inished off the Messerschmitt. He saw it go down with a long trail of smoke behind it. Just above the clouds, he saw the German pilot jump loose and float down with his parachute. He was glad of that. He didn't want to kill the German pilot not the first time anyway.

I could have listened to more of his enthusiastic details, but some of the other chaps in the squadron began to make rude remarks. Apparently one isn't expected to give intimate details of a fight like this to an outcider who happens to come along. At first their jibes didn't and Sergeant Pilot McClusky left me to go and put in his official refort.

We would go to have teat join us.

We drove around the field, past the Hurricanes, already dragged into their pits. Armourers were scrembling over them, removing the empty cartridge belts and replacing them with fresh ones, full of long lines of glistening bullet noses. Mechanics were going over the motors and refueling. If an alarm came, those Hurricanes would be mombs drayed nothing but direct hits would damage them.

Quilting Bee In Town Hall Fifty Ladies From Jarvis District Complete Nine

POT LUCK DINNER ENJOYED

Quilts In Record

The evening's entertainment of games was cleverly arranged by Mrs Thomas Harris.

Molly and Bert were then called upon to open their many lovely gifts. They both responded fittingly, after which a delicious lunch was served.

World Small Place

Writes Stan Burditt

Five groups of ladies joined together in The Jarvis Town Hall on Tuesday for a quilting bee on behalt of the Red Cross. The groups including, the Ladies of Chalmers Church, Varency W.I., Sandusk W. I., Jarvis W.I., and the Jarvis Red Cross Group, numbered more than fifty ladies. They worked indefatigably from ten o'clock in the morning until around 3.30 in the afternoon, at which time nine quilts had been completed for Red Cross Shipment.
