

This delicious cereal—it's grand tasting in muffins, too—keeps thousands regular, naturally . stops their trouble "before it starts". Try this pleasant plan. Eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN every day . drink plenty of water . and see why it's called a "better way". Your favorite grocer has ALL-BRAN in two convenient sizes. Made by Kellogg's in London, Canada.

Chimnai and his gang had taken refuge there. Well, once again, have you anything to say before

I put you under arrest?"
"I can only say, sir, that I cannot understand what has hap-

of the sort, I swear."

fellow.

CHAPTER XXII pened. I can't tell—"
"I can, though. I can tell you It was Vere-Vaughan's turn to stare open-mouthed. "But . . . exactly what happened. You got away from Sufed Kot with Major but . . . there must be some wouldn't write that. He helped me to escape."
"I'm sure he did. Succeeded away all right -- but you were followed and the whole of your lot were scuppered, all except too. Got you into the best place for you, moreover. Very clever. Heard of some of his coups be fore. . . . Well, we've got you all right. . . . Now then, what became of the other men - those that Major Hazelrigg must have sent you off with-his own men,

"Why, I . . . I brought them in here, sir. They are here in the fort." "Oh, are they? Well, my in formation is that they are not. The information I have just re-ceived from Mr. MacIntyre is that you've brought into this for ON YOUR OWN PERSONAL ANTEE, a collection of the biggest scoundrels, outlaws, agita-tors, terrorists and most dangerous enemies we've got."

"You are looking after them, I suppose?" he interrupted himself, turning to MacIntyre. better speak to you before putting them under arrest, but I turned out the guard and told the sergeant to see they keep as they are, lying down where they are until I came back." Colonel Garstan stared at the paper in front of him and then at Vere-Vaughan.

"Anything to say before I put you under arrest?" he asked. "But I . . . I . . . I don't unde stand, sir. Major Hazelrigg, disguised as a aPthan, came into the cell where I was imprisoned and said that these people were all right nad that they'd get me to Giltraza Fort, and that he'd give me a note to you which he would

"Quite so," smiled Colonel Garstan unpleasantly. important message for you about the Hadji of Turangzai and the Singing Hadji of Sufed Kot, and escort were good fellows who of reward-would see me safe here. I promised one of them a

"And all the rest of it," interrupted Colonel Garstan. "And you actually mean to tell me that Major Hazelrigg, who has spent most of his service on the Border here disguised as a Pathan, didn't the man he has been after for

"Of course he knew them all," continued Garstan, "and I haven't the slightest doubt that he was in Sufed Kot simply because

THEY LIKE IT AND DIE

Khan, was my agent, so to speak, in the matter, and they must deal with him. I've no doubt he bribed them with all sorts of promises and encouraged the be-lief that there would be a big ransom to divide."

"And you mean to tell me that you believed all this?" asked

Colonel Garstan.
"I'm telling you everything "I'm telling you everything exactly as it happened, sir," replied Vere-Vaughan. "I hadn't implicit faith in any of them—unless it were Khoda Khan, who had been a Sepoy and seemed a good chap, and ni Wali Dad—until I found that every one of them was willing to take the most solemn oath with the Koran in his hand, that they would get me safely here. I believed it was all right, sir, and just before I got away I was quite sure it was." "Why?"

"Because Major Hazelrigg himself guaranteed the men and told me that with any luck I should reach Giltraza Fort safely, and that I was to tell you that he was in the Sufed Kot country, and give you a message. I can't understand it, sir."

away from Sufed Kot with Major Hazelrigg's help AND with some of our people, his agents. You got to it with the outlaws. And one has to admit that Usman Shah was able to clear away any lingering doubt that might have remained in what we must call you, by Chimnai and the rest. And they gave you the choice of Garstan's mind.
From the door of a disused having your throat cut or coming here with them. Isn't that it? Something of that sort?" storeroom that happened to be empty and that had been allotted "No, sir. Absolutely nothing to Vere-Vaughan's friends, Usman Shah suddenly whispered "Chimnai!" And Chimnai, doubtless thinking it was one of Colonel Garstan rose to his feet. "Well, you are under arthe band, promptly answered, "What's up? Who is it?" rest. I'll see to you when I come back. I'm now going to handcuff "It's I, Usman Shah. Don't you your friends—whom you guaran-teed and brought in here with remember me, Chimnai? I recog-nized you at once. What do I their rifles loaded. Before I do get if I don't betray you, Chim-nai? What do I get if I help so, are you disposed to—er—give me any help?" you?"

