

Channel Islands Under Nazi Heel

Story of an Islander Who Escaped to England in a Motorboat

A fairly large number of troops appear to be stationed in the island to which I belong, and of their general behavior to the people there seems nothing to complain. A report that men from the island had been removed to camps or elsewhere in the continent is untrue, but all have to work mostly on food production, or do such other work as they are suited to.

Much hardship now exists however, owing to scarcity of one thing and another. The Islanders have had no tea for 12 months. Soap, candles, and paraffin are not obtainable, and the people mostly retire at dusk and rise at dawn. Butter is allowed at the rate of 2 oz. a week, meat 6 oz., and no fat. Gas for cooking is allowed for only 20 minutes or so, at two periods each day.

There was little coal for fuel during last winter, and those who live near the coast burn drift-wood, etc., for occasional fires. Many of the older people succumb with the cold. Nearly all doctors left before the occupation. A few German doctors are there, but not enough to cope with the situation. Winter is therefore very cruel. No civilians remain in Alderney, which is given over entirely to military occupation. Fever-troops occupy Guernsey. No one is given over entirely to military occupation. Fever-troops occupy Guernsey. Ancient Rome, more recently part of what was laughingly referred to as the New Roman Empire, is the setting as British Imperial Forces advance after routing Axis forces in Libya.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON VI.
A BUSY SABBATH IN CAPERNAUM. — Mark 1:21-34; Luke 4:31-41.

Printed Text, Mark 1:21-34
GOLDEN TEXT — I was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day. Revelation 1:10.

THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING
TIME — May, A.D. 28.
PLACE — The city of Capernaum, at the northern end of the Sea of Galilee.

21. "And they go into Capernaum; and straightway on the Sabbath Day he entered into the synagogue and taught. 22. And they were astonished at his teaching: for he taught them as having authority, and not as the scribes." It would seem that our Lord regularly attended the services of the synagogue on the Sabbath. We should follow his example. At times the services may be dull or meaningless; our presence there may be a blessing to others as well as to ourselves. Our Lord came to do many things, including the great work of teaching, a privilege He here exercises amidst His own people, in what ought to be an atmosphere of true worship. These people had heard teachers all their lives, and, no doubt, some of them had gone up to Jerusalem and heard the best teachers that Jerusalem had at that day. But the teaching of Jesus was immediately recognized as being something different; loftier and more powerful than any other teaching they had ever heard. In fact, they were utterly astonished. When men listened to Him they knew He was right. The authority of Jesus was, and still is, the authority of absolute truth. 23. "And straightway there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, saying, 'What have we to do with thee, Jesus thou of Nazareth? Art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.' Something strange makes this spirit speak out in public and cry out. It is not possible that the man himself, worthy of the bondage of an evil spirit, and hearing that one who could deliver was teaching in the synagogue of his

DIALING HIS DAVID

Canadian born, who found himself in England a few years ago, and was featured with Jay Wilbur's band. She made quite a name for herself, and that's going to do rather funny things to your radio listening: in fact, rather mix it up for you. Briefly, this is what will happen: Those who are on Daylight Saving time, will hear Canadian network shows at the usual time — but American network shows, such as Charlie McCarthy and others, will be heard ONE HOUR EARLIER! Those who leave Standard Time, will hear American network shows ONE HOUR LATER than they've been accustomed to hearing them, but starring Eric Wild's orchestra, the solo voices of Georgia by St. Shuster and Johnny Wayne. Her May M.C.A. show, and its personality headliner, "Blended Rhythms," the solo voices of Georgia by St. Shuster and Johnny Wayne. Some Canadian shows, particularly the network, may change time to avoid conflict with American shows coming into Canada. But keep listening — and don't miss the big Tuesday night show — and of course, to get that headliner, "Blended Rhythms," the solo voices of Georgia by St. Shuster and Johnny Wayne. Modern Etiquette

1. Isn't a young person entitled to all the pleasure he can get out of life?
2. What colors of ink should be used for correspondence?
3. Is it all right for a man to have a woman on the street?
4. Is it proper to take a woman across a room for the purpose of introducing her to a man?
5. Is it permissible for a man and his wife to have joint visiting cards?
6. What is considered a perfectly set table?
7. Yes, if the pleasure is innocent and moderate. Moderation should be practiced in all things. Colton wrote, "The seeds of restraint are sown in youth by pleasure, but the harvest is reaped in age by pain."

8. Yes, if he knows her well. 9. Use 3 parts nitrate of silver, 20 parts gum arabic, 50 parts distilled water. Dissolve the gum arabic in two-thirds of the water, mix with the nitrate in the other third. Then mix, and add the desired color.
10. Yes, if you can make the crescent in trousers last longer?
11. A. Try putting a teaspoonful of sugar into a cup of water and sponging the creases in the trousers with this solution when pressing them.
12. Q. How can I make a decorative salad?
13. A. By cutting some hard-boiled eggs in six lengthwise slices and arranging petal-fashion around rounds of chopped pickle, mixed with salad dressing. Serve on lettuce.
14. Q. How can I test the quality of table linen?
15. A. A good method for testing table linen is to secure a sample and dip it into any kind of oil. The linen threads will become almost transparent, enabling one to see very readily how many cotton threads it contains.
16. Q. How can I keep the juice of fruit pies from running over?
17. A. If a soda cracker is rolled into fine pieces and sprinkled over the lower crust of a fruit pie, it will prevent the juices from running over into the crust.

Have You Heard?

A filling station man answered his door one day to find a woman in a hat and coat, looking somewhat flustered. Arriving at the scene, he found the lady with her head down, and her hands on her forehead, looking at him as if she were about to faint. "What's the matter?" he asked. "I've just heard of my husband's death," she said, "and I'm so glad that the only trouble But do you suppose it would hurt if I drove home on an empty tank?"

Accept This Genuine Offer! Any doctor will testify that rheumatism is one of the most distressing ailments that afflicts the human body. It is a disease of the joints, and is caused by an infection of the blood. The most effective remedy is one that attacks the cause of the disease, and restores the blood to its normal condition. This is the only genuine offer of the kind.

Hotels in Britain Have Their Trials

Hotels, like private households, have their difficulties. The milk shortage directly affects them too. A tablespoonful of milk is the limit of the ration, and if it goes into the morning coffee, guests must take their porridge without. So states one hotel manager. For the rest of the day, a modicum of milk is served in tea, and generally none with coffee.

Even the porridge has suffered a delection. I hear of one establishment where, in deference to the English habit of eating it with sugar, it is actually flavored with sugar instead of salt in the making, and thus rendered completely unpalatable to the Scottish palate.

Not a great deal of sympathy goes out to the hotel guest, who is mistakenly pictured as living on the fat of the land while everybody else is severely rationed. The truth is that hotel menus are much attenuated, and compared with a year ago, and if the black market operates, it is only in the less reputable establishments.

Had Moses Foreseen Our Misuse of Land

Without flourish and with reverence, it is suggested in a recent issue of "Citriculture" (California) that if Moses had foreseen man's recent misuse of land in every country and in every age — the wastage of soil by man's suicidal agriculture and the resulting barren deserts and ruined civilizations — if he had foreseen the desolation caused by man's ignorance or greed, or both, Moses no doubt, would have been inspired to amplify the Ten Commandments to ensure man's understanding and observance of his responsibility to his fellow-men, and his responsibility to Mother Earth.
