You much that when bus. tion unlet and hour child thim and

No. of the last

This handsome trophy, the Seagram Gold Cup, emblematic of the Canadian Open Golf Championship, was won on Saturday, August 4th, at Thornhill Golf Club, Toronto, by Byron Nelson of Toledo, Ohio, with a score of 280, 4 strokes better than the runner-up Herman Barron, White Plains, New York. Outstanding players from all parts of Canada and the United States participated in the Tournament which was one of the most successful in Canadian golfing history. With the Seagram Gold Cup, Byron Nelson received a cheque from the R.C.G.A. for $2,000.

THEY DEFEND MARSHAL PETAIN

Attorneys for the defense of 89-year-old Marshal Henri Phillip Petain, on trial for his life on treason charges in Paris, are pictured above. They are M. Lemaire, left, and M. Isorni. The picture was made during a brief recess in the trial. WINS VICTORIA CROSS

Cpl. Frederick George Topham, 27-year-old Toronto member of the 1st. Canadian Parachute Battalion, who has been awarded the Victoria Cross for gallantry while serving as a medical orderly during the Battle of the Rhine.

11th Victoria Cross winner of this war, saw sniper bullets kill two other medical orderies, but this did not stop him from treating and carrying an unknown number of wounded to safety.

The action occurred near Wessel last March 25, when the Battle of the Rhine was at its height. Official Citation.

The citation accompanying the award to Topham read: "On March 24, 1945, Cpl. Topham, a medical orderly para-the shelter of the woods. chuted with his battalion on to a strongly defended area east of the Rhine. At about 11.00 a.m., whilst treating casualties sustained in the drop, a cry for help came from a wounded man in the open. Two medical orderlies from a field ambulance went out to this man in succession but Topham, who becomes Canada's , both were killed as they knelt beside the casualty.

"Without hesitation and on his own initiative Cpl. Topham went forward through intense fire to replace the orderlies who had been killed before his eyes. As he worked on the wounded man. he was himself shot through the nose. In spite of severe bleeding and intense pain he never faltered in his task. Having completed immediate first aid he carried the wounded man steadily and slowly back through continuous fire to

"During the next two hours Cpl. Topham refused all offers of medical help for his own wound. He worked most devotedly throughout this period to bring in wounded, showing complete disregard for the heavy and accurate enemy fire. It was only when all casualties had been cleared that he consented to his . mediately went out alone in six of the blasting ammunition m own wound being treated. "His immediate evacuation was enemy fire, and rescued the three occupants of the carrier. & ordered, but he interceded so brought these men back area the open ground, and although one died almost immediately & earnestly on his own behalf that he was eventually allowed to return to duty. erwards, he arranged for a

FOR YOUR PROTECTION ON THE HIGHWAY

undoubtedly owe their live b

"This non-commissioned offer showed sustained gallantry of the highest order, for six hours, mot of the time in great pain. He performed a series of acts of at-standing bravery and his mag-

spired all those who witnessed

Firestone

SAFETY PROUED ON THE SPEEDWAY

AT 100 MILES PER HOUR!

Imagine the punishment these tires took in this grueling, torturing test of tire safety and endurance as Wilbur Shaw, the famous race driver, under supervision of the American Automobile Association, averaged 100.34 miles per hour for 500 miles on the Indianapolis Speedway—equal to 50,000 miles of ordinary driving. Not a single skid or blowout occurred in the entire 500 miles—at speeds up to 135 miles an hour—definite proof that Firestone Synthetic rubber that Firestone Synthetic rubber tires will stand up to any demand you can make of them! Remember this fact when you buy new tires,

'On his way back to his company he came across a carrier which had received a direct hit. Enemy mortar fire was still dropping around, the carrier itself was burning fiercely, and its own mortar an:munition was exploding, an experienced officer on the spot had warned all not proach the carrier. "Cpl. Topham, nowever. im-

ALLIED MILITARY GOVERNMENT LEADS GERMANS ALONG 'THE ROAD BACK'

Japanese-speaking Capt. Ellis M. Zacharias, USN, above, is the "voice of doom" to Jap radio list-eners. Through the Office of War Information, he makes regular broadcasts to the Japs, stressing the hopelessness of further resistance and the certain destruction. ance and the certain destruction awaiting Jap cities.

SWEDES' PREMIER

Per Albin Hansson, above, conlinues as premier of Sweden, position he has held six years, in the quiet replacement of the wartime coalition government by a Social-Democratic cabinet.

