Threw away my harsh laxatives

out to be due to lack of "bulk" cereal helps to produce orking "bulk," and prepare wastes for easy elimination. You'll want this regularity, so you'll enjoy eating ALL-BRAN daily. Remember it's a cereal—not a medicine. At your grocer's. 2 handy sizes. Made by Kellogg's in London,

The Foundation Of Character

In laying the foundation of good character the aim of the wise and loving mother is to train her infant so train her mian.
that he shall develop a healthy body, controlled by an equally healthy mind. In order to do this order to do this needs must be proneeds must be prowided for. These needs we call the twelve essentials. Fresh Air and Sunshine Free-flowing air day and night to ensured by putting baby to sleep out of doors during the day and giving him a well-ventilated himself at night. Deprived of sunlight children grow up pale

Water From the time baby is quite small, encourage him to take a drink of water daily. For drinking purposes water should be boiled.

There is only one perfect food for baby and that is mother's milk. Clothing This should be light in weight, non-irritating and be regulated actording to climatic conditions. Bathing A bath once a day is necessary. Introduce gradually the cool sponge is six months.

Muscular Exercise and Sensory Stimulation Give baby a regular time for kicking and waving of time. Sen-sory stimulation is derived in many ways, through careful handling, sunshine, etc.

Baby should never be allowed to feel cold. Sensible clothing will

This includes feeding times, sleeping hours, recreation and regular bowel movement. Baby's personal hygiene, and eare in all feeding utensils used in case of artifically fed babies. Mothering baby requires loving handling.

The wise mother trains her baby Rest and Sleep

If the foregoing essentials are all strictly adhered to, naturally rest and sleep will follow as they depend on baby's comfort and permission of the New Zealand Mothercraft Society. Although Iceland's climate is too severe for ordinary vegetable where even semi-tropical crops ean be grown.

TABLE TALKS

Pies and More Pies

For some reason I seem to feel r be very "pieus" this week for I have been trying some old pie ecipes. Maybe I have been a little easier on my sugar lately and have some to spare. So save up some sugar and try these desserts to

Cream Pie 34 cup sugar (scout) 3 tablespoons cornstarch 1/4 teaspoon salt

1 pint milk and cream mixed 1 teaspoon vanilla Mix cornstarch with ½ cup sugar and salt, then add egg yolks, which have been beaten light and lemoncolored. Scald milk, and pour slowly over the mixture; stir well until mixed. Cook in top of double boiler until smooth, thick and creamy, stirring constantly. Re-move from heat and add vanilla. Cool and pour into a 9-inch baked pie shell. Top with 3 egg whites, which have been stiffly beaten with 1/4 cup sugar. Bake in a moderate oven until meringue is lightly browned

Chocolate Cream Pie Use the above recipe adding 1/4 cup cocoa and 4 tablespoons more sugar. Increase salt a 1/4 teaspoon Arrange a layer of bananas on top of baked pie crast. Pour the looked pale under the brilliant cover with meringue and brown delicately in oven. This makes a good company pie, at it is large and rich and can be cut in smaller pieces. Rhubarb Custard Pie Combine 2 cups cooked rhubarb with two beaten egg yolks, 1 cup sugar and 3 tablespoons flour blended well togther. Place in a pie crust and bake. Top with meringue and lightly brown. Orange Rhubarb Pie

Add ½ cup of orange juice, a little grated orange rind and 1 tablespoon of butter to the above

Miss Chambers welcomes personal letters from Interested readers. She is pleased to receive suggestions on topics for her column, and is always and to listen to your "per personal menus are in order. Address your letters to "Miss Sadle B. Chamber, 73 West Adelnide St., Toronto." Send stamped self-addressed envelope if you wish a reply.

Growers Urged To Disinfest All Used Potato Bags

In order to prevent the fur-ther spread of Bacterial Ring Rot disease potato growers are urged to disinfect all used potato bags before they are again allowed to come in contact with potatoes, says R. E. Goodin, Fieldman, Crops, Seeds and Weeds Branch of the Ontairo Department of Agriculture.

Bags should be soaked for two hours in a solution containing one pint formalin in forty gallons of water. These may afterwards be quickly dried at this time of year by spreading out over the grass hanging over a fence. Another lent you $20,000." method used by some potato growers is by using a hand sprayer and a solution containing one pint formalin with one pint water. This solution is sprayed on about every fourth or fifth bag in the pile, after which the entire pile of bags is left covered overnight with 2 heavy blanket tarpaulin. Potato growers may avoid growth, huge garden plantations have sprung up about hot springs heavy losses by using every precaution to keep Bacterial Ring Rot disease away from their premises.

