

THE Elotheres were not true pigs, nor even related to them, although the resemblance to wild hogs living in Europe today is striking. Little is known of their habits. They had very powerful. cutting teeth and two heavy-clawed toes on each foot. They have no direct descendants living at the present time.

ONLY TWO

METEORITES

KNOWN

TO STRIKE

BUILDINGS.

CHRONICLES of GINGER FARM Gwendoline P. Clarke goodbye to your friends. You no

gests another angle to the subject to ordinary everyday life after a busy week-end with visitors from freshed than when they came. And then you settle down to your work the city staying here—that is, a and to catch up on your arrears of long week-end, from early Satursleep how and when you can. day to Monday afternoon. And you know how it is, don't you? You scurry around with the idea of getting as much of your work done One of our visitors was a man who had never stayed on a farm before. We found his comments very amusing. He couldn't think what Partner did outside all the as you can while your visitors are sleeping and then before you are properly through, one or more of time. He knew that cows were milked night and morning and that a farmer had some work to do them comes to life and you set about getting a belated breakfast. And then you naturally like to visit for awhile—but oh dear, when you do that the time just slips long until first thing you know it is nearly time for dinner and you laven't got the last of the breakast dishes out of the way. But ate at night-that's when things really get under way. The men start talking politics, or discussing the war, and events, past, preadd their small contribution— whether it is appreciated or not is work comes in." Partner laughed.

"Come down a little earlier tobeside the point. Eventually someone says something about it get-fing late but somebody else sugagain for another hour. Finally a our own daughter—home to cele-brate her birthday. One of the first things I asked her was how long fast each person ambles off to his or her bed. The visitors we hope. things I asked her was how long she could stay. "Sunday night-guarter to ten train." was the answer. Came nine o'clock Sunday night and I suggested to Daughter that she get her things together. She did so—very leisurely. And at that time I began to have an uneasy feeling about the time of the train. I looked up the paper. Nine to sound, carefree slumber, while Partner and I lay our heads on our respective pillows conscious that sitting up to the wee sma' hours isn't so good for a working man and his wife. Comes the morn-ing and we are more than ever convinced that a hang-over from late hours and too much talking train. I looked up the paper. Nine twenty-two! "Hurry" I said to Daughter. But instead of hurrying she had to see the paper for herisn't the best thing with which to start another new day. self as she wouldn't be convinced she was wrong. "Don't stand there talking about it," I urged. "The But there are cows to milk, stables to clean, hens to care for and eggs to gather, and as the day progresses the feeling of fatrain may be late and we may catch it after all." So I left her to collect her belongings while I ran for the car. They told me I tigue gradually wears itself off. You make up your mind you must really see about getting to bed in good time tonight. Then comes after supper and the talkiest betook the corner on two wheels-which I don't believe. However, gins again. First thing you know it is midnight — and the second whether on two wheels or four, w got to the station just as the train was pulling out. I imagined the morning is a repetition of the first. car was as much out of breath as Finally you quite regretfully bid I was so we ambled home at a leisurely twenty-five. Daughter went on the two-fifteen this after-

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JESUS TEACHES TRUE GREATNESS February 20

PRNTED TEXT.-Mark 9: GOLDEN TEXT .- The son of man also came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and give his life ransom for many. Mark 10:45 Memory Verse: I love thee, C Jehovah, Psalm 18: 1.

Mark 9: 30-10: 45.

THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING Time-Our Lord's teachings to His own disciples, as recorded in chapter nine, were uttered in Au-tumn, A.D. 29. All the teachings and events of the remaining part of the lesson took place in February and March, A.D. 30. .Place-Our Lord's announcemen about His forthcoming death took place in Galilee. His discourse concerning greatness was uttered in Capernaum. All the rest of the material assigned to our lesson falls in that period of His life which was spent in Peraez. Greatness In Men "And they came to Capernaum: and when he was in the house he asked them, what were ye rea-soning on the way? But they held their peace: for they had disputed one with another on the way, who was the greatest and he sat down and called the twelve; and he saith unto them, If any man would be first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all." They were ashamed to tell the Lord the subject of their disputation-who should be chief minister. In the presence of Jesus we are all put to silence when we habe been proud, ambitious, full of controversial spirit. The thought of the love and humility of our Saviour shames us into silence. What is meant by being great? Jesus answered that greatness lies in character, in service-to love and serve all for Christ's sake. In The Name Of Christ "And he took a little child, and they have different modes set him in the midst of them, and taking him in his arms, he saith unto them, whosoever shall receive one of such little children "And they were bringing us in my name, receiveth me: and not me, but him that sent me."

