THE LORD'S SUPPER

Luke 22: 1-38.
PRINTED TEXT, Luke 22: 14-30. GOLDEN TEXT-As often as ye eat this bread, and drink the ye proclaim the Lord's death till he come. 1 Cor. 11: 26. THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING Time.—The bargain of Judas with the Jewish leaders to betray the Lord was entered into on Tues day, April 4th, A.D. 30. The Lord's Supper took place on Thursday evening, April 6th. Place.-The bargain with Judas and the Jewish leaders was made in Jerusalem; the Lord's Supper was observed in an upper room in Jerusalem, though we do not kno pactly where this upper room was Luke 22: 14. "And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the apostles with him." 15. "And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer." Christ desired the support of the disciples' fellow ship for what lay before him; also, his presence-if they were assur would find comfort when the shock unto you. I shall not eat it, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God." The Passover feast was, as we know, a celebration of Israel's great deliverance from the power and slavery of Egypt. Notice the hope and confidence which Christ her expresses. He knew He would be He also knew He would live again, disciples would be put to death, they would live again.

Until the Kingdom Come 17. "And he received a cup, and when he had given thanks, he said, Take this, and divide it among rselves: 18. for I say unto you I shall not drink from henceforth of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come." 19. "And he took bread he brake it, and gave to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you." Fund mentally, the bread was broken so that it might be passed aroun and partaken of by the disciples. But, of course, in breaking a lo of bread, its unity is destroyed, just as when a body dies, it disintegrates. It has often been pointed out that broken bread is symbolic of death, in five ways: the must first die before a new stalk arises; at harvest the wheat must he cut down: for flour to be o tained from wheat it must be ground in a mill; for flour to be made digestible, it must be baked, mixed with other elements; finally, bread to be eaten must be broken, if not with the hands, at least with the teeth — five types of death in broken loaf of bread. "In Remembrance of Me" me." Literally this should be translated "with a view to calling to garden, because playing popular mind, a remembrance of me." Christ is here asking the disciples to remind themselves and others of the redemption he would win, by his death. The death of Jesus was to mean more to His followers than the emancipation from slavery in Egypt celebrated by the Passover. The Passover had done its work and served its purpose, and now it was to give place and make way for the celebration of the real deliverance of the h man race.

"This Cup" 20. "And the cup in like mann after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood, evon that which is poured out for you." As Moses, after reading the book of the covenant' in the audience of the people, had taken blood and sprinkled it on the people, saying, 'Behold the blood the covenant which the Lord bath made with me concerning all these things,' so the blood of Christ, to be shed for the sins of His people, was to have a new and deeper purifying influence. This new promise of an inward life of lated out of the region of promise into the realm of actual living experience in the hearts of His people, the new Israel, through the shedding of the blood of Christ, the blood of new covenant or prom-tee. By the precious blood to be poured out next day, we have peace with God We have cleansing from win. We are reconciled. We are washed. We are redeemed.

The Betrayer 21. "But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table, 22, For the Son of man indeed goeth, as it hath been determined: but woe unto that man through whom he is betrayed! 28. And they began to question among themselves, which of them was that should do this thing. 24. And there arose also a contention among them, which of them New Suits Designed For Bombed British Children was accounted to be greatest. 25. And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles have lordship over them; and they that have authority over them are called Benefactors. 26. But ye shall not be so: but that is the greater among you, let him become as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth zerve. 27. For which is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but the throne is the way of selfemptying and sacrificial service.
