LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Somehow in England I have just a few lines to let you know that I received a carton of cigarettes last night, by the Jarvis District Cigarette and to ask you to convey my many thanks to that organization and its subscribers. I am not in the Field Artillery unit, but I am in the 5th Field Artillery Regiment of the late 5th Brigade of the 1st Canadian Division. I was taken to the front on March 1st, 1914, and I have been there ever since. Ground for hope

Let's hope Mr. King's War Effort may prove more useful to the world and the United States during the next twenty months than it has proved in the past twenty. There is no ground for hope in "Canada," the despatch from Hyde Park said, "will ship the United States millions of strategic material and ships needed here."
