SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

CHRIST'S COMMISSION .-Luke 24:36-53. GOLDEN TEXT. - Behold, send forth the promise of my Father upon you. Luke 24:49. THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING. Time. The appearance to the ten disciples, Thomas being absent, took place on Sunday evening, April 9th, the day of the d Resurrection; the particular time when the events recorded in verses 44-49 took place, we are not able to determine. It was of course during the last two weeks of April, or the first two weeks of May. The Ascension occurred on Thursday, May 18, A.D. 30.

Place.-The appearance to the ten disciples occurred in the upper room in Jerusalem. The exact place where the events of verses 44-49 took place we do not know. The Ascension occurred at the village of Bethany, on the western slope of the Mount of

In this lesson we feel the d sire on the part of the Lord Jesus to persuade His disciples beyond all doubt that He was indeed the Jesus who had been crucified on Calvary, that He had truly, in His own body, risen from the dead; and, this being true, He pressed upon the disciples the obligation to proclaim to the world the truths involved in His life and death and Resurrection

Suddenly, while Peter and John were describing what had previously passed between themselves and the risen Christ, they became conscious of a Presence in their midst. Luke 24:36. "And as they spake these things, he himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peac be unto you." With Christ the words of greeting were no empty formality. The Resurrection was a divine assurance that peace ha heen re-established between Goo and His world; and the origina disciples of the Lord, who had continued with Him in His temptations, were the first to receiv the message of this reconcilia tion, as they were to be the firs "Why Are Ye Troubled?" 37. "But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they beheld a spirit." The disciples probably at once recognized that the person who stood before them was the Lord, yet they did not believe it was Christ in a body, but simply the disembodied spirit of Jesus. And such an apparition would fright on the most hardened individual Why are ye troubled? 26. And wherefore do questionings arise in your heart?" They believed, and they did not believe.

39. "See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a Spirit hath met sleek and heard handle me, handle me, and see; for a spirit hath met sleek and heard handle me, and see; heard see handle me, and see not flesh and bones, as ye behold me having. 40. And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet." If these disciples were not to have a profound conviction of the truth that he had risen from the grave, then they could never unflinch ingly, incessantly, boldly, preach the Resurrection of Christ: They must have abundant evidence, incontravertible evidence: they had it before the forty days of Christ's appearance had been completed. 41. "And while they still disbelieved for joy, and wo dered, he said unto them, Have here anything to eat. 42. And they gave him a piece of broiled fish. 43. And he took it, and ate before them."

Final Instructions 44. "And he said unto them, These are my words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must needs be fulfilled, which are written in the law of Moses, and the prophets, and the psalms, concerning me. 45. Then opened he their mind, that they migh understand the scriptures." Christ eagerly began to interpret to the disciples some of the greater Messianic passages of the Old Testament which His coming, and filled. Soon He would go away, but the word of God would not depart from them; it would remain in their hands, and, know ing its meaning, convinced of its divine origin and the fulfilment of its prophecies, they could go forth to proclaim the Lord Jesu as the Christ of whom Moses and the Prophets had spoken. This what we constantly find the Apostles doing in the Acts of the Apostles.

Witnesses of These Things 46. "And he said unto them Thus it is written, that the Christ hould suffer, and rise again from the dead the third day. 47. And that repentance and remisflon of sins should be preached his name unto all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem." This is not an invitation, but a command: it is not a suggestion, but

A certain customer always fell asleep in the barber's chair. That wasn't so bad in a shop in which he was well known. But where he wasn't known, well— The day came that he marched into a strange barber's shop and found himself the only customer in the place. He eased himself

"A light trim," he ordered.

"Not much off the top."

The barber nodded; went to work. And as he worked, the customer followed his usual habit of falling asleep.

Three hours later he awakened. He looked in the mirror, and, to his horror, discovered that the barber had given him a haircut that made him look practically bald.

RADIO REPORTER By DAVE ROBBINS DIAL CHANGES Radio in North America takes another important step this month. Frequency assignments decided up on at a conference in Washington earlier this year become effective at 4.00 a.m. EDST, on March 29 pursuant to the North America Regional Broadcasting Agreement All stations in Canada, the Un ited States, Mexico and Cuba, are involved in the complicated technical operations which will place nearly 800 stations on new wave lengths at the end of March, Tuning circuits and antennae must be adjusted to the new frequencies. Many other intricate operations are necessary in order that the listeners may receive the full benefit of the change-over. To limit interference from other stations and to improve the service radio is now performing, is the object of this widespread reallocation. It is the desire of the radio industry that the listeners will experience greater enjoyment when the job is completed. So, be sure and look up the dial number of the station you want after March 29th. CBL will be heard at 740-CFRB
