o-day, as always, the 'Salada' label is your guarantee of a uniform blend of fine quality teas.

subject to render it in the least legree interesting.

Next morning Khoda Khan Ab-

Vere-Vaughan's cell accompanied

"Sahib," whispered Khoda Khan azai, "let us talk fully and free-

, without deceit or double mean-ig. I will tell you the truth, and you, being a sahib, tell me the

"What do you mean-'save'

"Sahib, I left the regiment without leave, taking my rifle with me. What would it have availed ne to go to my home to meet my

Yes. Very heavy indeed. Desert ers and rifle thieves go to penal servitude. This Khoda Khan Abazai would be "for it" if he went "Well," he said, "if there is nothing else against you except deser-tion with your rifle-because you could not leave to go and do what matter of the feud-I am sure I be condoned if you put yourself

The Pathan eyed the English-

"Yes, I will take it upon myself to promise that you will not be punished for desertion with your "Absent without leave, eh, Sa-hib?" grinned the Pathan.

Pretty long absence and quite without leave, but I feel absolutely certain that we should get away with it in the circumstances. I expect you'd get a nominal punishment for being 'absent without leave,' and you'd have to complete your period of service, of course."

"Should I be reduced to the ranks?"

"In the circumstances I should "Lose my pension?"

"I should think not."
"But I might, mightn't I? Would the sahib make it up to me?"

"I will certainly undertake to pay you your pension for the rest of your life if through you I es-

"And what about the ransom, "Ransom? If you enable me to escape, I shall escape instead of being ransomed, shan't 1? You cape," replied Vere-Vaughan.

agreed Vere-Yaughan.

can promise that the offense would into the power of the British and into danger of punishment through trying to save a British officer."

back to British territ man anxiously.

turn to India."

"For what?"

TO THE HILT

CHAPTER V

Wall Dad yawned and stretched "Listen, Sahib," he said. "If yes the majority would rather have you held to ransom than put to death, I'll tell you something. don't know how much the Sirkar would pay the Malik to hand you but I do know what the Singing Hadji of Sufed Kot would pay." Vere-Vaughan's heart sank again.

For some reason, he hadn't thought Furning to Khoda Khan Abazai. Wali Dad bade him make it clear to the Sahib that unless the Mafik's party could get a majority on their side it was quite certain that he would very soon be sold to the Singing Hadji by the Malik, or else would fall into the Mullah's hands and be lucky if the Mullah put him to death.

This the ex-sepoy proceeded to do in colloquial Hindustani, and suddenly pausing he sneezed, said "Praise be to Allah," sneezed again, and said, "Thanks be to Allah," sneezed a third time and said English, "Ask for water," and con-

Unued the torrent of Hindustani. To say that Vere-Vaughan re-To say that vere-vaughan re-ceived a shock is to express but mildly the effect upon his weary and despondent mind of those three words swiftly and unmistakably spoken in his own tongue. It was not that there was any inherent improbability in an ex-sepoy knowing a little English. it was in his introducing the words thus quietly and surreptitiously. It meant almost certainly that the man wished to help him and befriend him. Vere-Vaughan glanced at Wali Dad, who was watching him somewhat listlessly and from time to time yawning and scratching him self. Apparently he had noticed you see, Sahib," concluded e better for you to do as Wali Dad says, otherwise save you and will not try." Vere-Vaughan turned to that he said. "I thought you Pathans were noble enemies. I thought you were fine fellows, and not just jungle savages. I have been here for hours and have had neither food nor drink. I am hungry and thirsty. Give me water."

Rising to his feet Wall Dad went to the door, threw it open Khoda Khan Abazai glanced wiftly towards the open door and then turned to Vere-Vaughan. "Sahib," he whispered. "Look . Be careful. Very bad peoples. Don't make angry. If Mullan getting you, burn you alive perhaps. break it. No good for you to . . "

ISSUE No. 21-43

Welcome Relief for SHARP, SEARING STOMACH PAINS

arrying water and a brass cup and he conversation continued with-ut the introduction of any new azai, bringing unleavened bread and a platter of cold rice, entered by another Pathan, a grim and si-Continued Next Week

Nazi Workers Feel Strain Of War

truth. I will make no promise that I cannot perform, nor promise me nything on behalf of others that "Be it so, Khoda Khan Abazai." replied Vere-Vaughan. "I will make no false promises, nor undertake to do anything that cannot or will | says. ot be done. If I promise on be-alf of the Sirkar or others, it | Nachrichten, reported that Dr. will be as if I paomise for myself. Robert Ley, German labor leader, Speak on."