Murder on the Boardwalk BY ELINORE COWAN STONE

Last Week: Bill's key holder is found on the Beach. He tells of fighting with a beachcomber, whom Christine knows to be her late cousin's butler. Christine finds a dagger hidden in the wall. She wishes she had not given the inspector a false name, hopes to talk to him alone. CHAPTER VIII Christine waited uncomfortably while the inspector gave some final instructions to his subordinates. But before she had an opportunity which she was to be driven to formed man hurried her into it. Later, on the way upstairs to the office, she heard the sergeant's voice behind her—low, but she imagined, intentionally audible:

"Pretty neat, Inspector— that girl's being the first to touch that knife — if her own fingerprints were already all over it." "And Yardley's being down and add a few tablespoon milk or cream. 2 or 3 teaspoons of butter adds a richness, but is not necessary.

Banana Pie

Arrange a layer of bananas on looked pale under the brilliant lights of the office, for no sooner were they all seated than the in-spector said to an officer at his elbow, "Get the young lad; a drink. She looks sick."

hurried in and put an envelope on the desk.

car, Chief," he said in an under-tone. "Locked and parked at the end of the 27th street dock. The number checks at the State office." Inspector Parsons glanced through the contents of the en-"Okay," he nodded. "Get one of the Amalgamated officials and check up on the rest of the stockholders. . . And wait a minute —

car. He took a key holder from his pocket. "Now, Mr. Yardley, how long have you known Mrs." "After a fashion for 10 or 12 But - why, he didn't tell me this! Christine thought.
"What do you mean by 'after a fashion'?" "I met her at a horse show

I met her at a horse show where I was riding. Since then I've trained several thoroughbreds for her. But I've seen her very sel-dom." "But often enough to borrow money of her?"

* * * Bill flushed angrily under his tan. "That's a matter of record. You can easily find out-"

Christine listened incredulously. "In return," Inspector Parsons went on, "for a silent partnership in your firm - which, at the time, wasn't worth $10,000."

"Mrs. Talbert knew that." "But which is now worth many times as much. Your agreement with Mrs. Talbert was unusual. At the death of either of you, your joint property automatically verted to the other. On your repaying the loan, it reverted to you.
... Have you repaid that loan?" 'Not entirely.' The inspector swung on Mr.

SERIAL STORY

"Mr. Wilmet," he said, "you ow some Amalgamated stock, 1 be "Why, yes-yes, I have a few hares," he admitted.

"It might be interesting to know how you voted on that merger be tween Amalgamated and Nationa that went through at the stock holders' meeting yesterday."
"Well," Mr. Wilmet said nerv usly, "as a matter of fact. I didn't go to the meeting at all." "You didn't have to go. Someone else could have voted your stock by proxy."

"But I — why should they?" "Mrs. Talbert wa" interested in "Mrs. Tailert was merger. Yet two preventing that merger. Yet two days before the meeting, Mrs. Tailed paying her own consin to work." the servants sent on vacation, and Bill Yardley moved as if to speak; but apparently thought care of money, I should have no better of it. The inspector glanced choice but to change my will — in at him with interest; but Mr. Wilmet was going on:

I resent your men taking away fully.

Meantime another subordinate ing shoes I had. I've got bad arches, and these hurt me." Christine remembered that sh had seen the little man stumble several times after he had appeared on the Boardwalk. Now he was wriggling his small feet in their trim dress shoes in obvious discomfort; and he seemed abo to expand on his grievances. But the inspector cut in: "You'll get them back. By the way, Yardley, suppose you step into the next room—and you" he indicated Jaspar. "We want a look at the shoes you're wear-

As Bill and Jasper filed obediently out, another officer slipped in and handed the inspector a rein and handed the inspector a report.

"As I expected," Inspector Parsons commented after glancing at the paper. "The only prints on that dagger are identical with those Miss — Nevin, did you say the name is? — made on that glass she drank from a while ago. If there were any others, someone has cleaned them off."

"Unwar, maps are as important as food; you can't travel without them," the report explained. "They have to be accurate, and, strange as it may seem, before the war, no usable maps of Europe existed."