Courts meet regularly to try offenders against Military Government regulations. They have jurisdiction over all persons in the Allied occupied territory except members of the Allied Forces, German civilians get copies of a weekly newspaper published under supervision of Military Government authorities. Besides news, it carries proclamations, new laws and other regulations.

These photos, taken recently in Bayrouth, Germany, depict ways in which Germans are being led along the road back to the democratic way of life under Allied military controls. They are typical of the progress toward governmental, educational and economic stability being made by the Allied Military Government units which moved into German communities immediately behind the combat troops. Upon Germans like these in the pictures—the children and adults—rests the fate of the new Reich. They must atone for the crimes of Nazism and make their own future in accordance with the decrees of the Big Three as announced from Postdam. In court scene at top, left, two defendants standing at extreme right sold "protection" to German citizens acceptable to the Military Government are given arm bands as police officers. Uniforms will come later. They carry rifles to preserve order and guard valuable property.

There are on estimated 3,000,000 elementary school children in the American zone of Germany. Schools are opened under guidance of teachers approved by Military Government education officer.

German civilians by printing "Off Limits to Allied Troops' signs and selling them to property owners for posting. They pleaded guilty and were heavily fined. In photo of auxiliary policemen, the leader, left, served on Bayreuth's police fore for 40 years, retired during the Nazi administration and was recalled from retirement by the Military Government. New starved civilians like those in photo at left, weekly newspaper. Children in photo at right, below, are kindergarteners, the first age group to be started back to school. Approximately half a million children will attend the first four grades of elementary school by fall. Military authorities are rebuilding schools, many of which were wrecked by warfare.

The Perfect Thirst Quencher

ICED TEA

CHRONICLES

of GINGER FARM Gwendoline P. Clarke Gwendoline P. Clarke worked man in the county is the Agricultural Representative, who is responsible for ordering and placing the men where they are most needed. It is a wonder to me that the poor man isn't going in circles. Take our own case for instance. We wanted a man to help stook wheat. All right, we could get one. The next day it rained—that meant more tele-phoning to cancel the arrangement. And I suppose what held good for us held good for other farmers in the country. Another time we wanted help but as a sufficient number of farmers had not applied for help no men were sent out. Another time our local "Rep" phoned out to see if we could use a man as he had more men than he could place. It so sample of what is going on all over the county then I say that that it had been raining. And this is a holiday week-end and our city folk are here to enjoy a few days in the country. Sunday wasn't too bad-cool, but at least it was raining. The lights have been on in the house nearly all day. So what did we do? Weil, I'll tell you.

regular housecleaning all in one but very emphatically - "Mother, you are a real good mother but you are not such a good house-keeper." "Daughter" I replied,

"if you had had as much to do as I have lately, you wouldn't be a good housekeeper either."

And the rest of the family . .

friend Bert undertook to clean the inside of all the windows. And what a help that is. Partner and Bob dismantled an electric stove that was to be packed up and

The idea was to send it by trans-they decided it would be just as easy, if they could get it in the car, to deliver it personally. They got it in all right, so now, they are away. Daughter is still sweeping and dusting, the windows are nearly cleaned, the weather is clearing and I'm hearing a few remarks about going out to shoot ay! And do you know what she happened that we couldn't.

What I have longed to write | can now be written. The wheat is in! Yes, that's all I wanted to say—it doesn't sound very exciting does it? But there it is, and I can tell you every sheaf of grain that ces into the bara is mighty important these days because every farmer is looking at his hvestock rather doubtfully right now, wondering if he will have leed enough to winter them, and if ot whether there will be a shortge of what he may have to buy. and you people who buy your nay yet come to realise why the livestock. It may be reflected in your milk bottles or in the eggs that you buy-especially when there you are - and if that is a

However we don't have to worry about wheat. We never had such a heavy crop. Twenty-one loads off six-acres. What we would have done if son Bob hadn't been bome I don't know. Now all three men are complaining about sore backs and aching limbs—but they have the satisfaction of knowing he wheat is in the barn and not out in the field where right now it ould be geting nice and wet as h has been raining since sometime uring the night. . . .