"Sahib, I can save your life and labor front, had decided in favor get you to safety and freedom if of a shorter work day. Many you . . . if you . . . if you can . ."
"If I can make it worth your Germans have been working 12 to 14 hours, seven days a week. "Sahib, I can save you if you

Up to one-third the shipping "Why, if I get you away from space and one-fifth the weight here, I must go with you. My life are saved in shipping a carcass by boning it, separating it into by boning it, separating it into after helping you to escape, or if I stayed anywhere in the Free Country of the Border. I must repacking it in cartons. Formerly a whole side of full carcass was shipped. Now it becomes neces "Sahib, I do not wish to go to sary to simplify knives, conserve steel and meet a more than double requirement for cutlery.

enemy, unarmed? And it was months and months ere I could net, a stattle was once erected in honor of Michele Felice Corne slay him. And thereafter for months and months I had to hide is the first man known to have n my watchtower lest I be slain munched this vegetable, proving y his brother. And then it was to the world that the formerlyoo late to return. There it is. If I return to India I am liable to to be poisonous—was a wholetermed "love apple" - presumed arrest and punishment as a describer and rifle thief, and you know what the punishment would SHIRTFROCK SUCCESS

GARDEN

By Anne Adams Well-proportioned lines and a straightforward, assured air make this shirtwaister indispensable to matrons! It's Pattern 4341, by Anne Adams. The front buttoning is smart and convenient. The new shape of the collar may be accented with stitching. For color notes, try a contrast collar, belt and handkerchief.

should never be alowed to grow as they usually germinate. The same is true of flowers whose seeds to prevent that it is impossible to prevent their being planted too close. Carrots, berts leave to prevent their being planted too sw shape of the collar may be ceented with stitching. For color lotes, try a contrast collar, belt and handkerchief.

Pattern 4341 is available only in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 46. Size 36 takes 3% is true of flowers whose seeds are so fine that it is impossible to prevent their being planted too close. Carrots, betts, lettuce, etc. apart in the row, and the first harvest should take out every effect.

4341

TABLE TALKS NO MORE "DOSING" SADIE B. CHAMBERS MY CONSTIPATION SPRING QUICK DISHES -I'VE CORRECTED Now is the season when housewives are giving a good deal of THE CAUSE!

thought to time-saving dishes.

Housecleaning is the order of disorder of the day; and every one likes to spend as much time as possible in the garden. Try this menu. One of the attract tive features of it is that one

Noodle-Ham Casserole

Apple Strudel

The Noodle-Ham Casserole and for baking and the muffin batte mixed and placed in the muffin-pans. The dishes should be covered closely with paper or lids and the muffin pans wrapped in waxed paper to exclude the air.

oven in less than thirty minutes.

Set the table, toss together a simple salad and presto-dinner is

Noodle-Ham Casserole

1 teaspoon salt

teaspoon salt

1 tablespoon flour

% cup Rice Krispies

Dash paprika

1 tablespoon melter butter

Cook noodles in boiling water to which salt has been added.

Drain. Melt butter in saucepan.

Add flour and stock which may be made by dissolving 2 bouillon cubes in 2 cups boiling water.

Stir until thickened. Add salt and pepper. Dice ham and mix stock. Pour into casserole. Crush Rice Krispies over top. Sprinkle with melted butter. Add paprika.

Bake in moderately hot oven 20

1/2 teaspoons Calumet Baking

Blend shortening and sugar.

Add egg and beat well. Add

All-Bran and milk; let soak until Sift flour with salt and baking powder; add to first mixture and stir only until flour disaptwo-thirds full and bake in moderpears. Fill greased muffin pans ate oven about 30 minutes.

Apple Strudel

most of moisture is taken up.

All-Bran Muffins

2 tablespoons shortening

Yield-6 servings

1 cup All-Bran

1/4 cup sugar

% eup milk

's teaspoon pepper

2 eups stock

2 tablespoons butter

1/2 lb. fine noodles or macaroni

All Bran Muffins

"Regularity" is important any time, but it's vitally important in these busy war days when all of us are working harder than ever. Don't you be "slowed down" by that common type of constipation due to lack of "bulk" in your diet. And be sensible correct the trouble right at its . . . correct the trouble right at its source instead of "dosing" with harsh purgatives that give only temporary, dúctive in both vegetables and bloom, is regular, weekly cultivation. No heavy digging is nece sary but just once over, preferably after an evening rain, with a light cultivator. Of course one must wait until soil is dry.

