THE WAR - WEEK - Commentary on Current Events

Land and Weather Against Allied Forces in March Toward Rome

Two questions which for months have intruded, or frequently disturbed, the mind of the average American are why the Allies have been so slow in opening a Western front, and why we are making such little progress against the Germans in the march toward Rome.

The two famous reputable correspondents, Ernie Pyle in Italy, and William Philip Simms in Washington, have given the answers to those questions.

Simms says that weather is holding up the invasion of France. "It is a known fact that from now until the end of March the weather in northern France and the Low Countries is abominable."

Ernie Pyle, who has been in Italy since the beginning of the war, says that the weather is the main reason why the Allies have been so slow in opening a Western front.

VOICE OF THE PRESS

HUMAN PASTURAGE

Parsley, spruce bark and lawn grass are hailed by a chemist as valuable sources of Vitamin C. All right, we'll make the effort and eat that stuff they apportioned to us as rations, but we'll on our boiled potatoes, but we'll on our teeth or go out in the woods and gnaw trees.

NO JAP HUMANITY Japanese airman are not provided with parachutes or other means for seeking safety. In the event of disaster in the air, the Jap is just as rubbery with his own fighters as he is with the enemy. Humanity as we know it finds no place in the Japanese heart.

VERBAL MOISTROUSITY A news-reader on C.B.C. pronounced Christmas as "Xmas." Written out, Xmas has no place in the dictionary. Pronounced as abbreviated it is a verbal moistrosity which comes oddly from an agency intended to promote, among other things, culture and good speech.

FRANKLIN'S WAY Benjamin Franklin defended "it" as a barbarian and perfectly understandable way of spelling "wife." Although Ben was by in most things, he was by of the mark on that one.

FUTILE EFFORT Why should a man try to hide behind a woman's skirts when a woman herself cannot do it nowadays.

THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA ANNUAL MEETING

Morris W. Wilson, President, says any degree of political freedom impossible under wholly planned economy. Challenges socialists to show how public would benefit by state monopoly of banking.

Sydney G. Dobson, Vice President and General Manager, reports bank business at unprecedented levels. Assets reach new peak of over $1,500,000,000.

The threat to the personal liberty of all Canadians, inherent in the plans of the socialists for the nationalization of Canadian industry, was emphasized by Morris W. Wilson, President of the Royal Bank of Canada, at the Bank's Annual Meeting.

Mr. Wilson reviewed the tremendous record Canada had played in this alignment of the world. He pointed out that the bank and other enterprises alike had cooperated in it. "Despite the fact," he said, "we are being told by all the publicists that the complete nationalization of the means of production and finance will bring us to a better world, we must not forget that the only way to bring about such a change is to change our own minds."

He said that the bank's policy is to support the government in its efforts to bring about a better world, but that it will not support any plan that would result in the nationalization of the means of production and finance.

Keep Eggs Cold And Also Covered

The way to keep eggs fresh longest is to have them not only cold but also covered, say reports from the Utah and Massachusetts State Experiment Stations.

The Utah station tested eggs that had been kept for a week according to various home practices. The eggs that rated highest were those that had been kept in the refrigerator.

Have You Heard?

Everything about the R.A.F. station was interesting to the visitor, and he asked a never-ending stream of questions.

"Say," he exclaimed, "how is it that you have so many Spitfires among your pilots?"

"Well, sir," he said, "since the Spit has a silver lining, we can't keep 'em out."

"Well, Honey, a paratrooper is an soldier what climbs down trees he never clumb up."

"There's been no new variation of the spinch joke since a veteran of North Africa described the sandstorm as spinch."

"At a post office window a woman asked the clerk: 'Woman—How much will it cost to send this poem?'"

"Post Office Clerk—Four cents; it's first-class, you know."

"Woman—Oh, thank you so much! My lady, be wary of Cupid."

"My lady, be wary of Cupid."

"My lady, be wary of Cupid."

"My lady, be wary of Cupid."

FASCIST VENGEANCE: DEATH AND PRISON

Regarded as the revenge of Mussolini and Hitler for their action in voting against Il Duce in last July's Italian political crisis, this precipitating his downfall, 19 members of the Grand Fascist Council were sentenced to death for treason at a special Fascist court at Verona, Italy.

Among them were Count Galeazzo Ciano, ex-foreign minister, and Marshal Emilio de Bono,
