What About The School Tax? - One of the promises which Col. George Drew made prior to the general election last August was that the School Tax on property would be reduced 50 per cent. This promise HAS NOT BEEN KEPT.

What About The Hydro? - Under the guise of reducing rural hydro rates, the service charge was reduced to rural consumers. However, by a change in the schedule of rates, your Hydro bill is now ACTUALLY HIGHER for a corresponding period.

What About The Soldier Vote? - During the last general election campaign, Col. Drew made a big issue of the proxy vote for soldiers. Now, with his first opportunity to do so, he does not even give them a chance to vote by proxy, either overseas, in Canada, or in Ontario.

Result Of By-Election Is Endorsement Of Policies Of Drew Administration

The voters of the Haldimand-Norfolk riding left no doubt in their choice of leadership by the return in the by-election voting that took place on Monday, Charles Martin, Progressive Conservative, was elected to the House of Commons.

Bitter Words In Legislature - The by-election, occasioned by the death of W. W. Walsh, Progressive Conservative who was elected at the general election last August, provided the new government with a testing ground. And, from the result, it was a successful test as far as Premier Drew's administration is concerned.

Clear Majority Given Martin - The voters of the Haldimand-Norfolk riding left no doubt in their choice of leadership by the return in the by-election voting that took place on Monday, Charles Martin, Progressive Conservative, was elected to the House of Commons.

Ration Book Distribution On Saturday - The distribution of Number 4 Ration Book will take place in the local town on Saturday, March 25th. An advertisement elsewhere gives complete information as to where the books may be secured.

Buck-A-Month Club Is In Need Of New Members - The Buck-A-Month Club is planning a new undertaking, which is to sponsor shipment of cigarettes for the Jarvis Cigarette Fund.

Election Results - Following are the results of the voting in Mondays by-election and comparative figures for the general election last August. The figures in the voting on Monday are for official, but compiled by telephone to the Jarvis Record and Election Reformer, and they are, we believe substantially correct.

CHARLES MARTIN

The budget debate, just getting underway, also involves the province's work with opposition speakers probably leveling their heaviest attack on the government's policy on financial aid to municipalities in regard to education.

The budget announced a one-million subsidy in this connection and stated that a royal commission would study the real estate tax structure in relation to educational costs. The subsidy will amount to more than $3,000,000 a year.

Mr. Joffe then said the premier's statement would offer to reveal publicly all sources of campaign funds for his party and others. He believed we really are fighting as a nation to preserve freedom, honor, justice and truth.
