(continued from page one) The boat? Sid said. Out of St. Pierre, they told me. What do you think? Been running in and out of the Pink Star and regular as a clock. St. Pierre neutral? And doesn't it need fish? The captain was a St. Pierre man, too.

But the whole darn crew, Sid said, was German, as I heard it. All engineers and technicians and wireless operators done up in fishermen's boots and sweaters and goggles, fishing every day like good little boys.

Funny thing, Sid said, the convoy we missed was the first after the Pink Star. Remember the one when the Pink Star sank four other ships were sunk? Ours was the next to start and it lost eight, would have been eighteen most likely if we went limping along like the old man wanted us to.

It's an old story now, Sid said. It's more than a year ago, and you won't hear of it any more. Sid said, you heard of any big convoys since? No, you haven't, Sid said, and you won't hear of it any more.

The government-controlled newsroom of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation has been told that it should not broadcast any news of the "French Atlantic possessions" in return for a signed undertaking that the U.S.N. was reported to have agreed to have negotiated this far-reaching agreement with Admiral Robert Vich.

What Difference Does the Birth of Jesus Make to You? will be the question around which the worship and meditation of Sunday morning services will center.

The Christmas Dinner and Entertainment held on Friday the 19th, was very greatly enjoyed, and the Superintendent, D. J. Deller and his staff are to be congratulated.

THE MAN OF THE HOUR

No man in the world today commands greater esteem and respect than Prime Minister Winston Churchill. His journey to this continent, and particularly his address before the United States Congress and Senate, elevated him to a position held by no other public servant in history.

The nomination meeting of the Township of Walpole, was not as well attended as in former years and everything passed very quietly.

The following were nominated: FOR REEVE—Mr. R. M. Dennis (Acclamation). Mr. J. J. Parsons, Mr. Harvey McKelvie, Mr. Elvin S. Pond (all), Mr. E. Catherwood, Mr. Geo. L. Miller, Mr. W. D. Cartwright, Mr. F. M. Hewson, Mr. Robert and Marshall Machell.

As our car entered the city, we were met by a very enthusiastic crowd. Rumors in Canada said that the ancient port was practically destroyed. German versions said that the dock area was rendered unusable.

As the first blitzed house stood on the corner. Or it had stood on the corner for a pile of bricks in the basement. The houses on either side seemed to have been hit by a few bombs.

Three New Aces On Village Council

The nomination meeting in the Village on Monday night was the most attended meeting of the ratepayers in some years, and the interesting nature of the nominations attracted more interest than has been known for some time.

The financial statement of the village operations presented by the Treasurer, a very encouraging year, with a splendid balance on hand for the year, which was interpreted by Ottawa as a U.S. guarantee of Vichy's continued possession.

That is the way Washington appears interpreted it, too, when Admiral Muselier came with his ships to liberate the islanders of St. Pierre and Miquelon.