"Come in here," whispered "I'll give you every possible doorway, Garstan told Chimnai

to come out. And on Chimnai's

a gentleman, that he'd hang him

of old, called Mahazil, and answering to the name of Mahazil

Yes, Usman Shah had not been

Chimnai, as would any Pathan

Chimnai.

"No fear," replied Usman Shah. "Not I. You come out here, Chimnai, if you want to help I can ,sir. Why shouldn't I? I can't understand . . . I . . . And the stout Garstan with his one-way mind, his forthright talk business."
And out crept Chimnai, to find simple and honest stupidity, stood for a moment staring at Verea powerful electric torch turned on him, and to see Colonel Gar-Vaughan in deep thought, an un-wonted exercise for the good stan, revolver in hand and a business-like firing squad standing at the ready.

"Hands up, Chimnai! Quick!" "What puzzles me." said heand the whole thing puzzled him ordered Garstan, raising his re-volver. Chimnai, who had escappretty nearly to death-"is why you didn't give the show away (their show, of course I mean) ed out of that sort of fix before, directly you were in this room, in safety." put them up and was promptly seized by half a dozen hearties who had been waiting on either side of the doorway.

After waiting a few minutes

at dawn.

Poor young Vere-Vaughan's face lit up.
"But of course, sir! If I had thought my only way of getting a score of rifles pointing at the safe in here was to come in with these men, and I had done such I to call to Mahazil and tell him a cowardly, foul, fool thing, shouldn't I round on them the taking no notice of the order, he moment I was safe?" promised him faithfully, on his "Aye," murmured MacIntyre. word of honor as an officer and nodding his wise head. "Well, you didn't, anyway," snapped Garstan.

"Oh, God," protested Vere-Vaughan, "of course I didn't! Because I never was in any dana man came out and was promptger from them. I tell you, sir, | ly seized. they are my friends. They have helped me to escape. We have helped me to escape. We had a running fight more or less the whole way, three parts of the whole them doing rear-guard action Hadji of Sufed Kot, to come while I pushed on with the out," said Garstan, "and just "Look here, Vere-Vaughan," twenty rifles. And that the surreplied Garstan, "Here's the test. vviors, if any, will be hanged in Do you give me your word of about an hour's time. And you honor as an officer and a gentlewith 'em." man that you know each one of these men to be-an enemy of the Singing Hadji of Sufed Kot have done in like circumstances, and a friend of the Sirkar? Do you guarantee that they are all did his best to save his own hide. escaping from Sufed Kot and leaving his quarters Garstan had genuinely taking refuge in this fort? And with no other object got the lot of them trussed up. Well, there it was, and Garstan being Garstan, what followed or hope but to get safe across the Border before the Singing Hadji catches them?" was inevitable.

"YES, SIR, I DO," replied Vere-Vaughan immediately. "I guarantee that Wali Dad, the leader, comes from Kurnai; that he was the leader of the men who caught me when the plane crashed, saved me then, as long ago as that, from being killed by the followers of the Mullah of Kurnai and took me to the Malik. In the end the Mullah of Kurnai would to the Singing Hadji, but Wali Dad was in charge of me and more or less prevented me from being put to death, protected me ooth on the way and at Kurnai.

"Then, while I was in Kurnai, expecting to be handed over for the Hadji to cut my throat at any moment, Wali Dad brought another man with him, Khoda Khan Abazai, when he brought my food one night. This man ad-deserter from the Indian army and wanted to go back and asked if I would do my best for him if he helped me to escape. Of course I said I would, and bargained with him. Then he and Wali Dad got to work and no doubt promised all sorts of things to friends of theirs whom they knew could be induced to come in with them. They all wanted nitted that he was an unwilling have got me and handed me over

(Continued Next Week) Night Fliers

Some U. S. Army carrier pigeons become night fliers, after being reared in darkened mobile lofts and given their first flights in early dawn.

LOUSY CHICKENS Get the BLACK LEAF 40! For lice and feather mites, Black Leaf 40 is outstanding. Apply with ing to directions. The fumes pass under the feathers of the roosting fowls and kill the pests. Also Kills Garden Insects hopper, young sucking bugs, lace bug, mealy bug and similar insects, took the line that this man, Khoda | Queen Elizabeth Defends Porridge Her Majesty Also Has A Good Word For Potatoes

James Maxton, the outspoker radical in the British Parliament, started something when he said that oatmeal porridge was a that oatmeal porringe swindle as far as nutritional value was concerned, declares the Winnipeg Free Press. The defence came appropriately from Tom Johnston, Secretary of State for Scotland, who asserted the high value of porridge because of its content of vitamins, carbohydrates and fats.