RADIO REPORTER By LEARY

which he referred to as "chores" but he thought any farmer was through by noon and that winter was really a slack time. "I'm coming down to the barn to see where you find all this work," he said. Well, he went to the barn—but it was after the stables had been cleaned and the cattle watered and the for the people that are in it. There is an old saying that in radio if was after the stables had been cleaned and the cattle watered and bedding put down. On his return I asked him if he had really been to the barn. "Yes," he answered, "and I still can't see where all the work comes in." Partner laughed "Come down." It's a business in which strange things happen. Take the case of Bert Morrison, star of the veteran spine-chiller "The Shadow", heard Tuesday nights 8.30-9.00 over CKCL, Toronto. Morrison question mark, which is the Sha-dow's trade mark. No explanation was given but Aftonbladet's Berlin correspondent suggested it was the opening shot in an anti-spy campaign. Morrison is now wonder

Dr. Frank Black

Father (Mat. 10:40), Not to re ceive Christ is to reject God him

For Or Against Christ

"John said unto him, Teacher,

we saw one casting out demons

in thy name; and we forbade him, there is no man who shall do a mighty work in my name, and be Christ's words condemn all who are actuated by party-spirit, envy, enmity, uncharitableness. In verse 40 we see that all men must range themselves on one side or the other-with Christ or against him. There is no neutral ground Christ regarded this man as being as fellow laborers all men who are doing Christ's work in a spirit of love and not of enmity, although able quickly to speak evil of me."

Gestapo. Radio can bring the people not only the music they know and love, but also the new vital musical creations of contemporary composers whatever their nationality, says Dr. Frank Black, guest conductor Bert Morrison, star of the veteran spine-chiller "The Shadow", heard Tuesday nights 8.30-9.00 over CKCL, Toronto. Morrison read a recent news despatch stating that posters have been appearing over-"Come down a little earlier tomorrow, fellow, and you will soon find out!"

Another of our visitors was hardly a "visitor"—since she was and on newspaper front pages.

These posters show The Shadow a man in a slouch hat with big question mark, which is the Shaown daughter—home to cele-* * *

Radio's people are all heading towards the Chateau Frontenac in Quebec for the middle part of this month, when all the radio stations from coast to coast gather at the Annual Convention of the Canadian Association of Broadcasters. Ra-dio, with the terrific job it, has done of assisting in the war effort, is continually meeting new war-time problems and the get-togethr on the "Plains of Abraham" is o solve some of its new prob ems, to receive information from heads of governmental depart-ments as to how radio can best cooperate with the war effort and to plan for the forthcoming year. The results of the decisions arrived at in the Quebec meetings will have a large effect on Radio in 1944. You can rest assured however, that whatever decisions are arrived at, radio's people fighting on the home front will continue their outstanding contribution t your entertainment and information as well as to our was effort.

Near the Mussolini Canal, south of Rome, tankmen of the Allied Fifth Army found a shallow raving and parked their vehicles while they scanned the plains back of Nettuno, Italy, for signs of the enemy. These forces are now on the way to Rome.

healer and these children required him in neither capacity. But Jesus is more than that, He is essentially small account in the eyes of men. We learn that the will of him who the Blesser, whatever form the receives Christ is in harmony with the will of God. To see Christ is | blessing may take. The Childlike Spirit to see the Father. (John 14:9), to receive Christ is to receive the

"But when Jesus saw it, . . . he shall in no wise enter therein." Our Saviour is referring to the spirit of a little child, the spirit of h mility, the spirit which was missing in his disciples. Every gentle modest child is lowly in thought, ready to be taught. Unless we are humble and receptive like a child we cannot enter the Kingdom. because he followed not us. But "And he took them in his arms and blessed them, laying hands upon them." The true disciple must welcome children, serve them, learn from them, and catch their

> "And Jesus called them to him ... shall be servant of all." The ... shall be servant of all." The ruling class of that day held their above the earth.

