And Here's to the Ladies!

All the buying of War Savings Certificates is not being done by the men. Not a bit of it. The Ladies are doing their full share, and this on top of their Red Cross work, and all other War activities. God Bless Them.

We offer our warm congratulations to the Ladies of Jarvis for the inspiration and example of their efforts. Before the War Savings drive is over, we firmly believe that there won't be a home in this community that is not pledged 100 per cent. to buy War Savings Certificates.

We are proud to pay this tribute to our friends and customers who are working so faithfully and conscientiously to insure the Success of the War Savings Certificates drive in Jarvis.

MORE WORRY FOR THE FARMER

(The Printed Word)

By order-in-council the Wartime Prices and Trade Board was recently given the power to fix maximum prices for butter throughout Canada. The news may be welcome to the urban housewife, but may not be so to the farmer who produces the butter. The manufacturer of goods to be sold to the farmer may reduce his prices to some extent, but normally he will adjust his production to market conditions.

Why Should We Fight For England

—By Harold Wood—
Why should we fight? 'Cause England is at War. Why are they fighting now? Dad, what are they fighting for? What does it mean to you, Dad, to have Mum and me? And some day you go there, Dad, and leave us here to cry. So why should you go there, Dad, and leave us here to cry? Is it 'cause England owns us, is that the reason why? His eyes looked widely at me, I tightly held my son. And this is how I answered his questions, one by one.

We fight when England calls us, for in her sacred keep. The ashes of our fathers lie in her soil—also. And many times for England they fought that she'd be free, And they are part of England, and so are you and me. And once again she's calling across the Empire wide, And all the Empire answers you'll find us at your side. Oh yes we're owned by England, but we own England too. As you are part of me, son, and I am part of you.

And we must keep that trust, son, against the force of greed. And fight beside old England, whenever she's in need. And once again she's calling across the Empire wide, And all the Empire answers you'll find us at your side. Oh yes we're owned by England, but we own England too. As you are part of me, son, and I am part of you.

As you are part of me, son, and I am part of you.

As you are part of me, son, and I am part of you.

As you are part of me, son, and I am part of you.
