Injuries Serious

To Local Ladies

In Sunday Crash

MRS. ROY REYNOLDS AND MADELINE WADDELL, BOTH IN HOSPITAL

An accident on Sunday evening, just west of the Village on Highway No. 3, ended tragically for two local ladies, as they were walking toward Jarvis. They were Mrs. Roy Reynolds of this Village and Miss Madeleine Waddell, of Cayuga, and an employee at the Village Service Station west of the Village.

Mixed up in the affair also were several local boys with bicycles and two automobiles. One car driven by William L. Fenton of Thorold turned out to pass some of the bicycles, and in so doing, sideswiped the truck, before them. The impact of the crash was such that the car was thrown into the ditch, and the two ladies, as they were walking toward Jarvis, were hurled into the air. Mrs. Reynolds was badly damaged. She was thrown into the air and landed on her head. Miss Waddell was also injured. She was thrown into the air and landed on her head. The car was also damaged.