There were plenty of maps, but they were out of date. They

But Inspector Parsons had swung again upon Mr. Wilmet. "Now," he snapped, "suppose you tell me why you introduced an easily find out—"
"I have already found out," the inspector cut in coldly. "The no"Why shouldn't I?" Mr. Wil-

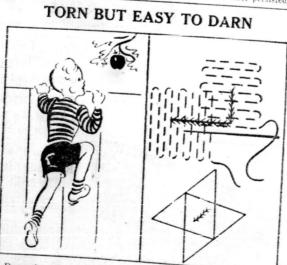

"I have already found out," the inspector cut in coldiy. "The notary who always witnesses her papers remembers the transaction.

Commercial years ago Mrs. Talbert "Why shouldn't I?" Mr. Willing the ineffectual chin waggled truculently. "This young lady told me her name was 'Miss Grace Manin' I naturally believed it was. Nevin.' I naturally believed it was, I haven't any reason to think it . . . "Yet an employee from the Crestview identified her as the young woman who registered at the hotel as Miss Christine Thor-"I still don't believe it," Mr. Wilmet declared loudly.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Wilmet." Christine said "I did give you an an assumed name .. I tried to tell you Inspector." "Did you inspector.

"Did you, indeed?" the inspector asked dryly. "I hadn't noticed it."

"But," Mr. Wilmet persisted, "if Draw the edges together neatly with fishbone stitches. Darn the tear beginning the stitches half the length beyond and also half the length of the cut above and below. Keep an equal stitches in rows because there is no thin or worn spot. Darn for two thirds across the tear. Repeat on the opposite side and continue across the tear, level with the line of stitches. Complete the first should form crosses, steps or Ts.

label is your guarantee of uniform blend of fine quality to this young lady chooses to use a - a pen name, I can't see why it makes any difference to any one

"It makes just this difference dence that Mrs. Talbert's body very concession where you were

The pink face Mr. Wilmet the telephone discontinued; and Mrs. Talbert. who owned enough stock to stop that merger single-handed, apparently went off some-"And Yardley's being down around that boat with that beach-combet, if you ask me," the inspector agreed, "Well, I'm expecting some dope about both of them any moment."

Christine, who was a "who-done-it" fan, and thought she knew all about police psychology, said to herself, "They're staging this for my benefit. I won't let them scare me."

"And Yardley's being down around that beach where on a trip. I believe some of the Amalgamated stockholders might know where she went and why... Now when my men found you in that drug store, about 1, you said you had been attending a show from 9 until after 12 o'clock. Could you prove that?"

"No, sir." Mr. Wilmet was white, but he spoke with a spirit that surprised Christine. "Why that surprised Christine. "Why should I expect I'd have to?"

The property of the spoke with a spirit reckless extravagance. I have already warned you that unless you gave me reason to believe that you had learned something about the which, as of course you know, you are named as my chief heir. I am about to take steps to make that

When Christine looked up, she knew that her face must be as (Continued Next Week)

Troops Guided By 125,000,000 Invasion Maps

A report made public by the United Sales War Department said that 125,000,000 maps had been prepared so that the invasion forces could "know exactly where they were going" after they landed. The making of these maps was "one of the most elaborate pro-jects of the war" and depended ces could "know exactly where largely on aerial photography and showed roads and buildings that no longer existed, and they failed to show many terrain features.

Secret Of Invasion Weapons Well Kept

The Allied Army of Liberation rammed Hitler's Westwall with many secret weapons in use for the While not disclosing the types and actual number of these weapons, the British Ministry of Supply said factories had been manufacturing them for many months pas under the greatest secreey. Often workers themselves did not know what they were making. The weapons, many so vital they were made in small parts at widely separated plants, were brought together only for final assembly. Workers in these plants were pledged to secrecy - and they

Allied Troops Learn German Commands

Commands in gutteral German were barked out to troops carrying Nazi weapons on English soil but it was neither an enemy invasion nor a parody on Hitler's brok-

Instead, the troops were Allied soldiers, learning against the day of invasion how to distinguish one German command from another when the fighting gets to close range, and how to put enemy weapons to use in emergencies.

Shepherd Dog Acts As Guide To Raiders

Night after night American Air Force and R.A.F. bombers shuttled across the Channel and unerringly bombed secret key fortifications in a small fishing village near the Belgian city of Ostend guided by the ingenious signals of natives, reveals the Belgian Relief Society, agency of the National suricws and hundreds of soldiers bombs struck the target of gian shepherd dog, 2 strapped to his back. At the runs he was train

Many Feints Mad

coming.

