

Every fighting ship of Canada's ever-expanding Navy, seems to have a mascot of some kind. Many have dogs whose pedigree has long been forgotten like the pooch above. Subjected to all sorts of kindhearted rough and tumble treatment from the crew, they very often will never leave the ship when in port.

LESSON 37 Joseph Sold Into Slavery Genesis 37, 39-41
Printed Text, Genesis 37: 23-36 GOLDEN TEXT .- Love envi eth not. I Corinthians 13:4. THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING Time .- According to the commonly received chronology, Joseph became a slave in Potiphar's house in 1735 B.C., and suffered imprisonment 1725 B.C.

Place.-Joseph's home was in Hebron, in southern Palestine. He was sold into slavery at Dothan, thirteen miles north of Shechem, which itself was sixty miles from lebron. The capital of Egypt at this time, where most of Joseph's years were spent, was Zoan, the eastern part of the Nile Joseph Cast Into The Pit

23. "And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stripped Joseph of his coat, the coat of many colors hat was on him; 24. and they took him, and cast him into the pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it." The tank which Joseph's brethren cast him was apparently one of those uge reservoirs excavated by shepherds in the East, that they may have a supply of water for their flocks in the end of the dry season, when the running water fail them. Being so narrow at the mouth that they can be cov ered by a single stone, they gradually widen and form a large subterranean room; and the facility they thus afford for the confinement of prisoners was from the first too obvious not to be commonly taken advantage of. In such a place was Joseph left to

The Plot Against Joseph 25. "And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a caravan of Ishmaelites was com ing from Gilead, with their camels bearing spicery and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt. 26. And Judah said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we slay our brother and conceal his blood? 27. Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and not our hand be upon him for he is our brother, our flesh, And his brethren hearkened unto him." As these calloused, heartless men were sitting not far away from the pit, devouring the food brought by the faithful hands of Joseph from the father's home, they saw a band of Ishmaelite coming down upon them, and im mediately they agreed to profit by their treatment of Joseph, and sell him as a slave to these Egypt

Jacob Mourns For Joseph 28. "And there passed by Midianites, merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. And they brought Joseph into Egypt. 29. And Reuben re turned unto the pit: and, behold, Joseph was not in the pit; and he rent his clothes. 30. And he re turned unto his brethren, and said. The child is not: and I whither shall I go? 31. And they took Joseph'z coat, and killed a he-goat, and dipped the coat in the blood: 32, and they sent the coat of many colors, and they brought it to their father, and said, This have we found: know now whether it is thy son's coat said. It is my son's coat: an evi

They had to concoct a story to account for his disappearance, and it was as audacious and cruel a falsehood as was ever uttered by human lips.

Joseph Sold Into Egypt 86. "And the Midianites sold him into Egypt unto Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, the captain of the guard." Potiphar was literally 'captain of the slaughterers' that is, 'the chief officer of the executioners.' The migration of Israel into Egypt had become necessary for three reasons: (1) That they might not excite the hostility of the Canaanites before they were strong anough to rethey were strong enough to re-sist it. (2) That they might not adulterate their race and lose their distinctiveness by intermar-riage with the Canaanites. (3) That they might by contact with a highly civilized people receive an education in arts and a discipline by law and government such as there was little prospect of their receiving in Canaan. The Lord With Joseph

Joseph was the unconscious pioneer of this great movement The young slave filled his position to the very utmost of his powers and abilities and we are not surprised to learn that 'the Lord was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man.' How could he e prosperous as a slave? The explanation is that prosperity is not due to circumstances but to char-acter, and character in turn depends upon faithfulness to God.

His life soon became evident, for in some way or other his mas-ter observed that Joseph's powers must come from a Divine source. It is one of the finest results of true piety when those around us who may not be of our way o thinking, are enabled to see the reality of our life in our daily work and conduct.