Then Queen Elizbeth rallied to the cause and told a group of Scot-tish girls that Scots were coming again to the traditional nutritious foodstuffs—calmeal porridge and and some of the new-fangled food products leave much to be desired. Many witnesses would testify as to the energy producing quality of oatmeal, but there can be too much of any good thing, and the juniors are right in demanding a petatoes, also. The Irish always knew their value, and with the new attention now given to nutrition, that common article of diet has an assured position - with should be served.

SADIE B. CHAMBERS

A CHAT ON PICKLES The homemaker and the good provider of the family has always considered late August and September as the time when she fruit storage and mentally for her family's requirements. about the sugar?" especially as the subject of pickles is mentioned. Do not be discouraged. Many pickle ventures are successful with little or no sugar and maybe you might make some of them your special favorites until our supply of sugar is once again back to normal. not found wanting, so I am passing it on to you,-Mixed Pickle (Using Saccharine) 1/2 cup sait 1 teaspoon powdered saccharine 2 tablespoons white mustard

2 tablespoons dry tumeric teaspoon cavenne teaspoon curry powder t cun corn syrun 8 cups cold vinegar (if strong, diluted)

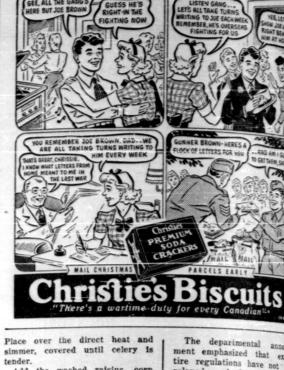

8 good-sized cucumbers 10 small green tomatoes 6 small onions 1 cup chopped celery Combine dry ingredients very thoroughly. Mix to a smooth paste with one cup of vinegar. Add the corn syrup and rest of the vine gar. Place this dressing in large out," said Garstan, "and just If you have not the celery add a the dressing in the crock and com place and stir twice a day for tw

> 6 cups finely chopped celery 4 cups chopped apple 6 green peppers 6 sweet red peppers tablespoon salt ½ lb. seedless raisins cups corn syrup 2 cups cider vinegar (diluted) ½ cup water 2 sticks of cinnamor

Wash celery thoroughly, and chop fine. Combine with the apples which have been pared and ored, then put through the chopper, (medium knife). Combine celery, apples and peppers. Mix well and then mix in the salt.

HOW YOUNG CANADIANS

CAN HELP TO WIN THE WAR

syrup, vinegar, and broken cin-namon sticks (in a cloth). Simmer uncovered for 15 minutes. Remove the cinnamon and simmer another 20 minutes. Pour into hot sterile

Miss Chambers welcomes personal letters from interested renders. She is pleased to receive suggestions on topics for her column, and is always ready to listen to your "pet peeves." Requests for recipes or special menus are in order. Address your letters to "Miss Sadie B. Chambers, 73 West Adelaide St., Toronio." Send stamped self-addressed envelope if you wish a reply.

Synthetic Tires For Sale In Canada The Munitions Department an-

nourced last week that under tire-rationing regulations pas-senger car tires made of synthetic rubber imported from the United States will be released for sale immediately, and that man-ufacture of the synthetic tires than 1,500 seriously injured has already begun in Canada.

shown that synthetic rub not as tough as natural m

the new synthetic tires the with great care." Cars equipped with the tires should not be driven nore than 35 miles an hour, Williamson added. Inflation sures should be checked at ! once weekly.

tires will be available only the announcement said, now be discontinued. Only lim quantities of synthetic tires be manufactured, and they be sold by tire ration permit.

FOR YEAR'S FINAL PICNIC

Take to the backyard or the nearest picnic grounds for a falling at open air sunshine, nature—and food that's fun! The standbys are the best drawing cards, salads, pickles, hardboll pie or layer cake.

But with your sandwiches why not include something delicious, freshly made, crunchy All-Bran Rolls? The rich, taste of bran enhances the flavor of any spread you choos something new in hamburgers. So simple to make, too. the recipe!