Good Seed It is impossible to over-emphasize the importance of good seed. Other factors may be beyond control but the gardener has absolute er, soil and location may be ideal tions, the garden is going to be

Wild Silk West Africa is shipping all its children, to be set In short, he has rea vegetables. Often the difference between a really fine garden, pro | Man's Physical And Mental P

CHINA'S PRESIDENT

"Attack!"

Workmen Get

To eight workmen in a mant facturing plant in Gatineau, Que-bec, came the chance to offer their lives for others—an opportunity whose acceptance earned them bronze medals from the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission. One after the other, the men descended into a tank of wood-pulp, filled with the lethal fumes of hydrogen sulphide gas, in an effort to save a worker who had been overcome. There they worked until they, too, were he rescued.

st is that the Germans, e British, are no back-toighters. As long as there of victory they are as soldiers, and the skill essional military leadthem formidable enems soon as the odds turn and the chances of ade they are quick p their hands. That is ened in 1918. That is ening in North Afri at is what is likely to many again, despit ice in North Africa

WAR - WEEK - Commentary on Current Events

Germans, Unlike The British re No Back-To-The-Wall Fighters

ent that Prime Min- ate scale on the continent of Europe. Once again it has been demonstrated that war is not a mathematical but a human equation, and Serlin radio said Goebbels himself has admitted that German civilian morale is worse than German military mor-Mr. Roosevelt. ale at the front. the two leaders Second Lesson

The second lesson, long a military axiom, which has been prov-ed again in North Africa, is that attack is far more promising and less costly than defense. According to London estimates, the Afe Mr. Churchili rican campaign has cost the Axis more than 750,000 men and enormthe invasion of ous quantities of material. The Allied losses are mere fractions of this bare land of rock and dwarf ary mapped the this terrific toll, and in the last phases of the campaign, counting hard to express, but this dialogue prisoners, they appear to be less

al Axis surrend

Never was there re eloquent states-Churchill during this moment. Is

nday, the third an to contribute to could read what had been abusing the innocent, be-zed that people still

. There was no

Russia. Decided

good news from liers weren't having German civilians a good time. Al-bombing is for ex-nany's towns, mar-

, had carried the villages." that Adolf Hitler

the German people. of sufferings and

He may feel better

nad earned them the on't think he will do ons of Tunisia even next Monday feature of the Allied quick collapse of ing morale once the last smashing blows re will be no Dunkerque grad either. Though still uned and equipped, the are surrendering in ded Elite Guards, put they carry out Hit ut keep the food. The escape that cheaply.

frica Corps, the flower

erman Army, veterans of e victories of the past, picked and conditioned warfare. But in the fin-he best specimens of the race" show up no better alians whom they used

And therein lie some lessons for the further s and fight to the "last gone: the troops burn

Allied prisoners readily guns over to their pris and their generals

nies march in full he prison stockades o good news from

The last and final lesson is ob-vious from the first two. Coming on top of Stalingrad, the Axis catastrophe in Africa has shaken all Europe, causing great concern within the Axis Powers and their new resistance among their vic-tural advantage of attack, makes it imperative that the African victory should be followed up as quickly as possible with equally pean "fortress" before the impact of this victory has worn off. Any delay will permit Hitler to steady his ranks and make a later attack more costly. The watchword of the Allies must still be the one sounded by Lieut. Gen. McNarney, deputy chief of staff of the Army. at the beginning of this year

Heroism Medals

THE BOOK SHELF

By P. G. Downes This is the story of one man's adventuring in the unchartered wilds of the Canadian Northwest -poling and shooting treachero rapids that might continue into eternity for all he know, packing canoe and loads over rocky, mile-long portages, blinded and staggering, spinning out yarns of the North country with trappers and traders gathered around the stove in remote Hudson's Bay Company posts, visiting with old friends among Indians and Eskimos rane River, and then over a to across a chain of lakes to Nueltin. the great Lake of the Sleeping Islands, known still to only a between a Dog-Rib Indian and a whiteman's Heaven? "Tell me, Father, is it like the ice has left the lakes? Are the hills covered with flowers? There will I see the caribou everywhere I look? Are the lakes blue with the sky of summer? Is every net full of great, fat whitefish? Is there room for me in this land. I camp anywhere and not find Can I feel the wind and be like the wind? Father, if your Heaven is not all these, leave me alone in my land, the land of the little SLEEPING ISLAND ... By P.