₩.

by Laura Wheeler

ops! And eve

stamps cannot be making doilies; stitches;

Send twenty cents in

WHEN NERVOUS TROUBLES
MAKE ME "SHAKEY"
I FIND DR. MILES NERVINE

HELPS TO RELIEVE NERVOU

TENSION AND CALM

TTERY FEELINGS

There's plenty these days to man people nervous. And overtake nerves can turn pights and days in misery! If you suffer in this way, try the soothing, quieting effect of Dr. Miles Nervine which contains well known parves sedatives. Take

Dr. Miles Nervine which contains well-known nerve sedatives. Take Nervine according to directions for help in general nervousness, sleeplessness, hysterical conditions, nervous fears; also to help headache and irritability due to nervousness. In the meantime, eat more natural food... get your vitamins and labe sufficient rest. Effervescing Nervine Tablets are 35c and 75c. Nervine Liquid: 25c and $1.00.

ISSUE 25-1944

Before Inva

CANADIAN NURSING SISTERS IN ITALY on without a bomb de peared the the beach at incr dian nursing sisters stationed at a Casualty Clearing Station on the Italian front. Front row, left to Lt. A. Halabuza, Willowbrook, Sask. Lt. Dorothy Dent, Ottawa, Ont.; Capt. Dorothy Machan, To-; Capt. Constance Winter, Ottawa; Lt. Elizabeth Cleland, Toronto; Lt. Bernice Bigley, Montreal. row, left to right: Lt. Aurdey Auger, Toronto; Lt. Irene Henderson, Quebec City; Lt. Evelyn Galh, Renfrew, Ont.; Lt. Mary MacDonald, Saint John, N.B.; Lt. Mary Angus, Victoria, B.C.; Lt Eyelyn er, Ottawa; Lt. Elizabeth Crothers, Kingston Ont.; Lt. Maxime Fuller, Edmonton, Alta.

But we will worry about that when

In the meantime we are trying to catch up with the odd jobs and to keep pace with the weeds and the grass. But I am afraid the weeds are winning. I often wish we had a nice, friendly grandpappy living with us. One old enough to be past real hard work but active enough to like puttering, doing the little odd jobs that we haven't the time for and yet which make so much difference to the appearance of a farm home. I wonder if families where there is such a grandpappy realize how much he does for them? If the family is away and late getting home, they know that grandpa will see to the chickens. And it is generally grandpa who fixes the window-screens and cleans up the chip yard. When there is an extra rush of work-which seems to be all the time now-mother often the kettle boiling for tea. Grand-day we saw a grandiather busily working up the flower beds.

was somewhere around 85 in the shade and we thought it was awful he should be working out in the heat. But then we realised he was probably working because he live long enough we shall be old people too and perhaps the love and tolerance we show now may be as bread upon the waters

Here's to the old people anyway-and remember, this world still given a good basic education. It provides for a school for artisans, technical high schools, and a three

PIN-UP BOY

British Boy Scouts are in training to follow the invasion and aid victims of the Nazis. Assistant Scoutmaster Baden Powell practices with Philip of the Nazis. Assistant Scoutmaster Baden Powell pract Valker, 14 months, on how to be helpful at one task.

needs you and wants you.

comes in from the barn and finds the time comes.

HRONICLES

contrariness hens and down to the barn just | haying and harvest are not so good. Allies conducted a series in advance of the inv artner said - "Well, I haven't got enough cows, These feints were pred s came in to be milked time ago by Churchill, and were desir ing." He meant that ugt the cows in from fuse the Germans he horses came ahead into the cow stable intheir own. Funny how dumb animals can be

Florentine craftsmen are ed for their work of wir gold and silver and emb

I am wondering what kind erry chase my chickens will in a few days. We have the sexes, putting the t be shut up for a few they get used to it. Even st time they are let out s are they will all come the brooder house—and my will start all over again! are times when I think eggs a dollar a dozen and fifty cents a pound.

crops are looking just fine ere these days and prosfor a good harvest appear sing. Prospects for help for year diploma course for engineers

OTTAWA REPORTS Gwendoline P. Clarke

That It Is Now Possible For Old Age Pensioner To Receive $425 Annually

Changes in the act governing pensions for the aged and blind were announced last week in the House of Commons by the Minister of Finance, Hon. J. L. Ilsley. Most important change is that an old age pensioner may now receive an outside income of $125 instead of the former $65 limit. As the maximum pension remains at $300 a year, it is now possible for a penioner to receive $425 annually.

