SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON VII JESUS TEACHES FORGIVENESS AND GRATITUDE

Luke 17. PRINTED TEXT, Luke 17: 14,

GOLDEN TEXT-Be ye kind one ing each other, even as God also Christ forgave you. Ephesians

THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING Time.—All the events spoken of in this chapter occurred between anuary and March, A.D. 30. Flace.-The teaching and th prophetic utterances of Christ in this chapter were given in Peraea; the miracle of the healing of the der of Samaria.

The first two verses of the lesson might be found easily the mos practical of the entire chapter. In them we are taught a lesson we all need to have continually em phasized in our own hearts and lives-namely, the terrible conemnation which God will mete ou te those who cause the followers of Christ, the children of God, to stumble, to fall into sin.

Offending the Little Ones Luke 17: 1. "And he said unto his disciples. It is impossible but that occasions of stumbling should come; but woe unto him, through whom they come; 2. It were well for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble." What a large branch of a tree would prove to a traveller driving forty miles an hour down a highway, if thrown an occasion of stumbling would be to anyone in the moral realm. The verse implies that we have a dir ect influence over other people, more extensive in some people than in others but, nevertheless, we are responsible for the influence which we exert upon other people; the Lord will certainly hold us responsible when we cause other people to stumble in walking the road of life. By the phrase these little ones," our Lord refers probably not only to children, but to the children of God and e pecially to those who have just egun their Christian life, or those who are, as it were, still weak in their faith. Forgiveness Seven Times 3, 4. Take heed to yourselves: if thy brother sin, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. And if he sin against thee seven times in the day, and seven times turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him." There are two specific injunctions in these two verses: we are to rebuke those repent, we are to forgive them. rebuking others, our Lord means we are to first point out the fact of the sin itself, and then, seconly, we are to reveal tactfully to this person how deadly the guil of that sin is. Forgiveness is ba on the man's repentance. If the man shall sin seven timos, and say he repents, we are to forgive him. Better to secure the sanctity and beauty of our own character by being ready to forgive seven times even though the man is not sincere, than by refusing forgiveness to a truly repentant soul, be in danger of becoming a stumbling block in his way.

Miracle of Healing 11. "And it came to pass, as they were on the way to Jerusalem, that he was passing along the borders of Samaria and Galilee.

12. And as he entered into certain village, there met him ten nen that were lepers, who stood afar off: 13. and they lifted up their voices, saying, Jesus, Maste have mercy on us. 14. And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go and show yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, as they went, they were cleansed. What we are particularly inter ested in in this passage is the strange command of Christ to these Lepers that they should go and show themselves unto the priests. In the first place there is here, a keen trial of faith. With no signs of restoration as yet upon them, they were bidden to do that which implied they were perfectly restored, in their prompt obedience, they declared plainly that some weak beginnings of faith were working in them.

Where Are The Others? 15. "And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, with a loud voice glorifying God; 16. and he fell upon his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan, 17. And Jesus answering said, Were not the te cleansed? but where are the nine 18. Were there none found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger?" The others were perhaps afraid that now the Master would have a claim upon them and would begin to press it. He who had given them their health might demand their loyalty; and they were not ready to yield it.

Ring of Steel Guards Britain From Invasion

Expert opinion is practically unanimous that an invasion of Britain will be attempted this spring or summer. The same experts concede that it will be a costly undertaking, for Britain is prepared now as she never was before. Around her shores are powerful guns, tank traps and other devices that are designed to make it uncomfortable for trespassers. Not the least important in the steel ring of defences are the batteries of mobile howitzers held in readiness at various strategic points whence they can be rushed to any part of the defence lines that need strengthening. ABOVE you see some of these stubby, but powerful guns in transit and in firing position. At TOP, a howitzer mounted on its mobile carriage being taken over a snowy road. CENTRE, unloading the gun at its position. BOTTOM, a battery all ready to shower out the "welcoming confetti." Expert opinion is practically unanimous that an invasion of Britain factor was no longer necessary to them now that the pressure of urgent want was past.

19. "And he said unto him, Arise, and go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole." The nine, too, were healed-but their faith produced nothing more. This man's trust remained, brought the fruit of gratitude and was on the way to ettl! more. This man was on the way to full salvation.

Shoes Step Out In Radiant Hues

Smart Designs Also Are Seen For Spring Wear-Pumps Win Popularity Poli

Proudly stepping along in the vanguard of spring fashions are shoes, introducing to the new season a legion of colorful, smart and wearable styles. The keynote to feminine footwear styling, a set at Chicago's recent Nationa Shoe Fair, is slighly paradoxical shoes and stronger tailored trends for dress-up types. Your preference for pumps, as evidenced during the year past, has been heeded by designers, and once more this type will be winning the popularity poll Again in the news are pumps with low-cut and rounded insteps, and an amazing assortment of bow-like

Many of the shoe styles stem from America's own exciting pioneer period, and highlight Western designs and themes from Indian footwear. Others are born from to day's stirring times, and portray a strong liking for, patriotic motifs and colors, including many clever derivations of sailor designs.

Your entertaining might take the form of a buffet supper and for that we right away visualize a lacey tablecoth decorated with hearts according to your own taste and maybe a nos gay bouquet in the centre, (which might be flowers or could be made out of gum drop candies on a paper doily). The whole should convey the impression of an old fashioned valentine. Pretty white porcelain candlesticks bearing red candles would add much to the efect. On your table, whethe a party buffet supper or family supper, your color scheme throughout should have red predominating as much as poss so with that in mind, we would suggest your table have the following goodies: PLENTY OF RED

Tomato juice is incomparabl for the above purpose, especially if placed in tall clear glasses. Then again it might be tomate soup peeping out, which is very appealing after a skating or ski ing party. Did you ever try adding chopped browned almonds to your soup — it really gives it quite a zest. Potato rolls, (which recipe has been given several times) always make a splend accompaniment to any meat dish for this type of supper. Ther again rotato chips are always ap-netizing. That meat dish might be cold sliced ham or a chicken or tuna jelly. Then did you ever make tomato tarts? Make same tart shells - and fill with a tomato jelly made thus:-

1 package of strawberry jelly powder and pour over it tomato juice (strained) and boiling, of course; when luke warm add 1 tablespoon of horseradish. When the mixture reaches a honey-like consistency, pour into the tart shells - then chill. These tarts are an excellent accompaniment to any meat dish. For your dessert you are probably having jellies or ice cream and if you wish a new cake recipe, try this one:-
