Letters to the Editor

Dear Record, Jarvis, Ont. Dear Sir - Recently received from Uncle C. S. copy of your paper and in which you printed our names and address as an old Nanticoke boy, would like to see his bit of news and get some leads on the job.

APPRECIATES PAPER

England, February 7, 1941 Dear Laird - I just received my first copy of the Record since leaving Canada, and I must say it really was a welcome surprise to find the Hamilton Branch of the Institute met at McMaster University in Hamilton recently.

CARDS OF THANKS

Mrs. Charles Yocum wishes to take this opportunity of expressing her sincere appreciation to the Jarvis Fire Department for the assistance and many kindnesses extended at the time of our recent fire.

On the rocks and shoals of partysim patronage and greed. Hope springs eternal that we will be able to echo the refrain - "Rejoice whatever anguish rend your heart."
