

"V" CAMPAIGN

US MODERNS NURSERY FRED NEHEL 3-12-43

"I think they're carrying this car pooling too far!!"

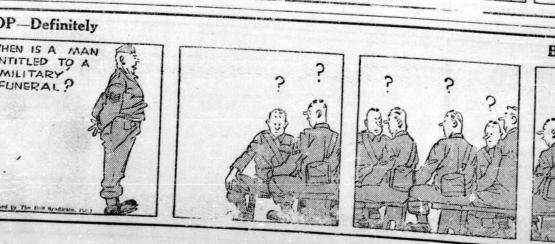

THE SPORTING THING

THIS ARMY

THE SPORTING THING

"I think he's out to make a perfect score!" MOPSY by GLADYS PARKER

Quality Guaranteed

SERIAL STORY Murder on the Boardwalk Y ELINORE COWAN STONE

CHAPTER XVII

Ges it occur to you, Inspect-Chandra went on — still very — "that there are interest-he case of Earl Talbert, were theatening notes. And that this one, Captain King, Miss ours about the being alive? You would it so far, I suppose, as to ough to sugges two abductions were that the time has butler's "that he has ought to help." atch the mediun his desk stood. It fumbled un ng in an upper draw he came back and handed er it: and that when he fispark between the two.

still wore, Christine thought, after a first glance, This is impossible.. Yet as she read on, fragments of seemed entirely normal happenings tumbled about in the chaos of her With shaking fingers she passed the sheet to Mr. Wilmet. The little man also adjusted his conversation, strange encounters, bits of coincidence which had favorable light, and perused it slow-

was dry. "Let's see just how his madness will carry him."

"That's what the inspector calls

"The first time I saw Earl Talwould work.

really wanted at first; but after laide St. West, Toronto.

"You will find that one person in this room will be unable to read

"You are right, Chandra," the in

"Why, of course." Mr. Wilmet looked startled but entirely confident. "I've got my glasses from the same man for years."

"But not those glasses," the clair-yoyant said softly. "Naturally, people with vision as poor as yours always carry an extra pair for emergencies. You had yours with you, if you recollect, when you came to my studio on the afternoon before Mrs. Talbert's murder. Probably, since you are above everything else an opportunist, it was pure inspiration that made you slip into your briefcase that dagger you had seen me wearing while

GOOD NEIGHBORS FIGHT IN ITALY

Swinging along in soldierly fashion, troops of the First Division, Brazilian Expeditionary Force, march through Naples shortly after debarking at the Italian port.

and which you guessed hundreds of people would be ready to iden-

is, "this man must be crazy!" "Perhaps." The inspector's tone

"I wear that dagger only on pa rade," Chandra went on. "When you came, it was lying on a low table near the chair you took. I didn't miss it till some time after you went... No doubt I should have notified the police at once. But how could I guess that it would be used to commit a crime?" "I thought you called yourself a medium?" Mr. Wilmet looked toward the inspector for applause. me. I call myself a student of hume. I call myself a student of human nature. You see, I make it my business to remember things other people hardly potice... And among other things, Inspector, although I have seen Earl Talbert only twice, I recall certain peculiarities which were common to both him and his

and. They were both superstitious. aunt. They were both superstitious.

bert, a few days before he — dis-appeared — he came to consult me because — he said, he had dreamed that he was in great danger. I saw no threat for him — he went away reassured that his scheme would work.

"The second time I saw him was yesterday, when our Mr. Wilmet came here, also apparently to consult me about his warning dreams. Perhaps that was what he Pattern 4561. Simple-to-make, with becoming yoke and set-in-belt.

(stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern to Room 421, 73 Ade-aide St. West, Toronto. Write essary, Inspector. Before we are through, he will identify himself. plainly size, name, address, style in this room will be unable to read this. He will pretend to, and may offer some harmless comment; because of all those here, he cannot allow it to be guessed that his vision is very bad. He will have no reason to suspect that this is not actually one of the messages he sent to Mrs. Taibert. The paper and the arrangement on the sheet are identical with those of one of the extortion notes Mrs. Talbert showed me... Have you noticed that Mr. Wilmet stumbled in finding a chair, and almost fell over a footstool?"

"You are right, Chandra," the inspector said quietly. "The report that came a few minutes ago from Mrs. Talbert's oculist makes it clear that the fragments of lens we found in that wheelchair did not come from her spectacles.

...You are all wearing glasses—or Miss Thorenson was. Mr. Wilmet"—his voice dropped into a pool of silence—"we'll begin with you. Of course you won't mind giving us the name of your specialist?"

ISSUE 34-1944

sight was another peculiarity com mon to Mrs. Talbert and her nephew. At 19, Earl Talbert had the vision of a man of 60." "Inspector," Mr. Wilmet burs out, "this man's practically admit-ted that he doesn't know who took his knife. There were a dozen peonie here that afternoon.' 'That is true," Chandra said gently, "But only one of them wore lenses like the pair you dropped from your pocket. No wonder you found it impossible to replace them immediately after you broke the others in that wheel chair." He took a spectacle case from his pocket and pased it to the in-

"I think," he said, "that when you have these lenses compared with the fragments you took from the chair, you will find that they re identical." "Well, there won't be any ques-tion about whose these are when we get into touch with the opti-cian," the inspector said.

He glanced at the label inside the case and seemed about to add (Continued Next Week)

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

ISRAEL'S FIRST KING. — I Samuel 9, 10, 11.
PRINTED TEXT, I Samuel 15-21; 10:25-27; 11:12-15. GOLDEN TEXT. — Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king. I Peter 2:17.

THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING the beginning of his reign, may b

Salads Make Menus Sparkle!

head lettuce or Chinese cabbage 1 onion, grated 1 bunch chicory 1 bunch radishes tomatoes, sliced 3 tomatoes, since 3 carrots, grated 1 cucumber, chopped 2 hard-cooked eggs Combine ingredients. When ready to serve, toss with French dressing.

Garden Salad

Tomato Surprise Salad 6 tomatoes
34 cup diced cucumber
32 cup diced, cooked chicken
34 cup chopped nuts
35 cup chopped nuts
36 cup chopped nuts

Lettuce
Parsley, cauliflower buds Select medium-sized smooth tomatoes. Scald, peel and chill. Carefully scoop the inside out of the tomatoes. Remove the seeds from the pulp. Chill all ingredients, and when ready to serve, mix the chicken, cucumber, tomato pulp, and auts with the mayonnaise dressing. Add more salt if needed. Ful leaves. Garnish with mayonnaise and decorate each tomato top with parsley and cauliflower, buds. Summer Caserole

6 hard-cooked eggs 3 ripe tomatoes
3 tablespoons butter or other
3 tablespoons flour 2 teaspoons salt

cup grated cheese
Buttered crumbs Cut hard-cooked eggs in half and arrange around the edge of a greased casserole or baking dish. Slice peeled ripe tomatoes in the center of the dish. Make a white save of the milk, fat and flour. sauce of the milk, fat and flour.
Add cheese, and stir over a very low fire until the cheese is well low fire until the cheese is well-mixed and smooth. Pour over to-matoes and eggs. Cover with crumbs and bake twenty minutes in a modern oven (350 - 400°F.)

The centers of the tomatoes may be scooped out, and a whole egg placed in each, if desired.

at all in recognising my in-laws-even after twenty years.

identified with Neby Samwil, five miles northwest of Jerusalem, by

"Now Jehovah had revealed un-to Samuel a day before Saul came, saying ... Behold the man of whom It would seem that at this time the Philistines were again harassing the Israelites with their destructive raids. The annoyance of these Philistine raids and incursions were the immediate cause of the prayer for a king.

Meeting of Samuel and Saul "Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate... and in the morning I will let thee go, and will tell thee I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in my heart."

It was probably in this high place that Samuel built his altar. A na-tural instinct among all nations chooses hilltops as fitting places of worship. Samuel tells Saul to go before him as a mark of honor.

Saul Pleads Unworthiness "And as for thine asses that were lost three days ago, set not thy mind on them; for they are found. ...wherefore then speakest thou to me after this manner?"

Samuel tells Saul that from this time on he is not to centre his mind on property, or animals, or material possessions but to consider the welfare of the nation, for it would be to him that Israel would now look for deliverance and leadership. In a spirit of humility Saul pled his

Not just for breakfast-but

CHRONICLES of GINGER FARM

make in a competitive world. Each has his share of joy and disillus-ionment, his ups and downs, bringyears said "Is that you, Gwen?"
The voice belonged to another of ionment, his ups and downs, pringing in their wake tolerance, resignation or contentment. Then with our grown families, who, in their turn, are making their way in life,

Partner's brothers-one from away Partner's brothers—one from away up north. Now he and his wife and daughter are staying with us
for a few days.

It was milking time when their train was due so it was I who met them at the station: "Would I know them, would they know me... we get a yen for our own folk, to see them once again, to visit and to remind each other of half forthem at the station. Would I know them . . . would they know me. . . what shall we discover the years have done to all of us?" They were thoughts that ran through my mind as I waited. And then when the train pulled out I had no trouble ing up on us but its a very pleas-ant compensation for the passing of time, don't you think so,

Of course, with all this coming and going, farming goes on as before. The grain that is ready is all cut and stooked, the remainder of the crop is ripening fast. The cows broke out this morning and Partner and his brother spent most Today we have been visiting places which Colin had known thirty-six years ago. You see, he and Partner both started farming in this district as boys. Later they went their senarate ways but durof the morning fixing fences as a result. Now they are away for a load of hay. The pullets are beginwent their separate ways but dur-ing the last war they were together again in France. Then again in Canada, each with his wife and young family. That was when they paid us a short visit so many long

Saturday Partner and I were talk-ing about family ties, how broth-ers and sisters apparently drift apart, each with his or her separ-gone the way of all good roosters.

And the heat wave is definitely broken. We have much to be thankful for. and the comparative insignificance ning to sing, sure sign that they will soon fulfill their mission in life. The roosters are crowing lus-tily from dawn to dark—all that is, except those which have already be a sign that the years are creep-others with Ramallah, eight miles north of Jerusalem, Jabesh-Gilead was on the east side of the Jordan. Saul Anointed By Samuel "Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before Jehovah. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to God's appointed King and explained his duties to God and to Israel, Samuel dismissed the people.

"And Saul also went to his house to Gibeah; and there went with him the host, whose hearts God had touched." With Saul went this band of men, fully approving what had been done and willing to help Saul in his new tasks.

"But certain worthless fellows said, How shall this man save us? And they despised him, and brought him no present. But he held his peace." They criticized God's appointed deliverer and could see no good in him.

good in him.

Ferns grow so large in the Phil-ippines that their trunks are used for telegraph poles.

You Will Enjoy Staying At The ST. REGIS HOTEL

TORONTO

Every Room with Bath, Show er and Telephone.
Single, $2.50 up—
Double, $3.50 up.
Good Food, Dinling and Dancing Nightly.
Sherbourne at Carlton
Tel. RA. 4136

MACDONALD'S Canada's Standard Smoke