½ cup shortening 1/4 cup sugar 2 cups All-Bran 2 teaspoons salt

1 cup lukewarm water Put shortening, sugar, All-Bran and salt in la add boiling water and stir until shortening is until mixture is lukewarm. Add well-beaten eggs and ye in lukewarm water. Add half the flour and beat until remaining flour, mix well. Let rise until double in lown. Form balls of dough to fill greased full. Let rise in a warm place about two hours bulk. Bake in a moderately hot oven (425° F.) Yield: 4 dozen rolls (2½-inch diameter). Note—After flour is added this dough may refrigerator, and rolls formed, allowed to rise and bak

U.S. GOLF ASSOCIATION ALLOWS GOLFERS TO 72,000,000,000

WITHOUT PENALT IF LIGHTNING GETS 700 CLOSE FOR COMFORT

ANSWER: Approximately 2,000,000,000.

A FARM WIFE

se you ever tried putting a | ter way than to invest what we hundred sparrows to bed? can save in Victory Bonds—but
Well, that's what I've been we should beware of getting so and it's quite a job. You | far into the woods that we cannot see the trees. There is a happy medium in saving just as happened this way. Along wall by our front door we there is in spending. To deny vigorous growth of Virourselves a little pleasure for the sake of a mythical future is creeper. I was years getfalse economy—and it is not so hard to find as might be supup the wall. And at last the posed. A weary farm-wife takes a day off to visit her new grand-child and comes back with a new for the last three or takes in a nearby auction sale and, in hob-nobbing with his neighbors, realizes that his is not the only poor crop in the district. has proved to be a regufor all the sparrows in ood. One has only side our front door rds fly out by the hunually mean that lozen, or the score, scribe the situation at like the mess - the are absolutely plastered. to have Virginia creeper

-at least not yetsame evening I worked the garden in order to They came back all right, large numbers then I fixed them. I armed a clothes prop and creeper with it each came back to roost. ng as I stayed near the steps was sit on the eavesh and watch for an opporto fly to their hiding place. no more than disapwere back again in But I stayed around > much a part of his that the time and abilenjoying his hard-won the how to relax. The not save for the future esent there is no bet-

One can imagine night in some nearby rrows to hed. at we have longed for on something we want omes true we find it leasure up at all to our ns. For instance, we people so obsessed with man, wearing gloves, found the queen bee-whom he bore off, followed by the rest of the colony. The ground crew patched up the fabric and a few hours later the bomber took off for Cologne. POP-Formerly of WPA of saving up for the they get no pleasure the person dies while ng, or else he retires, find that hard work has

SPINNER SUNSHADE

Kidnaps Queen Bee From R.A.F. Bomber

broadcast there is

zest for life; friend husband

As for the homes where there are still small children, it takes so little to make them happy, the dear wee souls. A little extra attention from Mother - a new dress for a doll; a bright coat of

It happened on an airfield in It happened on an airfield in Britain. Working on a giant Halifax bomber at its dispersal point, the ground crew suddenly heard a strange buzzing noise, and saw a great procession of bees enterin, and leaving a small hole in the tail of the plane.

The Halifax was due to bomb Germany that night, bees or no bees. A frantic search throughout the district ens ed until a local clergyman was discovered who said he could handle the unwelcome passengers. Gingerly the ground crew stripped part of the fabric off the tail, and the clergyshall hearken dilige y commandments which I com nand you this day, to love Jehovah your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, that I will give the rain of your land in its season, the former rain and the latter rain, tha thou mayest gather in thy grain and thy new wine, and thine And I will give grass in thy fields for thy cattle, and thou shalt eat and be full."

SUNDAY

SCHOOL

LESSON

SEPTEMBER 26 ABIDING VALUES FROM

ISRAEL'S HISTORY

uteronomy 1-3, 11 PRINTED TEXT, Deuteron 11:13-25 GOLDEN TEXT - Righted

ess exalteth a nation; but sin is reproach to any people. Pro

Memory Verse: He hath made

THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING

Place.-That part of the Jordan Valley which was immedi-ately north of the Red Sea and

Obedience To God

"And it shall come to pass,

cclesiastes 3:11.

elow the Dead Sea.

erything beautiful in its time.

God is concerned with the physical welfare, the material pro perity, of His people. God does not desire His own chosen people to live in constant hardship, nor any nation that follows Him to have to suffer long years of poverty or famine. What God firs wants is the heart to be yielded to Him, and then all the things that man can desire will God lovingly bestow. Warning About Idolatry "Take heed to yourselves, lest your heart be deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; and the anger of Jehoval be kindled against you and he shut up the heavens, so that there shall be no rain, and the land shall not yield its fruit; and ye perish quickly from off the good land which Jehovah giveth you."