22 Rows. 23 Symbol for 36 Sun personified. 37 Written form of mister

38 Tree. republic 39 And (Latin). 64 Clique.

humble, trustful, loving, receptive

ded obedience from them on the ground of their superior rank and power. Greatness in the Kingdon rule, but in voluntary service his the christian who is ready to stoop to serve the lowest d Cod's children who is the greates Chirst's Life a Ransom "For the son of man also came not to be ministered unto, but b minister, and to give his life; ransom for many." The purpose our Lord's advent was to ministe All His past ministry was but a leading up to the supreme service. He was to render to mankind, and for which He came into the world 'to give His life a ransom for

By means of a radio method scientists have measured the elec-

AMBASSADOR TO U. S
HORIZONTAL	Answer to Previous Puzzle
1,7 Depicted ambassador to the U. S., 14 Engaged in driving a team 16 He is ambassador from 17 Pertuining	REPAIRS ENERGY E RES SE PAR RAI HIIS LAS ON SABE	RIOD POSE MA MA THINNINE YEA B WILDER PIS to the Iroquoian language. 18 Vigor. 20 Morning song (poe [£] .). 21 Near.	AGES SA	DS PATER TALLUDE PLAINER	֡

(Latin).

60 Combined.

62 Those who ape (Egypt).

15 Golf mound.
18 Jurnbled type
19 Pair (abbr.).
22 Pertaining is a clan symbol 24 Couples.
25 Deprives of 29 Body part. 30 Open (poet.). 32 Ignited. 34 Social insect. 42 Compact. 44 Musteline 2 Thing in law. iron. 24 Plural (abbr.). 44 Upon. 25 Accomplish. 46 Violent 45 Type of gull. 3 British province in South Africa. (abbr.).
29 Rough lava.
30 Not in.
31 Symbol for Juminum.
52 Lieutenant (abbr.).
54 Large stoves.
57 God of the 4 Eject.

49 The heart pipe. 8 Not down. earth (myth.). 9 Dutch measure. 53 Gaelic. Netherlands 56 Weight of Air Force 58 Light tap. pace. (abbr.). 63 Tiny European 11 Fruit of the palm tree (pl.).

TAKE YOUR OWN CIGARETTES WITH

than during the last one because than during the last one because they have occupied the greater part of Europe and plundered the countries of their livestock, foods and economic resources, but as and economic resources, but as this is a process that cannot be con-tinued indefinitely to anything like the same extent, and as they have already lost the great wheatfields already lost the great wheatfields of the Ukraine and will soon be out of Russia altogether, the future oerlook for food is black, comments the St. Thomas Times-Journal.

Norway, Holland and Denmark have been plundered until the natives live in a chronic state of lunger. The French government la London is in a position to give almost exact figures of direct levies of food by the Germans in France since June, 1940, which reveal the extent of German reliance on looting in one country alone to feed their own armies and people. The Nazis have also "bought" great quantities by means of paper lands.

In apite of the dislocation, respect and appropriation of French and appropriation of French distries, Germany imposed a cost-of-occupation bill of $10,000,000 a day based on a figure of 4,000,000 on a figure of 4,000,000 bg the fact that there are probably more than 1,000,000 German lemand their $10,000,000 a their maintenance, the baleing clear financial profit.

