Don't Be Afraid Of That Big Dog

He is Suspicious Of You Until He Knows Who You Are

Dogs are much like human beings and deserve to be treated with consideration and respect. Few dogs go out of their way to cause trouble but the point is that of any dog to be treated as a pest. A scolding, a yell, or a harsh word is a telling how to approach and handle dogs has been revealed by the Industrial Accident Prevention Association. The booklet was prepared by a noted dog fancier. The rules he makes should be valuable to such businesses as dairies, bakeries, laundries and gas companies, since all the latter are likely to be approached by a dog. Always let a dog know you are approaching by not being too quiet. Growls and barks are a challenge, accept them as such and show no alarm. Sudden or unexpected moves are likely to be misunderstood by a dog. Speak to strange dogs in a confident, friendly voice, not sharply or scoldingly. Always allow a dog to approach and let his nose aid him in forming his impression. A dog should not be pushed or pulled, but he should be allowed to sniff. A dog should be given a firm pat on the head. A dog should be given a firm pat on the head. A dog should be given a firm pat on the head.

A tree is a beautiful thing. It should not be destroyed if it happens to be two feet out of line with another tree. And don't destroy the little saplings around your farm. This them out for proper growth—or better still, transplant them. Take a long view of your home—try to see it as others see it. Write about your home—try to see it as others see it. SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

ISRAEL'S SIN AND RESTORATION—Exodus 22-24
PRINTED TEXT, Exodus 32: 7-10; 34: 4, 27, 28.

GOLDEN TEXT—Jehovah is slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, forgiving iniquity and transgression. Numbers 14:18.

Memory Verse: I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of Jehovah. Psalm 122:1.

THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING
Place—At the foot of Sinai.

And Jehovah spoke unto Moses, Go, get thee down; for thy people, that thou broughtest up out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves: they have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed unto it, and said, These are thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. No matter what excess some might offer for this crime the sinfulness of the act is clearly revealed in what God says about it. Our acts must be judged not by custom, nor by man's circumstances, nor by what great men say is right and wrong, but by the law of God as it is revealed in His Word to us.

"And Jehovah said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiff-necked people. This word 'stiff-necked' is generally explained as 'obstinate,' but rather means 'pervasive,' the metaphor being taken from the horse that stiffens his neck against the pull of the rein, and will not be guided by the rider.

Moses Pleads With God
"Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may be kindled against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation. What the Lord said Moses to do Moses did not do; the Lord told him to let him alone that he might destroy these people, though he would spare them. Moses and make of him a great nation. It is in an hour like this that God's glory is revealed, and the offer to make of Moses a great nation was immediately without hesitation, and went up unto Moses. Moses and make of him a great nation. It is in an hour like this that God's glory is revealed, and the offer to make of Moses a great nation was immediately without hesitation, and went up unto Moses.

Conducted by Flight Lieutenant Gladstone Hill, the Royal New Zealand Air Force Band contains sixty of our sister Commonwealth's most talented musicians. This fine band has arranged two concerts for Canadian listeners. It seems particularly appropriate that the Royal New Zealand Air Force Band should give a musical greeting to the people of Canada. The concert will feature Maori music, native to New Zealand, as well as the music of the band's own country. The offer to make of Moses a great nation was immediately without hesitation, and went up unto Moses.

WOUNDED SCOTS IN MIDDLE EAST BUILD MEMORIAL CHURCH

As a permanent memorial to Scottish soldiers who have fallen in action in the Middle East, wounded Scots in a rest camp near Geneva are building a reduced-scale reproduction of famed St. Andrew's Church of Scotland. Every stone is being quarried and laid by volunteer workers. As the church nears completion, the soldiers estimate that the total cost in cash will be only about $300. Only tile and hardware have been purchased. Nearly all the lumber has been salvaged from large war material crates and packing cases.
