GOD'S EXCEEDING GREAT PROMISES—2 Peter 1: 1-11
GOLDEN TEXT.—He hath granted unto us his precious and exceeding great promises; that through these ye may become partakers of the divine nature. 2 Peter 1: 4.

Memory Verse: For thou, Jehovah, hast made me glad. Psalm 92: 4.

THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING
Time—The Apostle Peter wrote his Second Epistle in A.D. 65.

Place—We do not know from what place this epistle was written, and we probably never will be able to determine it.

The Galatians
Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ. To them that have obtained a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and the Saviour Jesus Christ. There can be no growth in the spiritual life unless there is a physical life preceding it. And there can be no physical life without the new birth. And the new birth comes as we obtain this precious faith.

Faithful Service
Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord. This is an apostolic salutation and is the way in which nearly all the epistles of the New Testament begin. The true knowledge of God can only come of faithful service.

Christian Faith

Fly Pests Menace Health Of Family

Early Action Urged to Ensure Effective Control
The season for flies—the common pestiferous, disease-carrying house fly—in upon us. Now at the very beginning of summer is the best time to destroy flies. Every fly killed now is as good as a million or more killed later on in the season. Calculators figure that the progeny of one pair of flies might equal five and a half billion by September if not interfered with in any way, and if breeding places were favorable.

Every radio announcer at some time or other gets into trouble with his listeners as he reads the news. In Wales there is a delightful little village bearing the name of the fly. It is a village of the Welsh Committee in the British House of Commons recently revealed that he didn't like the way BBC announcers pronounced the name of the fly.