That Canada's 1943 Food Production Drive Will Be Greatest in Our History.

As definitely as though we were managing some of the equipment behind Montgomery's army, Canada's agricultural army, in this fourth year of the war, will be a link in the war offensives with which the United Natiors hope this spring and summer to The perspective for Canada's 1943 "on to the land" campaign is quite in keeping with the mon-ster military, aerial and naval offensives planned for Europe, Africa and Australasia, for, like ada's food production drive will be the greatest in our history.

20% Cyerall Increase Swelling the ranks of the farmer folk, who, in this, as in the previous world war, give allout effort for Victory production of food will be scares of thousands of men and women, boys and girls, from towns and villages, factories, offices and workshops, schools and colleges. There is a which farmers throughout the

BY MOLLY O'DALE

mestic needs

which one always thinks of in association. Who, for instance, can pronounce the words "Cornhydration results in reducing the can pronounce the words "Corn-ed Beef" without instinctively and eggs is another. Still another is Crackers and Cheese-one of the most universally popular diet ombinations on the North Amer-

Two factors account for the high caloric value of Biscuits and Soda Crackers. First—their composition which includes wheat, shortening, eggs, milk and other

FUNNY BUSINESS

"You've certainly got the idea, girls! Since that war plant has started its night shift, your egg output has doubled!"

tion mapped out for this impending national effort. An overall increase of about 20 per cent increase of about 20 per cent. is the rough objective, but the inthe rough objective, but the increases vary in different items.

The chief item for which increased production is sought in 1943 is hogs—from 6,250,000 in 1942 to 8,000,000 in 1943, or 28 per cent. This formidable in the armed forces shall receive the initial call on the food supplies of the nation. Secondly, that the civilian population shall receive a reasonable amount of the food available; and, thirdly, that British food contract requirements prisoners of war nareals. per cent. This formidable increase is necessary to meet not only British demand for 675 million pounds of Canadian bacon this year-75 million pounds more than last year-but our own do-

"Grow All You Can" A number of special field crops, such as fibre flax, soybeans and Women Tackle sugar beets, are wanted in much larger quantities, while the 1943 objective in eggs is 29 per cent. higher than in 1942 and a 10 cent. in milk production.

While the schedule has been systematized down to a statistical basis such as is indicated in the above few items, the stated objectives are only relative. The inabove few items, the stated objectives are only relative. The injunction to everyone, whether big farmers or merely Victory gar-deners in the backyard, is, "Grow

Farmers Endorse Policy

weight. How dry this is can be seen from the fact that fresh bread contains 36% moisture! In a nutshell, a good Soda Cracker in giving the Soda Crackers a most agreeable taste so that they can be eaten with enjoyment just as you take them out of the package. But usually they are most enjoyed when lightly but-a high caloric intake, but also take care of the body's require-

This dehydration

CRACKERS 'N' CHEESE!

There are certain food items | nutritive food products. Second

And there's a real scientific basis for the popularity of crack-ers and cheese. Soda Crackers rank second only to butter in caloric value, and cheese stands in third place. So, when you but-ter a crisp soda cracker and eat in third place. So, when you but-ter a crisp soda cracker and eat it with a bit of cheese, you are, whether you care or not, eating the three food items which pos-sess the largest number of calories to the pound. Two factors account for the ments, prisoners of war parcels, dependent countries, such as New-foundland and the West Indies. ships' stores and the armed forces of the United States in Canada shall receive food supplies to the utmost of Canada's ability to sup

Big Army Jobs

The British Women's Service in the Middle East are 'ver per cent. increese in poultry. The flexible program prepared envistrucks, and driving tractors heavy vehicles of that kind. The to delivery stations, ready for collection by the army men who take them on from there."

