OTTAWA REPORTS

What Security For Farm Family Must Be Keynote Of Future Policy In Agriculture

Postwar measures suggested by H. H. Hannam, President of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, at a recent meeting of the Society of Technical Agriculturalists, included carrying forward some wartime controls with modifications, to meet changing conditions and peacetime objectives; some form of regular marketing where control of the product is necessary for an effective marketing job, or to the success of price floors; orderly organized movement of food supplies to world markets; some measure of direct or indirect control of production, with decentralization of administration and regulations self-imposed by the producers to the extent possible.

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I remove paint stains from clothing?

A. Either fresh or dry stains can be removed from delicate materials without injury by sponging with chloroform. Wash fabrics can be saturated with turpentine, rubbed well between the hands and then washed in soapy water. For a very old and dry stain, add a little ammonia to the turpentine and soak the stains in this for an hour or two before laundering.

Q. How can I make better sweet pickles?

A. A small amount of vanilla and a small amount of lemon extract added to the syrup just before it is poured over the fruit will add a delicious flavor when making sweet pickles.

Q. How can I remove perspiration from silk?

A. Perspiration stains on a delicate silk garment can usually be removed by rubbing gently with a soft dry cloth.

Q. How can I avoid clogging the sink drain?

A. Hot grease should not be poured down the drain pipe of the sink. It will congeal as soon as it strikes the cold pipe and tend to clog it.

Q. How should blisters from sunburn be opened?

A. Do not break sunburn blisters, as this only adds to their discomfort. A new layer of skin will form under the blisters and they will break of their own accord.

Artic Route Tough Summer or Winter

There has been some question in the minds of sailors on the Arctic route to Russia, as to whether they prefer to make the trip in the summer or in the winter. It is a choice of evils; in the winter there is the frightful cold, and the heavy weather, but there is some protection from the enemy in the darkness of the 24-hour nights. In the summer the going is a little more comfortable, but the 24-hour daylight exposes the ships to constant observation and attack from the enemy. The daylight is now getting quite long in the Arctic but the weather was reported as "murderous."

BARBERING IN THE BREEZE

"It's cooler outside" was the decision of a Milwaukee barber, who promptly moved his chairs and equipment out onto the sidewalk, where customers could enjoy the breeze, to say nothing of the breezy sights.

PRETTY SOFT

It will be soft sleeping for this Allied soldier if only he can hold on to the prize he picked up in recaptured Cherbourg— a nice, comfortable mattress.

Modern Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

1. What should one do and say, if when entering a row of seats in a theater, it is necessary for other persons to rise to allow you to pass?

2. Would it be all right for a girl to wear a slack suit when taking a trip by bus?

3. What is the correct way to eat watermelon?

4. If a man is a strictly business acquaintance, and a woman meets him at a social affair, is she obligated to recognize him?

5. In what form should an acceptance be written when replying to a wedding invitation?

6. Should the cream and sugar be placed in the cup before the coffee is poured, when eating breakfast?

Answers

1. Face the stage and pass as quickly and easily as possible. If the other persons rise, say "Thank you". 2. Yes, it would be all right as slacks are now being worn on all informal occasions. However, to be correct, a dark dress or suit would be preferable. 3. With a fork, cutting a small piece at a time, and leaving the seeds on the plate. 4. Not unless she desires to, but she usually does unless there is some good reason why she should not. 5. Write it in the third person, following the wording of the invitation, repeating in your acceptance the place, date, and hour. 6. Yes.

Crew of Four Mans Midget Submarines

The midget submarines, known as "X" craft, are like ordinary submarines, but much smaller and even more cramped and have no conning tower. They are manned by a crew of four. They are about 40 feet long. The only superstructure is a guard rail for the two periscope tubes and a mast-like air vent. To this is attached a steel arm with a strong leather belt, to which the captain straps himself when on the deck for observation purposes.

Have You Heard?

The plumber rang the bell and as it happened both the master and mistress of the house came to the door. As they stood in the hall the husband, who was very methodical, said:

"I wish before we go upstairs to acquaint you with the trouble."

"I'm very pleased to meet you ma'am," said the plumber.

A receipt advertisement states: "It took twelve thousand workers to put that bottle of milk at your door."

Yes, it sounded as though it did.

—o—

"Johnny," said his mother, severely, "someone has taken a big piece of ginger cake out of the pantry."

Johnny blushed guiltily, and fidgetted around.

"Oh, Johnny," she exclaimed, "I didn't think it was in you!"

"It ain't all," replied Johnny, "part of it's in Elsie."

She read the fancy recipes,
Each one a tempting winner,
Then, dashing to her kitchen, fixed
Some ham and eggs for dinner.

THE CURIOSITY'S MUTUAL

This 61-year-old Chamorro crone on Saipan gazes with avid curiosity at photos displayed by Tech.-Sgt. Don Brown, USMC, Vallejo, Calif., but her curiosity is equalled, if not outdone by the lobe-necked, who has revised conception of Pacific island beauty.

RIVERS MAY BE NAZIS' 'LAST DITCHES'

Hitler's fast-fleeing armies in Poland are approaching the last natural defense barriers offered by the comparatively flat terrain — the lines of the Bug and Wista rivers, as indicated on map above. Arrows show general direction of Red army drives, a north-central one skirting the Pripet Marshes and a south-central one, converging in a giant pincers on Warsaw, thence on toward Berlin.

THE SNIPER PLAYS HIS PART

The man with the rifle is still a main cog in battle and Canadian soldiers, many of them expert marksmen like this sniper drawing a bead on the enemy from his post in a shell-ruined house, took a heavy toll of Nazi defenders of Europe on invasion day.

A WELCOME TO CANADA

Gen. Charles De Gaulle, president of the French Committee of National Liberation is greeted by Prime Minister King at Rockcliffe Airport, Ottawa. Gen. De Gaulle visited the capital city for one day, when he laid a wreath on the National War Memorial, and addressed an immense throng crowding the grounds before the Peace Tower of the Canadian Parliament buildings.

BEFORE TABLES TURNED

SEZ WHO?

Sgt. Theodore Herman, of Ravenna, N. Y., chuckles as, with his trench knife, he rips one of Herr Goebbels' propaganda posters off the wall of a Cherbourg building. The poster is a map of Italy, showing British and American forces in the south symbolized by a snail, with the slogan: "It's a Long Way to Rome."
