Headwear Are Shown in Many Patterns

Summer Hats Are

mer hats. There are now innumerable new featherweight, mesh variety of native weaves and pat terns which are thoroughly inof modern porous, hot-weather clothes. In all, a menu of some-each with its special quality of appearance and comfort, has been added for men's choice.

With Colored Bands

These new hats are trimmed with bands to express every man's woven tropical hats, in a great

No department in men's dress has seen such a revolution as his summer headwar. When con-fined to the stiff sailor straw or the Panama—both in the bleached white color—there was little en-joyment and not too much com-fort in the change to straw hats. This past year brought the discovery of a vast new field in sum not require novelty; nay, the older it is, and the more we are accustomed to it, the greater its effect.

> The highest graces of music flow from the feelings of the heart.—Nathaniel Emmons.

peace-breathing music. -Elihu Burritt with bands to express every man's fancy and harmonize with all types of costumes—plain colors, bright print pugress in Javan Batik, polka dot and other gay patterns, two-tone bands, bands of soft-colored Oxford shirting. Particularly striking is the Mayan Indian band, woven in Guatemala in authentic native nature and colors. thentic native patterns and colors Shoes Step Out

Red Leads Parade: Like Hats, the Sillier the Better

In Lively Hues

views of the Easter parade that the occasion itself will have an element of surprise in seeing exactly sailor, or another a lady in so frills or a portrait in finery

A COLORFUL EASTER spring as gay and colorful as stylists can contrive, which is pretty gay and colorful. Even shoes will step lively in colors headed by red, which seems a bit revolutionary but such is the case. No one expects, or seems to want, sen-sible shoes. Like hats, the sillier they are the harder we fall for them, but they are not all open-toed and many have closed heels, which is something. The pyramid-ger, although it really isn't a tricky as it appears. If you don't happen to care for novelty shoes, it's too bad, since all sorts of unusual trimmings are used, ranging from nail heads, deorative brass ones, to match box affairs that sprout where bows and buckles once grew. Pimiento and heart-beat red are two of the fav ored shoe colors.

ed heel is smart and hints of dan-and any number of materials. You can have ruffles, pleats, lace in Laundering Your Candlewick Spread If you have a jabot you don't need to worry about sewing probern fabrics is candlewick. It's reasonable, it's attractive to look at and it comes in lovely colours This is how to launder spreads. Make some good, soapy water and plunge the fabric in, use a squeezing action to expel the dirt, but don't rub or wring the material. Rinse until the final rinsing water is clear (two or three in-stalments of water as a rule) and then hang outside until nearly dry. When the candlewick is almost dry, shake it as hard as you can to bring up the wicky part and when it is absolutely dry beat the whole surface with a light brush, a sort of dabbing, whisking action. ing action.

You can iron a quilt so long as you avoid the raised tufts, but a bath-mat requires no pressing at master of that which it creates through music, yet it is blessed in this creation, which, like every creation of art, is mightier than the artist.—Beethoven.

MUSIC

of creation; an echo of the invis-ible world; one note of the divine concord which the entire universe

Human hope and faith should join in nature's grand harmony, and, if on minor key, make music

Among the instrumentalities of love and peace, surely there can be no sweeter, softer, more effec-

Domestic Strife

printed consecutive classified ads: "I will not be responsible for any bills contracted by my wife Elaine Swick. Earl Swick." "Earl Swick —Since when has your credit rat-ing been O.K. for me to charge under your name? Elaine Swick."

Reautiful Coloured and Mounted Pictures of Warships of the British Navy
H.M.S. HOOD - RODNEY - WARSPITE REPULSE - ARK ROYAL - SUBMARINE MOTOR TORPEOD BOAT - DESTROYER also similar pictures of BRITAIN'S FIGHTING PLANES.

SEND NOW! !—Take the labe: from a tin of delicious 'Crown Syrup'—a tin of delicious 'Crown Syrup'—write your name and address on the write your name and address on the write your name and address on the write your name and address on the state of the st

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

Plane Stewardesses

Afterwards refreshing drinks are served and hard-boiled eggs that have been brightly colored are giv-en to the children.

toms Come From Southern "Hot Cross Buns! Hot Cross

If ye have no daughters, give pushed his flat two-wheeled cart aden with Easter confections through the narrow streets of old London; and to most people even yet Good Friday would not be complete without the Hot-Cross Buns

o adorn the breakfast table. MARKED WITH A CROSS Many are the stories that have been passed down through the ages in connection with this bun. It is said that the inhabitants o ancient Egypt and Greece offered sacred cakes to the Moon Goddess, marking them with a cross to inate the four quarters of the moon. Then at a later date, the Saxons ate a similar bread, which honor of their goddess of light. In a number of European countries the Hot Cross Bun is regard ed as a good-luck symbol, and it is believed that one should be kept until the following Good Friday to insure the best of fortune throughout the year. In one part of England it is still believed that Hot Cross Buns hung in the chimney corner on Good Friday will guar antee good bread to the housewife for the following 12 months. Ar other tradition in connection with is that if kept through the year s few crumbs soaked in water would Buns at this season of the year are the gaily-colored eggs which adorn almost every shop window. These are a survival of the distribution of "pace" or "pasche ege," zealously observed for generations by children in Scotland as well as in the English counties of Lancs Stafford and Warwick, where the dyed, hard-boiled eggs were rolled, tossed and finally eaten; for "ballplaying" on Easter Monday was universal. Even bishops and deans clergy and laity alike competing for prizes of "tansy cake." One of the most beautiful of Easter customs comes to us from Central Europe, where the Tyrol ese observe Holy Saturday in a unique manner. On the evening of that day they traverse every flower-strewn valley singing hymns accompanying themselves on guitars; and calling people from their homes to join in the procession. Wearing broad-brimmed hats adorned with spring blossoms, and with dancing children about them

We wait for Easter and the glad rebirth
Of all things fair
And clean and good and wholesome on the earth,
When sunshine warm to scatter Winter's dearth

We wait for Easter and the glad release From lethargy
Of Nature's children to breathe forth their peace
And give our weary bodies quick increase Of energy.

Homing Instinct

More Sheep in

HERE'S HOW TO CORRECT

To be sure IT IS Tender and sweet, say TENDERSWEET PAY LESS USE LESS

DUBLE-ACTING