Many farmers in this county have been glad to take advantage of Farm Commando help from the city, and, according to all reports, the Commando workers have given plendid satisfaction. They work ard, and the farmers work hard,

Education for Reconstruction

More trained leaders, scien tists and men and women of high academic and professional training are needed in all parts of Canada. The University of Western Ontarie is devoted to training men and women for leadership and for the duties and responsibilities of citizen-

Administration for young men who plan a business career; writers who desire to enter this fascinating profession. Registration September 22nd, 24th, 25th. For further information regarding scholarships, matriculation requirements, loan funds, courses of study, etc., write THE REGISTRAR

The UNIVERSITY of WESTERN ONTARIO LONDON - CANADA

ISSUE 33-1945

CHAPTER XIV "Fool! You would not have tried hat had you known how good Manfred is with the trigger." He bent and took the keys from Rog-er's pocket. "Thank you." He stcod up. "And you, my friends. demands transcend anything else." cut lip. "I was a young "Even the love of God and the a lot of silly dreams." love of your brother," said Meri-tenant Faber bowed stiffly. "I salute you. And yes-even sperhaps such loves as you mention. I am glad you have found sanctuary in this country. It would be a shame for such beauty as yours to suf-

"Make haste!" said Kehl in Gerthin, stubbled visage of Michel

No one moved. Not until, above mers and farm workers is surely no picnic. So, when we give credit to the city fellows who come out shouldn't forget to also give credit to the man who helped to get them there-our local agricultural re-I mentioned a few minutes ago fore morning" said Roger. "I'll go at once to St. Didier and telefine. Monday, dismal, dull and phone the police and the military They must have it all figured out. I suppose they'll 'trade' the wagon Daughter is giving the house a for some other car before long. Mike - Mike seems to belong there." His mouth was swollen, twisted now more with scorn than pain. Oberlieutenant Faber. I'll bet he has the Iron Cross." "Yes, monsieur, he has." It was

Rudolph who spoke, softly, sadly "That and other honors from the same source." "My God, Rudolph!" Madame

"I did not mean to speak of it ever, Madame." Rudolph stared unhappily at the fire. "But now there is no point in keeping silence. It was Jules Goujon who told me—Jules who once happen-ed to see his picture—the one Mermuch Meridel was interested in that one. Jules had seen him when he was taken prisoner by the English. And Jules described himyes, even to the Iron Cross I wore . Oberlieutenant Faber! am sorry, madame. I would have

by Laura Wheeler

An easy and inexpensive way to dress up your home and at the same time protect upholstery: crochet these flower-basket chair-sets.

Daisy medaiions, crocheted separately fill pineapple crochet baskets.

Pattern 629 has directions for chair-set; stitches.

set: stitches.
Send twenty cents in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern to Wilson Needlecraft Dept, Room 421, 73 Adelaide St. West, Toronto. Print plainly pattern number, your name and ground-hogs. And I-well, I'm thinking nice hot cup of tea would be quite in order, and after that I think I had better set out to prove to Daughter that my housekeeping abilities are only dormant - not extinct.

The Carlsbad Springs CARLSBAD ONTARIO MAY WE HELP YOU

TO BETTER HEALTH?

Carlsbad offers freatheness many non-contactious conditions; particularly rheumatism, arthritis stomach and organic disorders, annemia, overweight, post-operation and over-work. Our sanitarium guest-house provides friendly hospitality, comfortable rooms, best of home cookery vegetables, juice-therapy and special diets as required. Free-flowing, the subject of the cookery vegetables, juice-therapy and special diets as required. Free-flowing, restoring values in digestive, kidney, bladder and blood conditions, restoring values in digestive, kidney, bladder and blood conditions, restoring values in digestive, kidney, bladder and blood conditions, restoring values in digestive, kidney, bladder and blood conditions. Steam-heated mineral baths, hot packs, moorbaths, give tonic eliminative treatments; with skilled Swedish massage and exercises. Clear, dry air, sun-bathing in pine groves, outdoor life and healthsome recreations. Nursing staff; visiting physicians.

With a restful, cheerful environment Carlsbad seeks to life; good health and happiness to people in ordinary walks of life; being operated by plain people without personal profit. We are willing to deal specially with those unable to pay usual rate; please state your cricumstances. For September rates reduced to 176, per month, and as low as 382, per month for ward-beds, including meals and many Realth features. Write stating your condition: all inquiries answered. Since 1368 we have worked in full co-operation with the medical profession.

C. N. R. Just east of Ottawa.

Let this not spoil your merriment.
It is war, you know—a war whose stanch the flow of blood from the "Princess of Gratzen." Oberlieu-

man. "There is no time for talk. You know the pretty one? She is the Princess of Gratze, hein?" He bowed slightly, his mouth set in a hard smile. "She is warm here, nicht? We shall go now." Roger had risen slowly to his feet. Rudolph stood beside him. Meridel moved close to the old lady whose eyes never left the Fabre.

