A. L. MILLER, Editor

THE PADRE FROM JARVIS

Of all the news coming out of Sicily in recent weeks, nothing has brought more pride to Jarvis citizens than the reports concerning our own United Church Minister, now "padre" Capt. S. B. Egan.

WARTIME CONTROLS

Wartime controls are beginning to wear on Canadians and people generally are straining to obtain more, and to spend more money on civilian goods.

HELP NEEDED

In advertisements released by the Ontario Farm Service this week, an appeal is being made to women who live in or near food processing centres to undertake to assist in canning factories for a few weeks commencing immediately.

unless women do undertake to do this work the volume of food processed will be greatly reduced beyond the needs of the men in the armed forces, without considering the needs on the home front.

THE SPORT PERSPECTIVE

In the period between the two Great Wars, the importance of sports participation in the community life of Canada's smaller centres went into a decline.

HEALTHY NEWS

In a letter to his mother, Mrs. Harold B. Winter, Capt. Henry Winter, asks her to assure the local Branch of the Red Cross that he has irreplaceable evidence that articles sent by the Branch overseas are being delivered to our soldiers.

The Weeklies Say...

THE SPIRIT THAT COUNTS
Production these days means more than just the implements of war, more than food for us and our allies. It means the spirit to win the war and secure the peace.

HOME FOR REPAIRS

Indications are a return of the peripatetic to sport. Games should be continued to displace by a few high-salaried specialists while thousands pay to watch and hundreds of thousands more stay home to time themselves should be played by the Old Country.

THEY WILL BOB UP

The comic opera type of officer has been pretty well eliminated from the armies of the United Nations, but the dramatic type of officer gets into a position where he can make a fool of himself.

HEALTHY NEWS

In a letter to his mother, Mrs. Harold B. Winter, Capt. Henry Winter, asks her to assure the local Branch of the Red Cross that he has irreplaceable evidence that articles sent by the Branch overseas are being delivered to our soldiers.

HELPING THE RED CROSS

Plans are under way to have a big public sale on Labor Day in the interests of the Red Cross, and housewives are being asked to start gathering up all useable articles which have escaped previous sales and salvage pick-ups.

THE HOME-TOWN PAPER

What do the folk back home think what could one answer to a question like that coming from boys keeping a conscientious watch on the sun-scorched, flea-infested sands of Sicily, where bomb and shell will take what is all that were left of a human being rarely left with the enemy.

PRIDE AND PATIOS

What do the folk back home think what could one answer to a question like that coming from boys keeping a conscientious watch on the sun-scorched, flea-infested sands of Sicily, where bomb and shell will take what is all that were left of a human being rarely left with the enemy.

MUST BE DIFFERENT

One phase of our post-war planning that must not be overlooked is the re-establishment of our service men. Although the National Council of the Canadian Legion has already launched a movement in this regard, local branches should consider conditions and possibilities closer to home and incorporate their suggestions to the general scheme.

WARTIME DUTIES HAVE MADE IT NECESSARY FOR GREYHOUND TO LIMIT ITS SERVICE IN WESTERN ONTARIO

In order to concentrate more buses in areas surrounding war industries, Greyhound service has been withdrawn temporarily from the territory east of London and St. Thomas. The big blue and white coaches which carried you to and fro until recently, now take war workers from their homes to factories making the tools that will put Hitler out of his misery.

Then they will be back—with the same efficient transportation, the same skilled drivers, and new and even finer equipment.
