A Weekly Review Of National Affairs

(By "Spectator")

The new session of parliament opened with the "nine days wonder" of the plebiscite. From all sections of the country criticism both favorable and adverse has echoed back to Ottawa, but one thing is quite certain, that the plebiscite has done for the people of Canada what it was intended to do. It has shown the people of Canada that they are not a passive people, that they are not a people who are to be ruled from afar, but that they are a people who are capable of making their own decisions. The government forces are behind it. Controversy will probably continue to rage in and out of parliament. There is no intention of giving the opinion of an individual, but there are certain things in relation to the new session, aside from the plebiscite, which directly affect the manpower issue. Canadians in this hour of crisis will be deeply interested in the measures proposed to extend national selective service to "effect the orderly and efficient employment of the men and women of Canada for the varied purposes of the war." The country was promised in the speech from the throne that measures would be adopted "to effect as complete as possible a mobilization of the material resources and manpower of the country in direct furtherance of the total national effort." These measures are not dependent on the plebiscite or its result. They will be adopted whether the result is "yes" or "no." It will be further very interesting to see whether the youth Canada, faced with a full appreciation of the danger that confronts their country, will be able to make the plebiscite more or less merely a form. It is at least something to hope for, both for those who are by age or disability prevented from bearing arms and by the many leave Canadians already holding the bastions of civilization and of freedom. Many people also sincerely wish that the plebiscite, with its unpleasant connotations, would be eliminated from the language. The hullabaloo, the noise, the less simple English word is covered with harnesses of bitterness and misinterpretation. The issue lies before the Canadian people is simply now to use most effectively the manpower so that this country may not become a vassal state to Germany and its people slaves to the Nazi overlords.

FAST TIME FOR ALL CANADA ON FEBRUARY 9th
The Canadian Government have under consideration an order to put Daylight Saving into effect all over Canada, commencing February 9th. The order is coincident with a similar order in the United States. At present in the majority of cities and in some towns, daylight saving time is operative. While it has always been within the power of municipalities to adopt Daylight Saving, the smaller communities have shied away from it, because it has never been popular with the farmers. Undoubtedly the new move will again meet with criticism from the farmers. As one stated to-day, "I wonder if the Government will also issue an order for the dew to dry an hour earlier in the morning."

How Rent Control Affects You — as a landlord as a tenant

As a part of the general plan to halt further increases in the Cost of Living, the Government on December 1, 1941, extended the policy of the Price Ceiling to rentals for all commercial and housing accommodation in Canada. Generally speaking the new rental laws provide that:

(1) No oral or written lease for any commercial or housing accommodation (furnished or unfurnished) may legally be made after October 11, 1941, at a rental higher than the rental lawfully payable under the lease in effect on that date unless an application for increased rental has been made to and approved by a local Rental Committee of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. Such an application must be based on specified circumstances arising since October 11, 1941.

(2) A tenant is entitled to a renewal of his lease unless the landlord requires the premises for certain reasons named in the Board's Rental Orders and has given the tenant a written notice to vacate within the time and in the manner prescribed therein. If this notice is vacated is contested by the tenant, the landlord must secure a Court Order for possession.

(3) Copies of all Rental Orders and Regulations of the Board and application forms for rental variations are available from any of the regional — sub-offices of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, and, in areas where such offices are not yet established, from the Clerk of any County or District Court or local Rentals Committee.

Violations of these orders are punishable by law and should be reported in writing to the Prices and Supply Representative Regional Office, Wartime Prices and Trade Board, at the nearest of any of the following cities: Vancouver, Edmonton, Regina, Winnipeg, Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa, Quebec, Saint John, Halifax or Charlottetown.

FEBRUARY MEETINGS FOR FARMERS

OPEN NEXT WEEK

Fisherville and Hagersville have been selected as the locations for the first two series of Farmers' Meetings under the auspices of the Hamilton County Federation of Agriculture. According to the announcement which has just been issued the first meeting will open at the Parish Hall, Fisherville on Tuesday afternoon, February 3rd. An evening session will also be held followed by afternoon and evening sessions on Wednesday.

The Hagersville meetings will be held in the Council Chambers on Thursday and Friday of the same week, February 5th and 6th, again with afternoon and evening sessions. The announcement is careful to stress that these are farmers' meetings sponsored by a farmers' organization and open for discussion at all times.

A list of the topics that may be under discussion include "Canada's responsibility in feeding the Empire and Haidland's Part in it." "Increasing Hog Production and Keeping Costs Down." "More Eggs from Haidland Flocks." "Community Organization, etc., etc."

Haidland Farmers have a very important part to play in Canada's War Effort and if they are to do that part efficiently and effectively and at the same time retain their status in the community they must study their situation carefully and by a complete organization present a solid front. Co-ordinated effort is needed.

Similar meetings will be held as follows: Chesapeake, Community Hall, February 10th and 11th; South Cayuga, Community Hall, February 12th and 13th; Canboro, Township Hall, February 14th and 15th; Inman Road, Community Hall, February 16th and 17th.

Church Notes

AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
The Gloria Missa Band will hold a devotional meeting on Friday at the Manse.

AT THE UNITED CHURCH
The Junior Band will meet on Saturday, at 2:30 P.M. at the Manse.

AT THE WESLEY CHURCH
The "Four Foundations of the New Order" will be the theme of the service on Sunday morning. They are: (1) The Value of Human Personality; (2) The Brotherhood of Man; (3) Camaraderie and Cooperation; (4) Human Well-being being the only Motive in Action.

Miss Laura Daniels of Hamilton, Ontario, will be the soloist. At the 7:30 service there will be a reception service for some prevented by storm from attending the last Communion Service.

The Minister will speak on "The High Privilege of Church Membership."

At the meeting of Wesley Township Board held in the Parsonage on Tuesday, January 27th, there were elected five new trustees: Earl Bousfield, Earl Marr, Thos. Reynolds, Earl Stallwood and George Walker. The Secretary, Mr. Joseph Jacques