Supply Of Butter Slim In Britain

butter supplies which have been sufficient only to maintain the two-ounce ration.
Ministry of Food said Bri

SAFES

J.&J. TAYLOR LIMITED TORONTO SAFE WORKS Front St. E., foronte

HARNESS & COLLARS | Farmers Attention — Consult your nearest Harness Shop about Stace Harness Supplies. We sell our goods only through your local Stace Leather Goods dealer. The goods are that, and so are our prices. We manufacture in our factories — Harness, Horse Coliars, Sweat Pads, Horse Blantes, and Leather Travelling Goods. Insist on Stace Brand Trade Marked Goods, and you get satisfaction. Made only by: AMUEL TREES CO., LTD. WRITE FOR CATALOGUE

Foot Itch pped in 7 Minutes

42 Wellington St. E., Toronto

sthma Mucus osened 1st Day atton. Just tell others if it ar Asthma attacks. Knox 759 Knox Bidg., Fort th, Ontario.

tain is pressing butter-Producing countries to let her have more but would not indicate if any specific

If the present slim supply in Britain is pressing butter-producing keep it at two ounces but we can't afford to lose ships bringing but-

Japan Has Great Naval Base At Truk

base, is an objective of the Americans in the South Pacific, relates the Windsor Star. The island group is 900 miles from Rabaul, 2, 000 miles from Yokohama, and 3, 500 miles from Honolulu.

Truk is a group of 250 islands enclosing a lagoon that measures 130 miles around. There are four small gaps as entrances to this great harbor area, which is large enough to accommodate the entire Japanese fleet. The islands vary in size from a few square yards to a few square miles. But, even the small islands provide emplacements for anti-aircraft guns or heavier artillery.

Germany bought Truk from Spain for £1,000,000 in 1889. The Americans had taken the islands from Spain in the Spanish-America war, but gave them back b the islands following the last war It is going to take skill and daring to capture Truk. But, it is on the way to Tokio.

Trapped Mink Keeps On Fighting For Life

and glad thing, Alan Devoe writes in The American Mercury. Its wild freedom, its stealth and strength, its lusting and exulting, are not lightly to be surrendered. And so, when the hidden trap-jaws clang together on the leg of a mink, what happens is in the nature of a fearful thing. The mink, if it can, will gnaw off its leg in order to to go free. If it cannot free itself, such a surging compound of rage and hate and terror and malignance and despair, that many a trapper could wish that he had neve

A trapped mink snarls, screams, scheeches, froths and spits. It looses from its musky glands a stench that is subtler but more sickening than the odor of a skunk, and it fouls the trap and all the surrounding earth with as thorough a pollution as it can. Until the minufe of death, a trapped mink the pelt which she will scarcely realize came from an animal, and the was ever lived.

PROMOTED

Major-General G. G. Simonds, C.B.E., D.S.O., 40, has been promoted to the acting rank of lieutenant-general and to command of a Canadian corps.

BLACK

of the ravine, for beyond it the cliffs towered up to meet the coalblack sky. There was green grass underfoot, and the sound of a rivulet falling from the rocks above. Lois reined in Black Dawn. "This is the place, Dave," she said, and crumple heap upon the grass.

Dave flung himself upon his knees beside her. The upper part of the overalls, already stiffened with blood, was wet with a new flow from the wound. Lois was breathing gently, but she had mediately to the right of him Dave saw the entrance to a cave. He gathered the girl into his arms and staggered into it. Then he laid the girl down on the pebbly made a pad of it, compressing the wound and holding it there for minutes. When he gently remov-ed it, there came another spurt of blood. Again, this time for half to a small trickle.

He readjusted the bandages and went outside, unsaddled the hor-ses and left them to graze. He took a tin cup from his roll and the sound of running water. He found a little pool that splashed found a little pool that splashed down into the ravine, filled the cup, carried it back to Lois and forced the contents down her threat threat.

throat.

Spreading his blanket in the cave, he picked the girl up and placed her upon it. After that there was nothing to do but wait for dawn.
It came after an immeasurable time, stealing down the ra-ine and glowing rosy upon the mountain tops. Now it began to grow light inside the cave, and Dave could see that this extended backward for a considerable distance. They seemed secure enough, so long as their food lasted. worry about my business. I've As he bent over the girl, her

Today's Pattern

Look cheerful as a sunbeam this light-hearted deep-yoked from Pattern 4589 comes in misse put together as a glance at the diagram will prove. Make it with contrast trim or in one fabric. Petttern 4589 comes in misses' and women's sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20; 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 takes 25% yards 35-inces and 3% yard contrast.
Send TWENTY CENTS (20) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern to Anne Adams, Room 421, 73 Adelaide St., West, Toronto. Write plainly Size, Name, Address, Style, Number.

