PRAYER OF A MOTHER

Dear Lord, you gave your son to save the world

Dear Lord, can I do less?

I gave the world my son

That he may help to save the world

The things for which your Son So nobly died

When the victory's won, dear God

And you send back my son

High Commissioner, the most important post in the external service of Canada

ARGUMENTS BETWEEN political parties over some detail of the national policies are such a necessary part of our democratic system

NEWSPAPERS are likely to support the political party which advocates the plans which the editors believe will be in the interest of the nation

THE OLD timers tell of characters in the old days who made it a regular habit to appear at the pub at regular intervals and stop

Some of the spokesmen advocate physical violence as a method of "reforming" society

IT HAS been frequently asserted that one of the reasons socialism cannot succeed in a practical world, peopled by imperfect human beings

THE OVERARCHING opposition of the Canadian daily and weekly press to the policies of the C.C.F. does not arise from "capitalist" bribery

IT IS the right of every Canadian to accept or reject any of all of this programme

THE LATEST complaint about the manpower muddle is that there is a casket shortage and a lack of grave diggers

THE PUPILS of Grade VI to XI in Leitchville High School gave a generous response to the Queen's Canadian Fund pre-Christmas appeal

IN THE process of winning this war the American people have accepted centralization of government, regimentation of activities and restriction of liberty to a greater extent than ever before in their history
