That way, it ought to do a lot to help Mr. King gather in the recruits he needs to keep him safe from having to decide what to do with his plebiscite after he gets it. That way, it should show doubting youth that the Government of Canada knows what this war is about, and will not betray it's young men to despair and dusty legalisms after victory. That way, it will show what generosity and vision can do to ennoble bureaucrats and make them worthy instruments of the best aspirations of a not-ignoble people. That way, it should demonstrate how watchful the chosen spokesmen of Canadian democracy have been, to make sure that no callousness of theirs shall cause them to misrepresent the people's will. That way it can prove to all the world that the Canadian Government has statutory authority for its determination to chisel part of the money going to waste this way out of men who paid the cost of the last one with all that makes life worth having.

That way Canadians might be encouraged to take a good look at them selves as their elected servants mirror them; eleven million cheese-paring ingrates not fit to be saved from Nazi-ism by the courage of their sons.

Having taken the look, Canadians who can still feel shame might protest against the shame being perpetuated. If the Government of Canada needs a new kind of statutory authority before it can show either gratitude or decency toward the Canadians who saved us all last time, how's about seeing that the government of Canada gets it quick? Parliament is sitting, and that's what parliaments are supposed to be for.

THE POLITICAL FRONT

It might be assumed from the results of the By-Elections held on Monday, that Canadians are satisfied with the Government's conduct of the War. Again it may not. Certainly everyone is highly gratified with certain efforts that have been accomplished, but surely no one will say that Canadians as a whole have made anything like a "Total" effort, which to many must surely appear by now to be necessary.

Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighan, described by his friends as Canada's most talented citizen, and even by his most severe critics as capable, was defeated by a C.C.F. Candidate on Monday. As leader of the official opposition in the Parliament of Canada, everyone agrees, that he would have contributed much toward achieving a "Total" war effort. To the Conservative party, the defeat was a severe set-back, and it will likely mark finis to the career of a great man. However, it need not necessarily put the Conservative party out of the play-offs.

The C.C.F. win on the other hand will lead thinking citizens to contemplate more soberly the chances of this party in the play-offs. Under the leadership of the youthful Harold Winch the C.C.F. forms the official opposition in the B.C. Legislature, and across Canada they are making the most of every opportunity to appeal to the public. Doctrine regarded as radical by the more conservative citizens in its early stages the C.C.F. viewpoint seems to be gaining more favor. The B.C. Leader's statement that he doesn't believe the maximum War effort can be achieved on the existing economic basis, but that he will not obstruct the War effort merely to further his economic views, will in no measure weaken his party in the future.

The Liberal Party on the other hand goes sweeping along on it's own momentum. The astute Mr. King, having no love for Mr. Meighan because of his superiority in debate, was not anxious to have his former opponent opposite him in the House of Commons. And by refraining from entering a candidate, in the South York By-Election, under the guise of good sportsmanship, he insured himself against the verbal beatings that would likely have been his had Arthur Meighan been elected.

With the plebiscite almost definitely going through, there seems to be a growing tendency on the part of those opposed to the Government to refrain from voting. Nothing can be gained by this. Surely the Allies have suffered sufficient calamities, without such a damning indignity such as would befall Canada, if the plebiscite is turned down. We must be sure that does not happen—even though there may be bitterness over the Government's action.

VICTORY LOAN SUNDAY

Ever since man first found God, the godly have been beset by the ungodly. The church has always been considered a natural enemy by those individuals and those nations which have sought power and wealth through the cruel exploitation of their neighbours and other nations.

In the light of history it is not surprising that Hitler has seen fit to persecute the religious people of Germany and of those other countries which he has conquered. Enlightened citizens of the democracies which still remain free know full well that if Hitler is not stopped, the church and all it means will be set back for years.

Thus is becomes a logical decision that churches in Canada, whose primary mission is to promote "Peace On Earth," should lend a voice in support of the practical courses which must be taken to stop Hitler.

A Victory Loan Sunday on February 22nd is therefore well conceived In connecting the cold hard business of raising money for the war effort with the warm, soul-stirring truth that this is a war to free millions of oppressed people, Victory Loan Sunday becomes a red letter day on the Calendar for 1942. God-fearing Canadians should fill the churches on that day.

