CHOPPERS AT IT AGAIN

Last winter Thos. Brown and Charles McCarter went out to the former's bush in Walpole and set a trap for the choppers. This year the same pair are at it again. If we don't know them as well as we do, we would be sure they were in training for a go with Joe Lewis. However, this youthful pair, we understand, are working early and late, only a doubtful view of the current fuel situation.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS

We had occasion the other day to refer to an old file of the Melita Enterprise of December 1907. Boys and girls lived high in the old days, and since the outbreak of war, yet many demands for nursing and other services have been made.

STEALING THE PENNY

That peculiar little human nature which leads juveniles to indulge in petty larceny of articles which can be of no use to them was evident again at Christmas. Many of the colored lights from the community Christmas tree were stolen, and in addition several of the bulbs from the strings in the Public Utilities office windows disappeared.

15,000 ONE-CENT STAMPS

Coburg citizens on the whole mailed earlier this year. Some idea of the Christmas cards sent can be gained from the fact that during the period of December 10 to December 24, there were 75,000 one-cent stamps sold.

ADMIRAL HAROLD STARK

Commander United States Naval Forces in Europe, giving a talk to Nelson in the British Broadcasting Corporation, noted that he had an extensive experience at sea. The citation for his distinguished service in the last war, notes his "efficient leadership in command of a Squadron of small and old destroyers in the Philippines, and dispatched to the Mediterranean at a season when the southwest monsoon was at its height."