Victory Chop Suey

3/4 teaspoon salt

2 tablespoons fat

3/4 teaspoon salt

1 cup sliced onion

1 cup green pepper strips

4/4 cup uncooked rice

13/2 teaspoons Soy Sauce

4 bouillon cubes

2 cups oved-popped rice cereal

1 tablespoon butter

Heat fat in heavy frying pan; add onions and meat; cook until lightly browned. Add rice and stock made by dissolving bouillon cubes in hot water. Add salt, green pepper and celery strips, and soy sauce; cover and simmer about 20 minutes longer. Serve at once with crisp rice and simmer about 20 minutes longer. Serve at once with crisp rice eereal which has been buttered and toasted.

Yield: 4 servings (1 cup per serving).

He didn't do it. He's not the murdering kind." Then she slip-ped back into unconsciousness.

A sudden feeling of tenderness swept over him. Why, this was his girl—he'd known it from the first moment he had seen her. Mescal was seething with excitement the following morning when Wilbur Ferris rode in. Curran had aroused the ranchman at dawn and informed him of the events of the night, and the futile attempt to follow the trail of the substantial one. Lonergan's Mexi-can servant admitted Ferris Into a comfortably furnis! d living-room where Lonergan was seated at his breakfast table. "Morning, Ferris," Lonergan greeted his visitor. "Sit down and have a bite, won't you? I've got a quarter of an nour before hold-ing the inquest over old Hooker."

He wiped his mout with a an hour. Dave held the compress in position, and when he ventured to remove it the flow had dwindled napkin, leaned back, and surveyed Ferris with a sardonic look that was not lost on the ranchman. misery came over his face.
"Listen. Lonergan," he pleaded. Wilbur Ferris sank heavily into a chair.
"What the devil's all this mess "You know how I came into this district years ago—" about?" he demanded fiercely.

"Damn you, Lonergan, I believe you brought that murdering cowpoke into this district for some infernal reasons of your own." "With Blane Rowland, your eyes on him till he came into the Wayside Rest, day before yesterday, and paid off old Hooker's mortgage interest."

"I want to know what that girl, ris. "What did you bring the Hookers here for, and why have you kept them here these twelve years past? And why did you decide that the time had come to get rid of them?"

"Go easy, Ferris," Lonergan adaler in the hall, and clapped it stood by you a good while now, when you'd have been down and "Yep, you've about drove me to my limit, Lonergan," answered Ferris. "You put that man Curran in charge of the Cross-Bar, hands and brought in a gang of

"And now this Bruce feller comes along and plays hell generally, and, after his murdering old Hooker, that girl, Lois, stages a rescue from the lynching party. I tell you, it don't look straight to me. I want to know what's behind it."

Lonergan bit off the end of a a puff or two of smoke before re-

"So you think I've ridden you too hard, Ferris?" he asked. "Well, maybe I have seen my advantage and taken it when it come along. Lemme see, Ferris," he continued in an irrelevant manner, "you must be close to sixty, if I'm not mistaken." "What's that got to do with it?" demanded the ranchman. "Why go on worrying, and muddling your head with things that bother you? Ever think of a little place in California to end your days in peacefully? A place where you won't have to think of —well, of me? I'd never trouble you, Ferris, if you should decide to sell out to me. "Of course, prices having drop-ped so low, I couldn't make you a very advantageous offer, but if you liked to consider eight or nine thousand dollars—why, you could go a long ways with that in Call-"You devil!" shouted Ferris, springing to his feet. "So that's what you've had in mind, getting me out of the district! I guessed "You guessed right, Ferris," an-

"You guessed right, Ferris," answered Lonergan. There was a steely glitter in the judge's eyes now, in place of the sardonic look. "After all, Ferris, you owe me everything you've been, don't you? No, I'm not going back over old times. But there's my offer."