The heart is the citadel of the whole moral being, and so long as it is kept for the Lord, the enemy can gain no advantage; but when once it is surrendered, all is really gone-there is the turning aside - other gods are served and worshipped.
"Teach Thy Children"

"Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in .our soul; and ye shall bind them for a sign upon your hand, and they shall be for frontlets between your eyes. And ye shall

WARRIOR OF DIEPPE AND KISKA

Under a hail of steel and fire, on the beaches of Dieppe, Lieut.-Col. Dollard Menard, D.S.O., officer commanding Les Fusiliers Mont-Royal, fought gallantly, was wounded five times in as many hours, covered the re-embarkation of his men and fainted as he was carried back on a landing barge. Regaining consciousness he organized the anti-aircraft defense of the barge, lying flat on his back. In the recent invasion of Kiska by Canadian and American troops Col. Menard commanded the Hull Regiment of Quebec. This drawing by Hubert Rogers, depicting the scenes of Dieppe appears on the latest poster in the National Film Board's "Men of Valor" series.

teach them your children, talking of them, when thou sittest in thy house, and upon thy gates; that the days of your children, in the land which Jehovah sware unto your fathers to give them, as the Obedience to the law of God does not come naturally to fallen man. Man's tendency is downward, not upward; away from God, not toward God. Man must be continually reminded of the laws and commandments and will of God, or else he will forget them and live in disobedience to them. Therefore the Israelites are told that they should first lay up the words of the law of God in their heart and in their soul, and then bind them upon important for us to have little pieces of paper nailed up on the scribed, as it is for us to have a home recognized by those who enter it as belonging to the Lord.

It is the home that is to be sancti-

Assurance Of Victory

these nations from before you, and ye shall dispossess nations greater and mightier than your-selves. Every place whereon the sole of your foot shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness, and Lebanon, from the river, the and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even unto the hinder sea shall be your border. There shall no man be able to stand before you: Jehovah your God shall lay the fear of you and God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath spoken unto you." Here is a definite promise that no matter how powerful the inhabitants of Canaan should be at the time of Jereel's entrance into the promised land, God would give the Israelites a sweeping victory over all of them if they would but continue to walk in His commandments. When Israel was in obedience to God her victories were assured and continuous; when she disobeyed God, either as a people or as individuals, defeat overtook her. There is no greater illustration than this, that of Israel's entrance into porpost, on which the law is in-earth."

their hand and on their fore between their eyes. The Jews have literally fulfilled this, by binding in little boxes, on their arms and foreheads, written por-tions of the book of the law. What really is meant here is that whatever one does, and whatever one thinks, should be controlled by the law of God. It is not so Striped spinner which once graced the nose of a German Messerschmitt is good only for a sunshade now, as R.A.F. armorer carries the broken plane part across an arifield in Sicily.

the tragedy that occurred to Israel in her early days of advance into Palestine was because of the sin of Achan (Josh. 7), and the glorious victory that came to her against the very same city which had defeated her when this The commercial fish harvest of the United States in 1941 was 4,850,000,000 pounds. The word alligator comes from el legarto, the Spanish word for reptile.

WAR PRODUCTION CHIEF Answer to Previous Puzzle 1,6 Head of newly formed U. S. War

11 Short cloak. 12 Iridium (symbol). 13 Upon. 14 Eager. 16 Entrance. 17 Repeat. 19 Meditate. 20 Type

22 Employ 25 Valley. 27 Therefore 29 Ostrichlike

For if ye shall diligently keep all this commandment which I command you, to do it, to love Jehovah your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cleave unto him; then will Jehovah drive out all the sections from before you. sound. 32 Like. 33 Compass

. 51 Work. 36 Alternating 52 Symbol for place. substance. 45 Prophet.

opinion. 3 Irritate.

53 And (Latin). 38 One who 54 Small plant. earns. 55 Gaelic.
VERTICAL 41 Foot parasition of the parasition of the parts 42 Fruit.

1 Pedestal part. 42 Fruit.
44 Revels.

46 Cloth mea

ALBERTT EINSTEIN
I LORD EAGLE OTTO
PRAISES EPITHET
INST MP US AERI
NESOT SUMELL 0
ET REPERASSIN 11 Taverns.
OE AR
OE AR
TOTAL
OF TRY ARDT
OTHY
ENSIN SETA SILVAN
EVER NOTES MALL
EVER NOTES MALL
EVER NOTES MALL
NESTLES PHYSICS
30 Observe.

7 Weaken.

White and Blue

(and white and blue), says an

Oslo report. Thirty thousand shoes were to be made, the factory was had discovered that the paper for the shoes was colored red, white, and blue, and was a form of anti-

the samples. Suddenly prod