PUT THE LOAN OVER ANYWAY

We must win the war in spite of the Government, and lay the foundation upon which subsequent administrations may reconstruct a solid and stable community after the war We owe this to our fighting men now and to our children later..... Mr. Ilsley at all events is doing his best under the most discouraging circumstances, and he deserves the public's support. — The Toronto Globe and Mail.

SANDUSK W. I. TO SPONSOR B. W. V. F. FILM AT CHEAPSIDE

Mrs. Frank Pond was hostess to the members of the Sandusk W.I. on Thursdaay, February 5th, there being an attendance of twenty-one. The President, Mrs. Wm. Tyrrell was in the chair and the usual opening exercises were observed.

It was decided to pay One Dollar toward the tuning of the piano at the Hostess House. The annual social evening will be held in the Sandusk School on Friday evening, March 6th; a Pot Luck program and Pot Luck lunch will be given — proceeds from the admission are for war work. Each Institute family is to give one item on the program. The Sandusk W.I. are sponsoring a screening of the Evening Telegram Film "First Aid for Front Liners" in Cheapside Hall on Saturday evening, April 4th, in aid of the British War Victim's Fund. A very interesting paper on Dakar, the capital of French West Africa, was prepared by Mrs. Fred Noble and read by Mrs. Albert Pond. An article on "Irish Melodies" was read by Mrs. Wm. Wilson, following which Mrs. Wilbur Werner gave the standing committee report on Health and Child Welfare. Miss Dorothy Loftshouse demonstrated a lovely table setting for a Valentine party.

The members not taking part in the program worked on a Red Cross quilt, and at the close of the meeting four others already completed were displayed, including a crib quilt pieced by a little seven year old, Lois Pond.

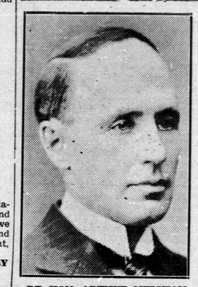
Local Committees Already At Work For Big Drive



RT. HON. ARTHUR MEIGHAN

One time Prime Minister of Canada who was defeated in the South York By-Election on Monday by J. S. Noseworthy, C.C.F. Candidate.

Local Talent to be Featured "Victory" Concert in Town Hall on Friday Night, February 20th

It is no mean honor to be the first unit in this vast Dominion of Canada, to reach the objective in a Victory Loan being floated to raise necessary money to defend our freedom, but that is what Haldimand County did last year, and that is what we confidentally expect Haldimand will do again.

The committees of the local division have all been named and are already hard at work making plans to bring to the citizens the great importance of each and every one participating in the loan to their fullest ability. In connection with the loan we must put aside prejudice and dissatisfaction. The tools of War must be provided in increasing numbers, and money must be provided to make this possible.

The local committee is again headed by Reeve Lea Marshall, with the following committees: Publicity, Laird Miller, L. B. Holmes, Mr. D Strachan and Rev. W. H. Fuller. B A.; Sales Committee: Rodger M. Dennis, Hugh Ross, Arthur Blight, Malen Wilkins, Amos Porter, Edgar Waldbrooke; Citizens Committee: L. L. McBride, E. S. Pond and Russell Hare; Salesmen: Rev. L. I. Brown, E. R. Swain, Sanford Schweyer and Lorne Dougherty.

All citizens are asked to bear in mind the "Victory" Concert in the Town Hall on Friday night, February 20th. The program will be presented by the local school, and No. 21 Walpole, along with other local talent, including, Emerson Miller, Reader, and Miss Helena Eadie, Vocalist. The entire proceeds from this concert will be handed over to the local Red Cross.

HALDIMAND - COUNTY - HEADQUARTERS

Dunnville, Ontario,
February 2nd, 1942

To the Citizens of Haldimand

The speech from the throne delivered at the Opening of Parliament, January 22nd, began with the following paragraph:

"There no longer can be any question as to the character and scope of the present war. It is a world-wide conflict between irreconcilable forces. On every continent, including the confines of our own, and on all oceans, forces that aim at world domination oppose forces that seek the preservation of freedom. In every quarter of the globe, civilization is confronted by savagery."