Elevation of the Chilean legation n Ottawa to the rank of embassy makes the Seventh embassy in Ottawa. The others are United States, Belgium, China, Brazil, Soviet Union and Peru. Other countries represented by diplo-matic missions in Ottawa are: legations .- Poland, Norway, Greece, Czechoslovakia, Sweden, Argentina, Turkey and Netherlands; High Commissioner's offices, - United Kingdom, Australia, New Zealand, Union of South Africa and Irelend. Delegate with the rank of ambassador,-French Committee of National Liberation.

National Selective Service has nnounced that greater use of isoners of war will be made to ombat the manpower shortage. About 5,500 are now used in farming or lumbering, and it is expected hat the number will be increased to 8,000 during the summer. A new cheese contract with wanted to; that he was getting a lot of pleasure in doing it and would quit when he felt like it. will be supplied from Canada during the 12 months commencing May 1 this year, has been an-Yes, we would like a grandpa around here, but I'm afraid that will nounced. The price is 20 cents a lb. f.o.b. cheese factories. never be-unless we adopt one-and so far there doesn't seem to be any Grandfather's Aid Society. Perhaps someone will say-"You Cost of production will ultimately determine the whole course of the Canadian poultry industry, accorddon't know what you are talking about-an old person is an awful ing to poultry experts of the Docharge." Maybe so, but then we minion Department of Agriculture, > costs which they advise cannot be Continued use of inferior stock. Preventable chick losses, and Waste in heat units, cold housing poor insulation, slow feathering, pare necks and premature moul Education In India Waste in feed, poor hoppers, A national system of educatio rats, spillage, sparrows. Toll of lice, mites and other ver which all children of India will b ondition and in good feather the year. Idleness, overfeeding and filth as ontributing factors in reducing health and vigor. Effective June 5, chuck roasts and other front quarter beef cuts ome about four cents a pound cheaper under Prices Board beef eilings. Retail cost of hind quarter cuts will increase about four cents Aim of the adjusted prices is to bring about a better balance in onsumption since the removal of ationing. Another new Board order, now effective, prohibits the slaughtering of lambs weighing less than 60 lbs. live weight.

March Into Berlin

A United States army band which followed Gan. Dwight Eisenhower on his victory path through Africa and Sicily has now reached London and Director Thomas D'Arcy announced had come "to do the same in Europe - lead parades through Paris and Berlin."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

THE POWER IN SIMPLE LIVING

JUNE 25 (Temperance Lesson.) - Daniel I: 8-16, 19, 20. GOLDEN TEXT. - But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's dainties, nor with the wine which he drank. Daniel I:8.

Memory Verse: Children, obey THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING Time. - The first capture of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar, which resulted in Daniel and other being taken to Babylon, occurred in 607 B.C. Therefore, the events of our lesson may be said to fall omewhere between 60, and 604, or perhaps 605 B.C. Place. - Babylon, The great capital of the Babylonian Empire, or he Euptrates River. Daniel's Decision "But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's dainties, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself". Daniel shows his character, even at an early age. The Jewish law forbade him to eat the blood of fowl or beast or any heathen sac rifice. These things were included ble. Daniel was resolved not to sequences.

kindness and compassion in the We should note it was not Daniel's beauty or goodness which brought him into favor, but God who anoved in the heart of the prince of the ennuchs

"And the prince of the ennuchs said unto Daniel, I fear the lord the king, who hath appointed your food and your drink; for why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths that are of your own age? so would ye endanger my head with the king." Daniel and his companions carried so weak and pale that the king would charge him with neglect of duty and endanger his head:

"Then said Daniel to the steward... and as thou seest, deal with thy servants". Daniel knew that his simple diet with the blessing of God would do more for bodily appearance than the king's dainties. The man or woman who lives simply and abstains from al cohol will certainly be healthie in body and brighter in countenance then those who have allowed the appetites to master them and are slaves to self-indulgence.

Result of Daniel's Plan Britain, by which 125 million lbs. "So he hearkened unto them this matter, and proved them ter their countenances appeared fairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths that did eat of the king's dainties. So the stew ard took away their cainties, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them pulse." Daniel was determined to pleas God and to live so that his life might be one of strength and purity, and that his physical appetites should remain under definite control. In other words he determined, of his own will, to descipline hir self and to do those things that the law of God ordered, even in a strange land. Daniel's Wisdom Recognized "And the king communed with Carelessness in maintaining ade pate clean water supply.

Failure to keep birds in good Slowness of pullets to start layng, and inability to maintain cor nercial production in the fall o

"Ike's" Band To Lead

HORIZONTAL

14 Important metal.
15 Sister (abbr.)
16 Tree.
17 Drunkard.
19 Part of foot.
20 Laboratory 21 Mediterrane-an island. 24 Life (prefix).

