IMMEDIATE WARNING
 A suggestion made by the Ottawa Better Business Bureau that Victory Bond-holders should be on their guard against irresponsible promoters deserves a wide hearing.
 War Bonds are rapidly becoming the average family's most important savings reservoir. The Bureau advises — these propositions will sound good. Thus, such investments and securities are always prime lures for racketeers, with their schemes for persuading people to cash in their bonds and turn the money over to them on irresponsible promises of getting rich quick.
 One thing is certain, the Bureau advises — these propositions will sound good.  In its submission to the special committee of the House of Commons on reconstruction and re-employment, the Canadian Pacific Railway has something to say on government control of transportation after the war. This:
 "It must be evident that there should be more complete regulation of highway transportation than existed before the war. It is not suggested that there should be restriction on sound economic growth of this or any other enterprise, but that the nature and direction of this growth should be so controlled that its full development would be encouraged without economic competition with other equally, in some

STILL IN THE FIELD

Former Premier, Mitchell F. Hepburn is again in the field for the coming election. He is running as an Independent Liberal in Egin.

To show his broad gauge mind, we cite a decision he made last week. The entrance board had met for Dunville and South Cayuga centres were ready. It has been the rule to hold every thing until the entire county results are in. But from an angle it seemed a regrettable bit of tape that the whole east end of the county should have to wait a week to find out the result of the examination. Mr. Hepburn's decision was to have the examination held on the first of August. He is running as an Independent Liberal in Egin.

The Letter Box

Dear Sirs:
 I received your three hundred cigarette again. Again, I say many thanks to you all. For I appreciate them very much. Sincerely,
 Mrs. Bartlett, J.
 Hello Gang:
 Received my three-hundred Buckingtons today and they are a real treat. Thanks to all at home who generally keep the fund going. I know that the boys over here are certainly very grateful. I haven't seen fortunate enough to contact any of them yet, but have been pretty fine. My wife has been part of the country but usually being busy with her work. Black night so we usually have time after hours (usually) to see the comrade and it has been grand. Kind regards to all.
 M. E. Jarrett.
 I received your cigarettes again this month. I want to thank you all very much. Cigarettes are hard to get over here and they are certainly appreciated.
 Mrs. Bartlett, J.

Men With Wings

On men with wings, I wish that I might fly you through the Heaven.
 I wish you daily in your planes
 Soar out across the Heavens blue
 I admire your courage, and your
 And wish that I were there with you.
 You take with you each time you fly
 A prayer from someone dear and true
 May Heaven protect you each time
 you fly
 In the loved ones dear
 to you.
 You fear not the darkness of the night
 As you forward, upward fly
 You fear not the battle and the strife
 For you are the champions of the sky.
 Oh men with wings and hearts so
 brave,
 You heard the trumpet call your name
 You for your country, your all you gave

George Drew as I know him
 By George W. James
 Bowmanville, Ontario
 An Ontario provincial election is to be held on August the fourth. A day's notice after the election. A day's notice after the election. A day's notice after the election.

The navigator thoughtfully sits there amidst his charts. Thinking. Intensely of that pun, beer, and darts. But there is a job to be done. To get there, that confounded Hun.

The bomber, that man of all trades, Who drops the things that blow them to Hades. He has the most victorious feeling, He sees the German cities go reeling.

The air gunner out in the tail, He sits and sings as the bullets wall. He sings with greatest joy, He has just had news. There's a baby boy!

These are the men together, alone That fight for the right to keep a home. That keep in mind that freedom creed. To fight for success, and to succeed. —W. H. Chesson

FLIGHT FANCY
 Oh give me the soul of a comet, And let me, up-flicking, dart free. To play, like the stars, 'tween the moonbeams, And challenge the thunders with glee.
 I want to be King of the Skyways And master the cyclone and storm— And order the winds to obey me; And roar across night to morn.
 On wings I'd fling death to destruction, And scatter the war clouds to Hell, The cease of my wild roaring engines, Wouldn't create until all was well.
GREEKS FIGHT FIERCELY
 London - (CP) - Picked young officers of the Greek Army are reported to be serving as privates in the Sacred Band, a commando unit which has carried the Greek standard all the way from Alamain into the fiercest of the Tunisian fighting.