The most casual observer cannot fail to realize the terrible danger which threatens our Country and the Empire which we all love. Everyone must be convinced that Victory can only be won by a total war effort; thus it will be seen and felt that our soldiers in the actual theatre of war must be properly provided with modern equipment. Canada is spending large sums to maintain and equip her own army, and is helping to provide for the needs of the Motherland. It is therefore necessary that further funds be provided to furnish materials of all kinds.

The loan which is now being arranged should receive the full support of every loyal Canadian. Haldimand had the proud distinction of being the first County in the Dominion to reach its objective in the last loan. I urge the people of the County to once more demonstrate their patriotism by subscribing to this loan to the utmost of their ability. There is no other investment which I might recommend that is so definitely safe and sound in the face of the present world situation. The terms are liberal, and the security is ample, being guaranteed by all the resources of our great and growing Country.

YOURS SINCERELY,

M. C. Senn,

M.P. for Haldimand

HALDIMAND - COUNTY - HEADQUARTERS

Dunnville, Ontario,
February 2nd, 1942

To the Citizens of Haldimand

Once again the challenge of war is directly before the residents of Haldimand. The Government is asking for $600,000,000, for war purposes and a quota of $1,025,000. has been set for the County of Haldimand.

In the 1941 Victory Loan Campaign the citizens of Haldimand made magnificent response and emerged with one of the finest records in the whole Dominion. Presaged by the fiendest treachery of Japan the war has crashed into the Pacific and we now face on all the seas nations which seek to extinguish our freedom, to crush out of existence our way of living.

In this desperate fight Canada asks the citizens of Haldimand to loan and to pledge their savings for their own self-preservation. I am confident the citizens of Haldimand will do their duty in full measure and in full faith that this land they love, is worth defending to the last ounce of treasure.

YOURS FAITHFULLY,

"Eric W. Cross"

Almost The Same

by Judith Robinson

It would be a help if the Minister of Munitions and Supply had a friend A friend might be able, in friendship's name, to say: Clarence, don't do it. Lay off the rhetoric, Decatur a friend could say: you know you haven't got the head for it.

But apparently, Mr. C. D. Howe has no friends. If he had, one of them must have stopped him before he went to Welland last week to launch into rhetoric in defence of the press-gang system of getting active army recruits. Like this:

"..... the method of bringing pressure upon trainees to get them to enlist for overseas is essentially the same system of pressure that is exerted on the public in a victory loan campaign.

If Mr. Howe had a friend, he could tell him why he shouldn't talk like that. If Mr. Howe had a good friend, he might even tell him why he shouldn't think like that. The question is, could the friend make himself understood?

A man past fifty who sees no difference in essence between bullying and browbeating a boy who cannot escape into "volunteering" to risk death for his country, and hich-pressuring a citizen into investing his money in four-percent government bonds would be pretty hard to tell. He wouldn't understand any civilized language. But some friend who knows Mr. Howe could try making signs.

Luckily, there is still the Roseville, Ont., correspondent of the Uxbridge Journal to read when doubts of Canada being worth saving grow too thick:

Mrs. George Hockley will stay at home this winter.

Mr. Allard is cutting his wood.

Mr. Walter Brown came home from the construction work.

The mailman, Mr. Hall, attended the funeral of his wife's sister, Mrs. Alonzo Long, on Thursday and Mr. Allard carried the mail.

About a year ago, the Jones cat lost her kittens. It is supposed an owl took them. She went across the field looking for them and was not seen again until a few days ago when she appeared on Mr. Jones' verandah pleased to be home.

Mr. Whalen's horse gave a jump threw him against the wagon-box and hurt his ribs. He cannot do any chores.

Mr. Jones turned up the north road coming from church on a dark night instead of continuing west. He was quite lost and kept getting into the ditch. He began going up the school hill and with no houses near the road it might have been serious. Suddenly someone tapped him on the shoulder and a neighbour got him and Eva headed for home.

Mr. Alex. Wagg has been away hunting.

Mrs. Alex. Wagg is making quilts.

Mr. Titus getting in his wood.

Mrs. Oke had her War Worker's meeting last Friday. In the evening, Mrs. Kendall gave some of the workers a motor ride.

To the Uxbridge Red Cross Concert with Miss Amelda Tompkins and Miss Grace Stiner and enjoyed everything very much.
