Puzzled - No Wonder

Lieut. John F. Johnson thought it was mildly amusing when the first of a group of nine replacement seamen reported to his auxiliary ship recently, saluted, and said: 'Johnson reporting for duty, sir.'...

Too Often

A millowner had strong objections to granting concessions to his workpeople. One day one of the oldest hands approached him. 'I want next Friday off, sir,' he said. 'What for?' 'Well, you see, it's like this. It's my silver wedding, and me and the missus is going to have a bit of a do.'...

Och, Aye

"Weel, Angus," said Donald, "I hear ye've got married?" "Ay, Donald." "An' what kind of wife has ye got? Can she cook?" "No, I don't think so."

Unkind Reminder

She was fat and over forty, but she was still kittenish. The young man she had cornered at the party was thinking hard for some excuse to escape. At last he murmured, "Do you remember the youngster who used to tickle you under the chin at school?"...

SIDE GLANCES By Galbraith

"Oh, mother, there's something in life besides eating—every time he starts really getting serious you arrive with what you call the evening snack!"

FUNNY BUSINESS By Hershberger

LUMBER BASIC POST-WAR NEED

WELLES WAITS

Summer Welles, former Assistant Secretary of State, listens to testimony in a prepared statement, as he waits his turn to testify before the joint Congressional Committee investigating Pearl Harbor.

VOICE OF THE PRESS

STORKS FIRST "If there is anything we want in Canada, and want desperately," says John Blackmore, "it is babies, and we want them right away."

DEFINITION

We are indebted to Ed Smith Jr. for this one: "A committee is a group of important people who simply can do nothing, but who, together, can do anything that nothing can do."

ANOTHER REASON GONE

A manufacturer has put on the market a faucet washer which a woman can install herself. So another of the reasons for a girl's taking a husband is eliminated—Christian Science Monitor.

THOUGHT FOR STRIKERS

Wonder how the discharged veteran feels when he applies for a job and finds strikers won't let him go to work—Christian Science Monitor.

Three Objectives Of British in Java

Facts about the armed intervention of British forces in Java, not brought out in news despatches, are these: The British troops are there on behalf of the United Nations. They have three objectives only, first, to disarm the Japanese, next to rescue prisoners of war, thirdly, to restore order, broken by the Indonesian extremists who treacherously attacked Europeans and massacred some women and children. More and more it is becoming clear that the present disturbances were fomented by the Japanese. They seek to instill into the youthful Javanese husbands now fighting at Sourabaya, their own hatred of the white peoples.

U.S. Ships 1,000 Cattle to Poland

A carload of fat dairy cattle recently began a long journey to Poland to reseed depleted herds. The cattle are part of a contribution of 1,000 head by Memnonites all over the United States. They will be shipped from Baltimore and accompanied by about 50 Memnonite volunteers who will care for them en route.