"The Cross-Bar's worth forty thousand if it's worth a penny!" meat loaf with the carrot slices. Heat again in the oven till the potatoes are slighty browned. Temperature: 350° F. thousand, if it's worth a penny!" Ferris shouted. Time: 114-hours. "I'd say it will be nearer fifty, when prices lift," responded, the

IOUS HOMECOMING

HEMORRHOIDS 2 Special Remedies by the Makers of Mecca Oint

Meeca Pile Remedy No. 1 is for Protrud Bleeding Piles, and is sold in Tube, with p for internal application. Price 75c. Meeca Remedy No. 2 is for External Itching Piles. S in Jar, and is for external use only. Price i Order by number from your Druggist.

other. "I'll make it nine thousand | U. S. War Casualties

"Our Family

Regulator is

DR. CHASE'S

LIVER PILLS

from Sluggish

Try the Original "Dutch Drops"

Try the Original "Dutch Drops".

It is poisonous waste that your kidneys should be filtering out of your blood that may cause backache, dizzy spells, leg cramps, restless, sleep-broken nights, and smarting and turning. For relief use the remedy that has won the grateriu thanks of thousands for many years—GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules.

This effective directic and kidney stimulant is the original and genuine Dutch Drops in carefully measured amounts in tasteless Capsules. It is one of the most favorably known remedies for relieving congested kidneys and irritated bladder. It works swiftly, helping the delicate filters of your kidneys to purify the blood.

STEADY NERVES ARE

How in the world can a woman have charn, and poise if she feels "all wound up" with nervous tension? On the other hand... calm, strong nerves actually give a woman poise and quiet nerves take the hard, tense look from her facial muscles. If nerves bother, treat them with rest, wholesome food, fewer activities, plenty of sunshine and fresh air. In the meantime take a nerve sedative... Dr. Miles Nervine

A BIC HELP TO

40c at your druggists.

· Latest available figures on Am casualties through January 22, and army losses through Dece check for the cattle," interposed Lonergan. hard to have to pull stakes and start afresh. If you'd make it twenty thousand I'd feel it might be done. But can't this business be settled somehow eise?"

"Nope," answered Lonergan decisively. "My offer's nine thouor rejected within the next couple of days. And two weeks to vacate. You'll have to excuse me on his head. Wilbur Ferris, who had been watching him in dumb despair, moved slowly toward the door.

quit within the next two weeks.'

Ferris was standing like

TABLE TALKS Look out for Trouble Your War Saving Stamp Recipe

has undertaken the huge task of selling 2 million dollars worth of War Saving Stamps during the month of February. This column presents a penny saving recipe, which will help you buy your War Saving Stamps. Here it is: FROSTED MEAT LOAF 2 tablespoons fat

1 onion, chopped 11/2 lbs. chuck beef, ground 1/4 lb. pork shoulder, ground 21/2 cups corn flakes, rolled 1 egg, unbeate... 1 tablespoon cornstarch ½ teaspoon salt dash of pepper and paprika 1/2 teaspoon poultry spice 1/2 cup milk t teaspoon grated lemond rind 1 teaspoon lemon juice 4 steamed weiners

2 cups fluffy mashed potatoes

2 medium carrots, cooked whole Heat the fat and add the chopped onion. Cook and stir till the onion is tender and golden brown; add all remaining ingredients except the weiners, potatoes and car-rots; spoon half the mixture into an oiled loaf pan 9" x 5" x 8'. Press the weiners into the meat mixture, laying them end to end and touching. Cover with all rethe first half hour drain off the liquid. When the meat loaf is cooked, invert on a hot platter.
Frost all over with mashed potatoes. Score the cooked carrots with a fork and cut in thin slices Decorate the sides and top of the and fresh air. In the meantime take a nerve sedative . . Dr. Miles Nervine. Nervine has helped scores of women who suffered from overtaxed nerves. Take Nervine according to directions to help relieve general nervousness, sleeplessness, nervous fears and nervous headache. Efferveseing Nervine Tablets are 35c and 75c. Nervine Liquid: 25c and $1.00. BUY WAR SAVING STAMPS HASTEN THEIR VICTOR-

MIDDLE-AGE WOMEN (38-52) HEED INIS ADVICE!

C.B., D.S.O., 53, has relinquished

