Even his mustache bristled as he answered one word. "None."

What About Subsidies?

I wanted his say-so on subsidies. You know us people back in the country are liable to think they help the big shot, and are designed for that purpose. He put me behind the eight-ball by saying this:

"As a matter of fact, subsidies are of relatively greater help to the little fellow than the big shot you speak of. The big fellow is generally in a stronger financial position, and could weather the estorms, but if subsidies were not paid to the little fellows they would be the first to fall by the wayside. Subsidies are paid and designed mainly for two purposes: one, to assure a stable cost of living and secondly to assure a supply of essential goods. These are handled in what can definitely be said in the interests of the entire population. They are paid in no case to increase profits, and the strictest accounting is made throughout."

True, some selfish interests appear from time to time, but we cannot permit any deviation in the policy laid down by the government. He was sure that the anti-inflation policy of the government has, at heart, the best long run interests of the wage earning class. To wreck that policy, or to make its administration impossible, is an act he considers one of self-destruction. Well, you readers out in the country can take it or leave it. aware that an organiza

But he is determined as long as he has anything to do with it, that to prove it can be done is not sufficient. The policy must be seen through. To do so, in his opinion, there can be no weakening on any one of five points, namely: the fiscal policy (money to you) calling for maximum taxation and borrowing; the price celling; salary and wage stabilization; control and rationing of supplies as found necessary, and the direction of manpower to essential uses.

essary, and the direction of manpower to essential uses.

Farmers and Inflation

And here I asked the question important to these articles. How about the belief among some that the farmers constitute the one group who could benefit from inflation? Here is his answer: "Those who hold this belief seldom advocate inflation openly but we hear it argued that under inflation agricultural prices would rise faster than the prices of goods or supplies needed for farm consumption. No one can say positively whether this would happen or not, and I fervently hope we never have the opportunity of finding out. We do know, however, that the last time the experiment was tried, in 1914-1920, everyone suffered eventually and farmers, I guess, the most heavily of all."

The Chairman feels we are not paying a heavy price to avoid the disaster of inflation. It takes only in his mind, teamwork and organization. And so I left him. "Twas i other boys on active service, you do something that will benefit you too. You save money. It's really a mistake to say that you "buy" a Victory Bond. You are not buying anything. You are saving money, and putting your savings where they will be absolutely safe, and where they earn money for you. (Each $100.00 Victory Bond earns $3.00 a year-3% interest.) You are likely producing more, and earning more. You can save more. You are not buying some things; you can't get them. You are buying less of many things-they're rationed. You can't help saving more. See to it that your savings are kept intact-earmarked for things you will need when the war ends. You will have to replace things that are worn out. You will want a lot of things. Money saved and invested in Victory Bonds will provide cash to pay for them.

WHAT IS A VICTORY BOND?

A VICTORY BOND is the promise of the Dominion of Canada to repay in cash the full face value of the Bond at the time stipulated, with half-yearly interest at the rate of 3% per annum until maturity.

A Victory Bond is the safest investment in Canada. The entire resources of the Dominion stand behind it. Canada has been issuing bonds for 75 years, and has never failed to pay every dollar of principal