Answer to Previous Puzzle

WICKARD EMERALD
INTONE AR 10 Til INOER INTONE AR 11 Six (Ron
NO AMON
EMS SRO LAN ASSP
SITE ES R THE NEED A MIN IN R
TOIL TU VOW 22 Sloping to 23 Tellurium (symbol)
RUNK ARRAI GNED TO 23 Tellurium (symbol)
PTO K NEW SOL
PTO WITT BRALE
EAR METED SALAD
TRIACED NORTH RO

VERTICAL

9 Editor (at 10 Til
11 Six (Ron 12 The processor of the pr 41 Pronoun. 25 Coarse 41 Pronoun. hominy (pl.) 44 Company 46 Over (poet.) 48 Type of 29 Universal 50 Half an em. premium. 51 Look askance. 5 The teams he Guido's scale. 50 Half an em. 32 Everything that grows. 33 Part of "to 52 Similar.

1 Pictured late

11 Vixen. 12 Evades.

(abor.).

be." 58 Spain (abbr.). games. 47 Twenty 34 Theater sign 59 He made two 6 The state of 49 Demon. (init.). 36 Like. 37 He graduated coached won five _____ 45 Unit. 46 Medley. 53 Awesome. 58 Spain (abbr.). noteworthy

—s at the expense of Notre Dame.

being envio
7 Earthenway
jar.
8 Stupefies.

FOOTBALL MENTOR

11 Six (Rom.).

38 Biblical name

39 War flyer

gatherer. 42 Obliterate.

47 Twenty quires

40 Honey

VERTICAL 35 Fetid.

2 Either.

3 Squander.

4 Exchange

being envious. 54 Prefix.

Farthenware jar. 55 Musical note, 56 Year (abor.). 57 Upon.

VOICE OF THE PRESS

UNSEASONED SLEEP

Sleep can be induced by reducing the amount of salt in the diet, scie tists say. One would imagine this would "freshen up" the system to a point which would make slumber impossible.

THE SPRING GARDENER An 82-year-old lady is in the news for spading her garden. We are a mere 41, but felt 82 the day after spading ours. In fact, we were all doubled up! - Ottawa Citizen. NO STOCKINGS

A California banker says there are not as many stocking banks these days. This might come under the heading of bare facts. - Guelph Mercury. PENNY STOCKS better than all the magicians and realm."

having to pass it around. - Fort Erie Times-Review. And Life Insurance

Warning has been issued against a boom in penny mining stocks.

Such was the wisdom and understanding of Daniel and his com-Daniel had honored God by his fi-

Those are the stocks that are bought because they are "near" some other big and profitable property. A corner news stand can be right up against a bank but there is usually quite a difference. -- Port Arthur News-Chronicle.

ADOLF AS A FIRE-BUG It is rumored now that to stall off the invasion, Hitler will set fire to the English Channel. He's the guy who thought he could set the world afire, and got all that smoke in his eyes.

- Ottawa Citizen,

HAT TRICK The mar. who talks through his hat all the time usually ends up by

Money In Banks

Many Canadians have saved money and put some away in the savings banks or invested it in life insurance, writes W. L. Clark, putting by for a rainy day or creating an estate. Much of this ney has been set aside by de enchanters that we'e in all his and even going without what others deem necessities. We would like to know how panions that in comparison the wise men of Babylon knew very little. surance companies. We don't think surance companies. We don't think many of them want to see their delity to His laws and now God in | hard-earned savings made the polfalfillment of His promise (1 Sam. itical pot for any party seeking to 2:30) honored inin by exalting dole out funds to job-seekers and ward bosses.

them... he found them ten times I him in the eyes of the king.

Maj.-Gen C. Vokes, D.S.O., of Ottawa, in the picture on the left, speaks to Canadians soldiers during the dedication of a Canadian cemetary in Italy. The chaoel, shown on the right, was Germans but will be restored and used as a shrine to the Canadians who fell in Italy.

DELICIOUS SUPPER TREAT CARROT TIMBALES cups milk, scalded tablespoons butter 14 teaspoon salt 14 teaspoon pepper teaspoon salt 4 teaspoon pepper 1 upcoarseChristie's Premium Soda Cracker crumbs 3 eggs. separated dieacock lemon juice Christies Biscuits FROWN AND COMPANY LIMITED Bakeries: TORONTO & WINNIPSC