Haldimand Organized For Trees are Planted

The Haldimand County Junior Farmers' Association in co-operation with the Restoration Committee of the County Council made a start last week in reforesting small plots throughout the county. This movement began last November when a number of Junior Farmers attended a Forestry and Conservation Day program at Hamilton and four months later when similar delegations were present from several counties.

Asparagus And Kings

Asparagus brought the memory of spring and the news from Ethiopia. Each morning one thought with happiness to hope today for a world, and for France and for poor Britain with its sad, small King-Edwin who, in his palace, many mornings there was little happiness to hope. But when there was news from Ethiopia one could smile. One could smile and think that a story as one has been taught in school to try to picture it to one's mind, remembering the roses at Liege. The roses, and the asparagus.

Salvage Campaign Is Now Underway

Save your waste material in your home, on your farm and at your place of business! This is one of the major concerns of the Canadian people. For the metal already salvaged in Great Britain has been sufficient to build 16,000 tanks. This week's Victory Bags are being distributed in the village by the Girl Guides and along the concession roads by members of the Red Cross.