"Oberlieutenant Faber," she said. "A little child stamped on yourpicture and said she hated you.' do not understand, you people. You dersehen."

the low moaning of the wind, they anyone have the will to speak, to t,ink even, of what had happened. Roger went to the window then. Meridel came and stood beside him, her hand through his arm. They saw the tail lights of the station wagon receding until they were only fiery pin points; then nothing.

got up from her chair.

this you tell us? What do you mean?"

doing—always did know."

Madame stood up straight and died gladly to save you this. And

(To Be Continued)

"I do not deserve to be spared anything," Meridel looked at Roger. She took her own handkerchief and reached up and dabbed it cut lip. "I was a young girl with The air was keen and sharp as

Roger ran most of the way to St. Didier des Montagnes. Pere Delong hall while Roger called the provincial police, the military a thorities in Montreal, to tell them of the two escaped prisoners, of "Yes, some hours ago," Roger They wore sheepskins, knitted caps-if that is any help. I fancy they'll have a change of clothes.

I—1 hope you get them." He hung up slowly and went to the cure's fire where he lit a ciga on the mantel. There Pere Delam a big leather chair for him close "I could not help hearing. It has then been an exciting evening for you at the Chateau Philibert? There was no violence, I trust." . . . Roger touched his lip ruefully.

"I had a wild idea of throwing a book-end-Rodin's image of "The Thinker'-I never liked it-at the fellow who held the gun; the other landed with his fist on my mouth before I could get going." thought Roger, recalling other days.

The cure's man drove him back home, covering in a few minutes the long miles that had taken hours of walking and running. Roger ran up the steps of Phili-bert where the lights in the downstairs living room still burned.

Madame and Meridel and Rudolph were sitting there. The fire bur "There," said Roger, standing straggle-legged in front of the fire, facing them. "I informed the authorities. The chances are they knew nothing about the escape. Pérhaps the discipline in the camp had slackened a bit. But the hurt "You think they will be taken?"

firelight, but there was a tired, "They will not be allowed to cross country in time and again cause death to the innocent?"

Roger shook his head. "I do not think they'll be recaptured. Mike-Mike"—repeating the name he smiled bitterly—"knows every road and byway between here and the line. He knows what he's defiant. "I am not finished yet Michel Fabre always defied me, allaughed last. But tonight I have pity for him, the anger has gone You'll feel so well dressed in a shirtwaist frock, Pattern 4851. It's a style flattering to everyone, suit-able for almost any occasion. Choice a bullet from some guard's gur would put an end to a life like that.

A traitor, a murderer—! God have ed the old lady from the room, leaving Roger and Meridel to the able for almost any occasion. Choice of three sleeves lengths.

Pattern 4881 comes in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46. Size 36, 33/4 yards 39-inch material.

Send twenty cents (20c) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern. to Room 421, 73 Adelaide St. West, Toronto. Print plainly size, name, address, style number. quiet there, the soft murmur of the fiames on the hearth, the low voices of the wind in the trees.
"It has been hard for you, Meri-

SOUR APPLES FOR THE GERMANS

The sidewalk cases of Berlin are operating again, but the wines and schnapps and wonderful food of old Germany are only a memory. The drinks on the table in this picture are just colored water, now in great demand, and the broad tray the waiter is carrying is heaped with the main dish of the day—green apples.

Q. How can I clean a white felt

A. By using one quart of cornmeal mixed with one cupful each of salt and flour. Rub well into the night, and then remove by brush-

Western Wheat

during the very cool weather of the Spring and early Summer, that has done before, have been disappointed, says the Winnipeg Free Press.

an average crop- of wheat, but better crops of coarse grains, according to the third Free Press

pect of good crops almost every

There will be a little less than Any hopes that westerners

How Can I? by Anne Ashley

Q. How can I keep leather shoes soft and pliable?

A. Rub the shoes about once a week with castor oil, or rub occasionally with vaseline. Q. How can I destroy any taste of baking powder when making biscuits? A. Add a teaspoonful of sugar and it will destroy any taste of baking powder. Buttermilk is al-ways a good substitute for fresh milk when making biscuits.

Q. How can I whiten the teeth?

A. Afply peroxide of hydrogen, diluted with one half water. Or clean with prepared chalk and orris Q. Can I use laundry starch that is left over?

A. Yes, by allowing it to settle and dry, and then putting back in the package to use again.

4851

C.N.R. STATION

MOST DELICIOUS OF ALL CORN FLAKES!

Try Quaker Corn Flakes. You'll agree they remost delicious. If not, return the partly used package to your grocer and double you purchase r. ew will be refunded.

THE QUAKER OATS COMPANY OF CANADA SIMITED