A FARM WIFE CHATS TO WOMEN

If you ever find yourself taking part in a quiz program and the question is asked: "What are farm?" take it from me, you swering: "Hens and chickens!" I am sure anyone who lives or a farm will agree with me but hose who don't may wonder why Well, I'll tell you. . . . Hens and chickens absolutely refuse to co-operate when you try to make them more comfortable. They will come back again and again to the first home they can shut them out and chase them off to the nice new airy pen you have prepared for them and half an hour they will all be back to the brooder house, squatting around outside if they can't get inside. Several weeks ago when our brooder house became too crowded we took the roosters away and put them in another pen. Partner said, "I guess if we keep them shut up for a day or two and then let them out again they will go back all right." But I gave a disgusted sort of grunt in anticipation of what I was sure would happen. And it did.

After a week we let the roosters out and that night every last one of them was back in the the run of the farm for a while.

So we let the hens out. Did they go back to their pen at night? Woll, about half of them. The others went to roost all over the

"Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a sabbath unto Jehovah thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy stranger nor the stranger that is within thy gates." While we faithfully reserve the Lord's Day for worship and rest we must also not compel others to work on the sabbath day. Sabbath and the Creation

"For in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested on the seventh day: wherefore Jehovah blessed the sabbath day, and hal-lowed it." The sabbath is separated from other days and should be a day of joy and gladness, of rest and refreshment for body, mind and soul. Joy in the Sabbath

"If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day, and call the sabbath a delight, and the holy of Jehovah honorable; and shalt honor it, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words." We are to seek and do God's pleasure, not our own, on His day. We should seek the good of others, not our own. We are to speak His word, not our own, for the day should be used for His glory, not for self glory. God's Promises

"Then shalt thou delight thyself in Jehovah; and I will make thee to ride upon the high places of the earth; and I will feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of Jehovah hath spoken it." If we delight to do God's bidding and observe

They would much rather sleep on the floor than on the roosts. After the roosters had been taken away there was plenty of room for all the pullets to roost in comfort. But would they do it?