LIFE'S LIKE THAT

By Fred Neher

By GENE BYRNES

REG'LAR FELLERS-A Private Army

VOICE PRESS

STRETCH YOUR DOLLARS no left-overs. It is surprising the amount of good food which finds its way into the garbare can. Measure everything carefully. When you cook a meal for four people have enough for four—not for five or six, as is frequently the case. The difference is usual-Create your own cost of living bonus with profit to yourself and the country as well, it can be

-Stratford Beacon-Herald.

WE HELP OUT THE U.S. Canada is reported to be manufacturing $4,000,000,000 worth of That ought to make some of our neighbors reglize that there is more to this country than wheat fields, snow-clad mountains, great areas of woodland, fur-trappers, Mounted Policemen and Dionne Brockville Recorder and Times.

LONG AGO In our innocence, we used to think that a ceiling was that thing that when you were "doing over" a room the paper kept falling down around your neck and you wound up by whitewashing it. WHAT ABOUT CRABBIEST?

"The life span of a crab is 20 years," according to a scientist. The professor is off the beam: been crabbing much longer than that, and is crabbier now than ever he was.

REALISTIC Suggestion for Mr. Ilsley: At Twin Falls, Idado, a sign greeting

-Ottawa Citizen.

office reads, "What are you crying about? Nobody's shooting at -Brantford Expositor.

SHORTAGECAKE? "Ontario Strawberry Growers Ask Higher Prices." What are we going to call it this year—short-agecake? -Windsor Star

WHERE ECONOMY IS RIFE considered any hardship in Scot-

Washing Rag Mats

will remain clean longer if it doing this it will also stay in a

BETTER CIGARETTES

EXTRA MILD

You've either got to befriend me, help me to escape, and expect as your reward a pardon for pas in with the Malik of Kurnai as an enemy of the British and a murferer who says he won't commi paid sufficiently. Can't you see a difference between a reward and a ransom? If the only way of saving me is by paying the Singing Hadji, then he will be paid and that will be a ransom. If you like out any bargaining, and succeed, you'll get a reward, which is a very different thing." "Weli, we have a proverb which Your reward for saving me would tealing and, whatever else hapthe Sirkar does not pay it, I will, day I get down to Peshawar. That's

The physical and mental strain of four years of war are cutting the efficiency of German wor ers so sharply that some Nazi

The dispatch, to the Basler

Shipping Meat

To A Hero

In Newport, R. I., says Coro--because he ate a tomato! Corne

N.B. - If sour or buttermilk used instead of sweet milk use teaspoon soda and 1 teaspoon Yield-12 small muffins. Line a buttered baking dish vith Kellogg's Corn Flakes, Cover with layer of very thinly sliced cooking apples. Sprinkle with light brown sugar, a little cinnamon and dot with pieces of butter. Fill to top with alternative layers, finishing with Corn Flakes. Cover dish closely; bake in a moderate oven until apples are soft. Serve with cream.

Once the garden, both vegetable and flower, is fully planted late care will be principally cultivation and dusting or spraying against pests, and thinning and staking. One can hardly over-emphasize the importance of thinning. Those small seeded vegetables like lettuce, carrots and beets, for instance, should never be allowed to grow as In women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46. Size 36 takes 37% yards 35-inch fabric.

Send twenty cents (20c) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this Anne Adams pattern to Room 421, 73 Adelaide St. West, Toronto. Write plainly size, name, address and style number.

apart in the row, and the first harvest should take out every other room. With flowers, give at least plant as they will finally grow. Cultivation, too, is vital, not only for keeping down weeds but for pushing growthe of those says the same of the control of

As a tribute to the men who "go down to the sea in ships", Gutta Percha have issued a

FOUNDED IN 1883

COPY ARRIVES - PRINT PLAINLY)

GUTTA PERCHA & RUBBER, LTD.

160 West Lodge Avenue, Toronto, Canada e send me a free copy of your bookie. ps' Badges of His Majesty's Royal Navies".

16 PAGE BOOKLET IN 7 COLOURS ILLUSTRATING 121 General Care BADGES OF THE FIGHTING SHIPS OF HIS MAJESTY'S RO /AL NAVIES. Also shown are the sleeve marking: and shoulder straps indicating the rank of Naval Officers and Silhaueties of British Naval Vessels. We will gladly send you a copy of this booklet. Just drop us a note or fill in and muil the coupon butter. GUTTA PERCHA & RUBBER, LIMITED THE LARGEST ALL-CANADIAN RUBBER COMPANY

First Lesson