The Letter Box

Dear Friends:
I wish to thank you for the gift of cigarettes that arrived just a week ago. It was a grand gift to get. Also I wish to thank the people of Jarvis for the Record which I have been getting for some time and sure enjoy reading it. Well there are always some of the boys who are out. Another treat almost as good as the cigarettes was seven copies of the
"Record".

—Gnr. A. RAWCLIFFE

Dear Rusty:
Thanks for two more cartons of cigarettes that arrived just a week ago. This brings my stock up pretty well, but there are always some of the boys who are out. An-
"Record".

—LORNE PORTER

Received your parcel last night.
The paper was just in time as I used my last couple of cigarettes yesterday. Please excuse the note but I had a large mail along with your parcel so have rather a lot of writing to do.

So thanking you all once again I shall close sending my best regards to each and every one of you sincerely.

dedicate Party To ReBuilding Canadian Unity; Bracken

CANDIDATE

Mark Senn Again Selected
Pro. Con. Candidate
For Haldimand

There is less unity in Canada today than at anytime for the past twenty-five years" was the assertion of John Bracken, leader of the Federal Progressive Conservative Party, at the convention of the party in Cayuga on Tuesday night, which again nominated Mark C. Senn as Candidate in the next election for the Haldimand riding.

"Unity can only be weakened," said Mr. Bracken, "when one section of the people is used to advance the political prospects of a party leader and to blame. Unity can only be rebuilt on the acceptance of equal responsibilities and equal sacrifices in return for equal rights and on that basis we dedicate the Progressive Conservative Party to the rebuilding of Canadian unity."

MARK SENN AGAIN NOMINATED

For the seventh consecutive time, Mark C. Senn, was nominated to represent the Party in a Federal election campaign. Mr. Senn was first nominated in 1921 and he has continuously represented the Haldimand constituency in Ottawa since that time. Mr. Senn's nomination was moved by Earl Catherswood, Deputy Mayor of Walpole Township, who outlined his successful career. "I am safe in saying," said Mr. Catherswood, "that the people of this constituency have a high regard for Mark Senn at the present time than at any time since his first election.
His advice is sought at all times on Agricultural matters, and I am told on good authority that his good advice is sought at all times in the House of Commons by all parties."

The nomination was unanimous.

In accepting the nomination, Mr.
Senn expressed his thanks to the party organization in Haldimand.
"No matter how able a man may be, his election is never sure on his own merits alone," said Mr. Senn. "We are going to have a real election in Haldimand—there is none better in the Dominion of Canada. I would like to contribute to the good work of B. L. Edgewood, your President for the past twenty years, and to the efficient secretary, W. R. Jackson, for their organizational efforts."

"The big problem facing us is that of rehabilitation," said Mr. Senn.
"It is a big problem and will require the best thoughts by those elected to speak in the House of Commons.
We must choose between two systems—Free enterprise and socialism."

"The system built for the purpose of allowing us to choose our own way of life is the best system. We are the right of a just and fair reward for the industry of the individual, and it is my belief it is the best system to achieve the best in life."

"There are some faults he continued, "but it should be the function of Government to see that the system is improved, but change should come from within. The system of the usual way with the usual people and the usual way with the usual people is the best way with the usual people and the usual way with the usual people."

"The other system, being changed by a considerable number of people to nationalize the means of production and to build up a bureau state of servants and bureaucrats. I cannot speak in the House of Commons that the Canadian people want that and are confident that the generally Canadians agree that we want the best Country in the World. The best Country in the World is the one with the most honest, sincere job."

Mr. Senn introduced his motion to the more than three hundred people who filled the Court House, and he was met with cheers as he proposed. In his opening remarks to the meeting, he reviewed his own political life which has extended over the past twenty-five years. He told of being elected to lead the farmers Government in Manitoba when that group suddenly found themselves in power in the 1922 election. He accepted the post and until he saw a change in the situation, he resigned the post.
He then spoke of his experience in the Winnipeg Convention of the Progressive Conservative Party, the Government had remained in power in Manitoba. "This was due to the fact that the Government approach to the people was not the usual way with the usual people. The Manitoba people," "Today Manitoba has the most stable Government in Canada, because the men in it did an honest, sincere job."

Lakeview, when asked to accept the leadership of the Progressive Conservative Party in Canada he said, "I am not a politician, I am a farmer. I have been a farmer for thirty years, and I have been a farmer for thirty years. I have been a farmer for thirty years, and I have been a farmer for thirty years. I have been a farmer for thirty years, and I have been a farmer for thirty years."
